three tumultuous years of Pakistan s history The author recounts with some amusement his family s experience of life in Islamabad society between April 1997 and June 2000all of it conducted under the suspicious gaze of Pakistani intelligence agents who shadow Baruah his wife and daughters everywhere including into friends living rooms He records his frustration at being disallowed from reporting freely on the ground many events that defined Indo Pak relations even as death or kidnapping forever stalks him Three incidents haunt Baruah the most not being cleared to attend the funeral in 1998 of John Joseph the bishop of Faisalabad who committed suicide in protest against Pakistan s blasphemy laws being forbidden to view the wreckage of an Indian Air Force plane shot down during the Kargil conflict of 1999 and being prevented from entering Afghanistan from Pakistan to report on the Kandahar hijacking later that year And yet says Baruah despite all the personal and professional difficulties he faced in Pakistan his stint in Islamabadand his exchanges with so many friends he cannot nameproved to be the most exciting and enriching in his career While admitting the difficult nature of his job as a foreign correspondent in a hostile nation Baruah recalls the joys of meeting generous like minded people in a country whose regimented stance on Indiaand its pressis less than friendly   Report of the Film Fact Finding Committee Pakistan. Film Fact Finding Committee,1962   Area Handbook for Pakistan Richard F. Nyrop,1971   Environmental Thought in Contemporary Pakistani Fiction Sonia Irum,2025-03-11 This book looks at Pakistani fiction from an environmental perspective focusing on the novels of the internationally renowned author Uzma Aslam Khan It explores the rich environmental landscapes of Khan s works and their distinctive contribution to developing Pakistani ecocriticism The book examines the discourse on the environment in contemporary Pakistani fiction in English and the contribution of Khan s fiction such as The Story of Noble Rot Trespassing Thinner than Skin and others towards developing ecological thinking in Pakistani literature and literary criticism In her novels Khan gives voice to the nonhuman or the Other highlights the harmonious connections between humans and nature and reflects on the far reaching ecological social and health effects of climate change The author showcases literary activism and analyses how the state engages with the ecopolitical discourses in Pakistani society by studying the intersections of Western imperialism militarism state policies capitalism consumerism and global climate change The book will be of interest to students and researchers of English literature environmental studies ecocriticism literary and critical studies postcolonial studies and indigenous studies   Faith and Politics in South Asia Astha Chadha,2024-11-18 This book explores the role of faith and politics in shaping the international relations of South Asia Adopting a neo classical realist framework and a discourse historical approach to analyze how religious actors construct their political identities and interests through the interpretation of sacred texts or exegesis the book makes several key contributions to the field of international relations It introduces the concept of exegesis as a novel analytical tool to understand the role of religion in world politics The book argues that exegesis is not only a theological exercise but also a political one as it shapes the worldviews values norms and interests of religious actors The author applies exegesis to three

case studies of South Asia the partition of India and Pakistan the rise of Hindu nationalism in India and the emergence of Islamic radicalism in Pakistan and resurging signs of the same in Bangladesh The research then challenges the conventional assumptions of IR such as the secularization thesis the clash of civilizations and the rational actor model by showing how religious actors are not monolithic homogeneous or irrational but rather diverse heterogeneous and strategic The book offers a nuanced and comprehensive understanding of the role of religion in world politics especially in the context of South Asia Highlighting the diversity and complexity of the religious landscape in South Asia which is home to various faiths sects movements and ideologies this book will be of interest to academics studying global politics international relations Asian Studies and studies on religion and foreign policy Art & Letters: Indian and Pakistan ,1927 Vols for 1925 include the society s annual reports and accounts of meetings 15th Transnational Pakistani Connections Katharine Charsley,2013-11-12 Since restrictions on commonwealth labour immigration to Britain in the 1960s marriage has been the dominant form of migration between Pakistan and the UK Most transnational Pakistani marriages are between cousins or other more distant relatives lending a particular texture to this transnational social field Based on research in Britain and Pakistan this book provides a rounded portrayal incorporating the emotional motivations for and content of these transnational unions The book explores the experiences of families and individuals involved including the neglected experiences of migrant husbands and charts the management of the risks of contracting transnational marriages as well as examining the consequences in cases when marriages run into conflict Equally however the book explores the attractions of marrying back home and the role of transnational marriage in maintaining bonds between people and places Marriage emerges as a crucial but dynamic and contested element of Pakistani transnational connections This book is of interest to students and scholars in the fields of migration studies kinship the family and South Asian studies as well as social work family law and immigration A Handbook for Travellers in India, Pakistan, Burma and Ceylon ,1920
