Pak In Indonesia:

Pakistan Affairs, 1957 Television, Nation, and Culture in Indonesia Philip Kitley, 2014-07-31 The culture of television in Indonesia began with its establishment in 1962 as a public broadcasting service From that time through the deregulation of television broadcasting in 1990 and the establishment of commercial channels television can be understood Philip Kitley argues as a part of the New Order's national culture project designed to legitimate an idealized Indonesian national cultural identity But Professor Kitley suggests that it also has become a site for the contestation of elements of the New Order's cultural policies Based on his studies he further speculates on the increasingly significant role that television is destined to play as a site of cultural and political struggle

A. H. Nasution and Indonesia's Elites Barry Turner, 2017-11-17 This is an account of the military political and personal life of Abdul Haras Nasution who was a seminal figure in modern Indonesian history in the years prior to his effective sidelining in the 1960s He was an important commander during Indonesia's struggle for independence who rose to become a key leader of the Indonesian armed forces under the first president Sukarno Perhaps more significantly he developed ideas about guerrilla warfare that developed into a sophisticated and socially conservative doctrine for the mobilising of civilian communities This in turn became the underpinning of the repressive military backed New Order regime of Indonesia's second president Suharto who ruled from 1966 until 1998 and which Nasution initially supported Understanding Nasution's thinking about total people's resistance is therefore very important for understanding the broader trajectory of Indonesian political history That includes both the New Order and the emerging democratic regime that developed after its collapse The new political system that called itself the Reform Era was in many ways a direct reaction to the New Order military's penetration and close control of Indonesian society but it has never dismantled the shadow state structure of the armed forces that Nasution designed and Suharto perfected In other words as this book shows Nasution's legacy still looms large today in Jokowi's Indonesia This is not the first assessment of Nasution's life but it differs from earlier works by its investigation of Nasution's personal life and in particular his relationship with the well off and well connected Gondokusumo family of which he became a member by his marriage to Johana Sunarti Gondokusumo The author's thorough investigation of Nasution's relationship with Sunarti and her father offers important new insights into how Nasution's ideas evolved as does the translations of important extracts from Nasution's own voluminous writing included in the text
