God's Will J. I. Packer, Carolyn Nystrom, 2012-01-01 Seeking God's guidance is a focus for many believers We want to know what God has planned for our lives Are we making the right decision Are we in his will For some people knowing God is guiding their lives makes them relax and enjoy the ride But others fear making the wrong choice and find themselves paralyzed as they wait for signs from above J I Packer and Carolyn Nystrom answer these fears with God's Will With solid biblical footing they shed light on the notion of God's guidance in response to the many misunderstandings well meaning Christians can have Readers seeking God's will in major life decisions as well as anyone interested in understanding how God guides us will welcome this practical and inspiring book The Way to Heaven Or Instructions, Prayers and Meditations by which All Sincere Christians May Find Salvation, 1864* Keeping the Promises Glenn E. Kunkel, 2012-10 This book seeks to glorify God in concrete ways by discussing miracles and other answers to prayer with their contexts in Bebe Harrison Patten's life The text should interest both young and older Christians as it confirms the truths of Scripture As Bebe is being filled with the Holy Spirit at age 16 she hears God's promise to use her to build a school for ministers and other Christian workers A central event in the book sets the usual runaway story on its head In leaving home to prepare for her ministry she is running toward the Father and to the truth Her unbelieving parents unable to understand her new found love in her religious experience craziness to them are ultimately converted to Christ The 16 year old girl evangelist exemplifies courage and conviction with natural and spiritual gifts the latter being motivational springs from God that keeps her all her life The book is filled with other conflicts as Bebe must believe God for everything sometimes even food and rent She becomes an example not only of faith but of great perseverance in faith as she continues to believe God's promise for the rest of her life having no other financial support Bebe Patten predated the feminist revolution in the U S by at least 30 years proclaiming women's rights including the right to preach in the early 1930s And with that message she spoke out against racial segregation Her ministry takes the reader back to a pre television pre technology gadget era when many more people went to church and believed in God and the Bible The persecutions she suffered are also reminiscent of an earlier age yet she never lost sight of her mission to establish a school That school is now Patten University She experienced the value that all things are possible with God The book will appeal to a wide range of Christians
