Painting the Bay Jean Blodgett, Jeffrey Spalding, McMichael Canadian Art Collection, John Hartman, 1993-01-01

Shaped by the West Wind Claire Elizabeth Campbell, 2005 Claire Campbell draws from recent work in cultural history landscape studies in geography and art history and environmental history to explore what happens when external agendas confront local realities a story central to the Canadian experience Explorers fishers artists and park planners all were forced to respond to the unique contours of this inland sea their encounters defined a regional identity even as they constructed a popular image for the Bay in the national imagination Jacket      Cities John Hartman, Dennis Reid, 2007 Cities the driving forces behind the economic and cultural engines of a country are very much on the minds of Canadians in the first decade of the 21st century The new paintings of John Hartman one of Canada's major contemporary painters offer an artistic vision of cities as living organisms deeply intertwined with the natural terrain of a geographic site Hartman has established an international reputation for his large scale paintings of landscape animated by the mythical and the mundane stories of specific locales His paintings of Georgian Bay of Newfoundland and before that of the land around Midland and its shadowy history of aboriginal settlement and conflict with the Jesuits there have gained a legion of admirers and attention across Canada and internationally Hartman's vivid landscapes excite the viewer with their abundance of colour and sense of the land as something infinite and yet possible to contemplate On one hand the land in Hartman's paintings is unbridled massive and primordial the thing that precedes Man and will outlast him but on the other hand it is incomplete without man's presence No place without people no people without place In Hartman's new series the carbuncular accumulation of close houses and towers and cranes and docks and roads that we call cities are presented as their own natural formation Man is busy in these paintings and though we do not see him is as integral to the landscape as now dwarfed mountains seas and lakes The landscape is still front and centre but it has changed its appearance and in its extraordinary purpose ignores Nature as Canadians used to think of it The cities are engines The cities are our raison d'être      Canadian Art, 2007

Canadian Environments Robert C. Thomsen, 2005 Responding to the comprehensive topic Old Environments New Environments scholars from a variety of disciplines reflect the various connotations that the term environment carries in a Canadian context Whether moving within the realm of foreign policy visual arts constitutional questions tourism nature preservation or aboriginal rights these essays put the capaciousness and cohesiveness of the nation to the test by illustrating the pressures enforced upon it by multiculturalism the claims for self-determination anti-confederate agitation and globalisation The environments scrutinised are many and various but within each the linchpin remains the quest for identity on the part of the individual the group or the nation at large Individually as well as collectively the essays in this volume constitute an important contribution to the ongoing debate on Canadianness      Art in the San Francisco Bay Area, 1945-1980 Thomas Albright, 1985-01-01 Offers a survey of modern painting photography sculpture ceramics and murals from the San Francisco area and provides brief profiles of each artist Canadian Who's Who 2008 Elizabeth Lumley, 2008-01-05 Now in its ninety eighth year of publication this standard Canadian reference source contains the most comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada The volume is updated annually to ensure accuracy and 600 new entries are added each year to keep current with developing trends and issues in Canadian society Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life politics media academia business sports and the arts from every area of human activity Each entry details birth date and place education family career history memberships creative works honours and awards and full addresses Indispensable to researchers students media business government and schools Canadian Who's Who is an invaluable source of general knowledge The complete text of Canadian Who's Who is also available on CD ROM in a comprehensively indexed and fully searchable format Search astronaut or entrepreneur of the year aboriginal achievement award and Order of Canada and discover a wealth of information Fast easy and more accessible than ever the Canadian Who's Who on CD ROM is an essential addition to your electronic library

Focus On Lighting Photos Fil Hunter, Robin Reid, 2013-05-02

Have you ever wondered if you need to use a flash in sunlight What the best lighting is for a macro shot How long your exposure should be in low lighting If you have this book is for you Lighting affects composition focus exposure decisions and pretty much everything about taking a picture Further the mood of the photograph is totally dependent on the lighting and can make or break the image It is also one of the hardest things for a budding photographer to grasp The existing lighting books tend to require expensive equipment and extensive knowledge on how to light photos For those who aren't at that level yet this guide shows how to take shots in certain settings and times such as lighting for specific seasons back lighting water lighting available light at mid day and more Loaded with photos tips tricks and inspiration you can't help but walk away from this book with the critical knowledge you need to know to take the perfect picture LIFE, 1942-07-06 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use

Facing Eden Steven A. Nash, Bill Berkson, 1995-01-01 The San Francisco Bay Area boasts one of the richest and most continuous traditions of landscape art in the entire country Looking back over the past one hundred years the contributors to this in depth survey consider the diverse range of artists who have been influenced by the region's compelling union of water and land peaks and valleys and fog and sunlight Paintings sculpture graphic arts photography landscape architecture earthworks conceptual art and designs in city planning and architecture are all represented The diversity reflects not just the glories of nature but also an exploration of what constitutes landscape in its broadest most complete sense Among the more than two hundred works of art are those by well known artists and designers such as Bernard Maybeck Diego Rivera Dorothea Lange Ansel Adams Richard Diebenkorn Joan Brown Lawrence Halprin and Christo Lesser known artists are here as well resulting in an exceptional array of approaches to the natural environment The essays also explore key themes in the Bay Area s landscape art tradition including the ethnic perspectives that have played an essential role in the region s art The inexhaustible ability of the land to stimulate different personal meanings is made clear in this volume and the effect yields a deeper understanding of how art can shape our lives in ways both spiritual and practical how the landscape without constantly merges with the landscape within Published in association with The Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco The San Francisco Bay Area boasts one of the richest and most continuous traditions of landscape art in the entire country Looking back over the past one hundred years the contributors to this in depth survey consider the diverse range of artists who have been influenced by the region s compelling union of water and land peaks and valleys and fog and sunlight Paintings sculpture graphic arts photography landscape architecture earthworks conceptual art and designs in city planning and architecture are all represented The diversity reflects not just the glories of nature but also an exploration of what constitutes landscape in its broadest most complete sense Among the more than two hundred works of art are those by well known artists and designers such as Bernard Maybeck Diego Rivera Dorothea Lange Ansel Adams Richard Diebenkorn Joan Brown Lawrence Halprin and Christo Lesser known artists are here as well resulting in an exceptional array of approaches to the natural environment The essays also explore key themes in the Bay Area s landscape art tradition including the ethnic perspectives that have played an essential role in the region s art The inexhaustible ability of the land to stimulate different personal meanings is made clear in this volume and the effect yields a deeper understanding of how art can shape our lives in ways both spiritual and practical how the landscape without constantly merges with the landscape within Published in association with The Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco The American Contractor ,1913
