The Prospects for North Korea Survival David Reese, 2020-11-25 North Korea s economic and security policies imperil both itself and its neighbours The economy has been contracting for almost a decade and the regime appears unwilling or unable to arrest the decline Instead Pyongyang has resorted to begging for international aid This approach alone cannot work fundamental reform is needed without it the regime cannot survive In the meantime the North s problems will be destabilising for the region Pyongyang has secured short term international humanitarian assistance but in the long term the South is its best hope for investment and economic help Despite Pyongyang s defensive approach to the South limited commercial arrangements are in place and may moderate the North s policies and help to ease the unpredictable consequences of Pyongyang s collapse Pyongyang has tried to improve relations with the US in a bid to ease economic sanctions and attract investment However the nuclear deal reached with the US in October 1994 under which the North agreed to give up its ambiguous nuclear programme is in difficulties In this paper David Reese argues that despite these problems the North s neighbours must persevere with engagement policies At the same time South Korea and the US must maintain their security posture on the Peninsula South Korean President Kim Dae Jung s attempts to establish commercial links with the North need time and patience and should not be derailed by relatively minor incidents Both Seoul and Washington must ensure that they coordinate their policies to prevent the North from playing one off against the other Selectively easing sanctions on a case by case basis could allow the North to earn desperately needed hard currency Although it is difficult for Washington and Seoul to maintain political support for engagement both should make further efforts to draw the North into making significant policy changes The US and South Korea should ensure that they involve the interested regional parties in efforts to draw the North into the international community China has a key role to play in developments on the Peninsula Both Seoul and Washington should therefore ensure that they work closely with Beijing While historical sensitivities make it difficult for Japan to play a leading role Tokyo would be central to the North's economic recovery and must not be marginalised Russia also has a contribution to make to the broader security guarantees which could develop from accommodation between North and South Ultimately the course of events on the Peninsula will depend primarily on the North Pyongyang shows little sign of being prepared to engage constructively with the US and South Korea As its economy deteriorates its options will narrow further Until domestic forces in North Korea shift the US and its allies should expect a protracted phase of desultory and sometimes destabilising diplomatic manoeuvres by Pyongyang

North Korea/South Korea John Feffer, 2011-01-04 The Korean peninsula divided for more than fifty years is stuck in a time warp Millions of troops face one another along the Demilitarized Zone separating communist North Korea and capitalist South Korea In the early 1990s and again in 2002 2003 the United States and its allies have gone to the brink of war with North Korea Misinterpretations and misunderstandings are fueling the crisis There is no country of comparable significance concerning which so many people are ignorant American anthropologist Cornelius Osgood said of Korea some time ago This ignorance may soon have fatal consequences North Korea South Korea is a short accessible book about the history and political complexities of the Korean peninsula one that explores practical alternatives to the current US policy alternatives that build on the remarkable and historic path of reconciliation that North and South embarked on in the 1990s and that point the way to eventual reunification

The Guerilla Dynasty Adrian Buzo, 2018-02-19 Throughout the 1990s North Korea has operated under a skeptical international eye due largely to the country's rigorous self imposed isolation its on going confrontation with South Korea a controversial nuclear arms program and the near total collapse of its economy North Korea's leaders have chosen to face the world with its Stalinist political culture and ideological framework intact for better or worse and by most reports almost exclusively for the worst How did this situation come to be and what are its consequences In The Guerilla Dynasty Adrian Buzo gives us an accessible up to date and rigorously researched account of the political economic and foreign policy developments in North Korea since 1945 Avoiding the Apocalypse: The Future of the Two Koreas [ISBN not on www] Noland, Marcus,2000 Security, Arms Control and Defence Restructuring in East Asia Bjørn Møller,2019-01-22 First published in 1998 this volume examines East Asia especially Northeast Asia which has been a region of considerable political security of importance for several key reasons It features several great and medium powers China Japan and Russia as well as North and South Korea Even though no arms race is yet discernible among these states with the partial exception of the two Koreas it is conceivable that one might commence If it did the level of militarization could become quite alarming if only because of the tremendous and rapidly growing economic potential of the regional states Even though relations among regional sates except the two Koreas are currently peaceful the region features several unresolved issues e g concerning territory and a historical legacy of enmity between several states To prevent such conflicts of interest from erupting into armed conflict is of the utmost importance A stabilizing factor is that the military potentials in the region are still predominantly defensively oriented i e most states lack the requisite power projection or invasion capabilities to inflict serious harm on each other However this might change in the not so distant future Hence the importance of confidence building measures of an institutionalization of regional relations and of a strengthening of commitments to defensive military strategies and postures Korea North Export-Import Handbook Volume 1 Strategic, Practical Information, Contacts IBP USA,2013-08 Korea North Export Import Handbook North Korea Under Kim Chong-il Ken E. Prospect Theory and Foreign Policy Analysis in the Asia Pacific Kai He, Huiyun Feng, 2013-01-17 Why does North Korea behave erratically in pursuing its nuclear weapons program Why did the United States prefer bilateral alliances to multilateral ones in Asia after World War II Why did China become nice no more military coercion in dealing with the pro independence Taiwan President Chen Shuibian after 2000 Why did China compromise in the negotiation of the Chunxiao gas exploration in 2008 while Japan became provocative later in the Sino Japanese disputes in the East China Sea North Korea's nuclear behavior U S alliance strategy China's Taiwan policy and Sino Japanese territorial disputes are all important examples of seemingly irrational foreign policy decisions that have determined regional stability and Asian security By examining major events in Asian security this book investigates why and how leaders make risky and seemingly irrational decisions in international politics The authors take the innovative step of integrating the neoclassical realist framework in political science and prospect theory in psychology Their analysis suggests that political leaders are more likely to take risky actions when their vital interests and political legitimacy are seriously threatened For each case the authors first discuss the weaknesses of some of the prevailing arguments mainly from rationalist and constructivist theorizing and then offer an alternative explanation based on their political legitimacy prospect theory model This pioneering book tests and expands prospect theory to the study of Asian security and challenges traditional expected utility based rationalist theories of foreign policy behavior

The Changing Military Balance in the Koreas and Northeast Asia Anthony H. Cordesman, Aaron Lin, 2015-07-07 The tensions between the Koreas and the potential involvement of China Japan Russia and the United States in a Korean conflict create a nearly open ended spectrum of possible conflicts These conflicts could range from posturing and threats to a major conventional conflict on the Korean peninsula with intervention by outside powers to the extreme of nuclear conflict The Korean balance is also affected by the uncertain mix of cooperation and competition between the United States and China particularly with the U S pivot toward Asia and the steady modernization of Chinese forces This new volume up to date through Spring 2015 provides a detailed examination of the military forces in Northeast Asia North and South Korea China Russia Japan and the United States setting those forces in the larger geostrategic context

The Global Outlook for Government Debt Over the Next 25 Years

Joseph E. Gagnon, 2011-06-15 This study addresses a fundamentally new feature of the contemporary world economy the simultaneous buildup of very large public deficits and debt positions in virtually all of the advanced high income countries The recent global financial crisis sharply accelerated this fiscal deterioration but it was already well underway in some countries including the United States where demographic prospects had posed extremely worrisome trajectories for a number of years The book has three basic objectives First it projects the global fiscal outlook to 2035 Second it asks whether the combination of deficits and debt in a large number of countries at the same time produces an impact on the world economy that is qualitatively different from the more traditional emergence of such problems in one or a few countries in any given period Third it analyzes the effects of the fiscal prospects on key economic variables including global interest rates and growth rates The analysis finds that the current public debt profiles in most advanced economies will grow to dangerous and unsustainable levels over the next couple of decades unless major changes are made in projected spending and revenue levels The authors conclude that the United States and Japan in particular need to start planning now for significant future budget cuts to minimize the risk of a crisis Acting soon enables the adjustment to be phased in over an extended period which cushions the inevitable adjustment costs while avoiding the potentially enormous pressures that could be levied by markets if correction is delayed too long

Contemporary American Relations with North Korea Mark Philip Barry, 1996

China and International Nuclear Weapons Proliferation Henrik Stålhane Hiim, 2018-07-24 This book explores China's approach to the nuclear programs in Pakistan Iran and North Korea A major power with access to nuclear technology China has a significant impact on international nuclear weapons proliferation but its attitude towards the spread of the bomb has been inconsistent China's mixed record raises a broader question why when and how do states support potential nuclear proliferators This book develops a framework for analyzing such questions by putting forth three factors that are likely to determine a state's policy 1 the risk of changes in the nuclear status or military doctrines of competitors 2 the recipient's status and strategic value and 3 the extent of pressure from third parties to halt nuclear assistance It then demonstrates how these factors help explain China's policies towards Pakistan Iran and North Korea Overall the book finds that China has been a selective and strategic supporter of nuclear proliferators While nuclear proliferation is a security challenge to China in some settings in others it wants to help its friends build the bomb This book will be of much interest to students of international security nuclear proliferation Chinese foreign policy and International Relations in general

North Korea's Foreign Policy Scott A. Snyder, Kyung-Ae Park, 2022-10-25 Since Kim Jong un's assumption of power in December 2011 North Korea has undergone expanded nuclear development political isolation and economic stagnation Kim's early prioritization of the byungjin policy simultaneous economic and military or nuclear development highlighted his goal of transforming North Korea's domestic economic circumstances and strengthening its position in the world as a nuclear state The central dilemma shaping Kim Jong un's foreign policy throughout his first decade in power revolves around ensuring North Korea's prosperity and security while sustaining the political isolation and control necessary for regime survival. In order to evaluate North Korea's foreign policy under Kim, this volume will examine the impact of domestic factors that have influenced the formation and implementation of Kim's foreign policy. Kim's distinctive use of summitry and effectiveness of such meetings as an instrument by which to attain foreign policy goals and the impact of international responses to North Korea's pursuit of nuclear capabilities on North Korea's foreign policy.
