This enriching collection of stories, prose poems, verse parables, and autobiographical essays comprising the major body of Kahlil Gibran's works have been carefully translated and edited by a noted trio of Gibran scholars: Poet, artist, and mystic Kahlil Gibran was born in 1883 to a poor Christian family in Lebanon and immigrated to the United States as an adolescent. His masterpiece The Prophet, a book of poetic essays that he began while still a youth in Lebanon, is one of the most cherished books of our time and has sold millions of copies in more than twenty languages since its publication in 1923. But all of Gibran's works—essays, stories, parables, and prose poems—are imbued with equally powerful simplicity and wisdom, whether they are addressing marriage or children, friendship or grief, work or pleasure. Perhaps no other twentieth-century writer has touched the hearts and minds of so remarkably varied and widespread a readership. The Madman Kahlil Gibran, 2013-12 The Madman His Parables and Poems Brand New Copy New Edition By Kahlil Gibran Khalil Gibran January 6 1883 April 10 1931 was a Lebanese artist, poet, and writer. Born in the town of Bsharri in the north of modern-day Lebanon, then part of Ottoman Mount Lebanon, as a young man he immigrated with his family to the United States where he studied art and began his literary career writing in both English and Arabic. In the Arab world, Gibran is regarded as a literary and political rebel. His romantic style was at the heart of a renaissance in modern Arabic literature, especially prose poetry, breaking away from the classical school. In Lebanon, he is still celebrated as a literary hero. He is chiefly known in the English-speaking world for his 1923 book The Prophet, an early example of inspirational fiction including a series of philosophical essays written in poetic English prose. The book sold well despite a cool critical reception, gaining popularity in the 1930s and again especially in the 1960s counterculture. Gibran is the third best-selling poet of all time, behind Shakespeare and Laozi. You ask me how I became a madman. It happened thus: One day long before many gods were born, I woke from a deep sleep and found all my masks were stolen—the seven masks I have fashioned and worn in seven lives. I ran maskless through the crowded streets shouting: Thieves! thieves! the cursed thieves Men and women laughed at me and some ran to their houses in fear of me      The Collected Works of Kahlil Gibran
