Culture, Philanthropy and the Poor in Late-Victorian London Geoffrey A. C. Ginn, 2017-04-21 In refreshing our understanding of this obscure but eloquent activism Ginn approaches cultural philanthropy not simply as a project of class self interest nor as fanciful missionary aestheticism Rather he shows how liberal aspirations towards adult education and civic community can be traced in a number of centres of moralising voluntary effort Concentrating on Toynbee Hall in Whitechapel the People s Palace in Mile End Red Cross Hall in Southwark and the Bermondsey Settlement the discussion identifies the common impulses animating practical reformers across these settings Ginn shows how these were shaped by a distinctive diagnosis of urban deprivation and anomie
