Inter-cultural Performance Graham Squires, Manami Simmons, 2016 In the modern world we are accustomed to conceptualising international relations in terms of national identity We speak of English culture French culture and American culture as if these things were the basic building blocks of global civilisation While there is no doubt that national culture is important such a view fails to take account of the fact that there is great diversity within nations and powerful connections across national frontiers Just as individuals cannot be understood in isolation from the society of which they are a part so national cultures cannot be understood in isolation from the global community Since the beginning of human history cross cultural exchange has been important in bringing about social change This can be seen vividly in the way languages and their associated literary and dramatic traditions have interacted with one another This volume brings together a collection of essays that focus on the role cross cultural exchange has played in performance in the theatre and in film The aim is not to suggest any systematic theory of cross cultural exchange but rather to present a variety of examples that illustrate the subtle and complex way in which different cultures interact

The Metaphor of the Monster Keith Moser, Karina Zelaya, 2020-10-15 The Metaphor of the Monster offers fresh perspectives and a variety of disciplinary approaches to the ever broadening field of monster studies The eclectic group of contributors to this volume represents areas of study not generally considered under the purview of monster studies including world literature classical studies philosophy ecocriticism animal ethics and gender studies Combining historical overviews with contemporary and global outlooks this volume recontextualizes the monstrous entities that have always haunted the human imagination in the age of the Anthropocene It also invites reflection on new forms of monstrosity in an era epitomized by an unprecedented deluge of mis information Uniting researchers from varied academic backgrounds in a common effort to challenge the monstrous labels that have historically been imposed upon the Other this book endeavors above all to bring the monster out of the shadows and into the light of moral consideration Men in the Middle Alvin Magid,1976 Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness Gene M. Culture, Empire, and the Question of Being Modern C. J. Wan-ling Wee, 2003-01-01 Culture Empire and the Question of Being Modern explores the problematic formation of national culture within modern English society In this ambitious work of post colonial and cultural theory C J Wan ling Wee investigates the complex interaction between a modern industrialized metropolitan and progressively rational English national culture and a nationalistic imperial discourse interested in territorial expansion and the valorization of an idealized agrarian past Starting with the Victorian era the work documents the complex relationship of concepts such as home and frontier and EnglishO and colonial through an analysis of key literary cultural figures in their historical contexts Rudyard Kipling Charles Kingsley T S Eliot and V S Naipaul Wee brings the discussion of modernity into the present with a consideration of post imperial Singapore a neo traditionalist modern society that reworks many of the colonial tropes and contradictions to investigate the ambiguities and contradictions revealed in the West s engagement with modernity

Counseling People of African Ancestry Elias Mpofu, 2011-06-27 This volume advances a uniquely Afro centric sociocultural understanding of health maintenance and risk reduction in African cultural heritage populations It unites a diverse group of leading African and Africanist scholars in an exploration of common cultural values in African heritage communities and their practical applications in contemporary counseling The chapters highlight the prominent health issues faced in Africanist settings today and use real world experiences to illustrate core lessons for effective community action The approach spans complex cultural milieus from diversity counseling to conflict resolution Each chapter includes field based experiential tasks discussion boxes research boxes and case studies which serve as valuable resources in both coursework and casework Counseling People of African Ancestry is an essential primer for community health workers counselors and educators seeking a better understanding of African cultural heritage settings to promote community health well being and development      Race and the Unconscious Celia Britton,2017-12-02 Freud is often accused of eurocentrism of making unjustifiable generalizations on the basis of European family structures Although French Caribbean intellectuals such as Fanon Cesaire and Glissant have joined in these criticisms they have also made strikingly positive use of psychoanalysis Much intellectual energy has been invested in notions of repression the Oedipus complex and the psychoanalytic cure while at the same time Freudianism has been no less vigorously criticized for its political quietism and its potential as a means of social control Thus Freudian theory and the controversies it arouses remains a surprisingly persistent cultural element The crucial issue is the link between the unconscious and race In this groundbreaking study Britton looks at the different ways in which Freudian psychoanalysis has been incorporated into arguments about racial identity and difference in the French Caribbean      Dark Continents Ranjana Khanna,2003-04-22 Argues that the psychoanalytic self was constituted through the specifically national colonial encounters of the late 19th and early 20th centuries and that therefore somewhat paradoxically perhaps psychoanalysis is crucial for understanding postcolonialia      Postcolonialism, Psychoanalysis and Burton Ben Grant,2008-11-10 Engaging closely with the work of Richard Francis Burton the iconic nineteenth century imperial spy explorer and translator this book sheds new light on the White Man s imperial fantasies and the ways in which metropolitan discourses drew upon and reinforced an intimate connection between fantasy and power in the space of Empire      Routledge Library Editions: World Empires Various,2021-07-09 The 16 volumes in this set originally published between 1919 and 1998 draw together research by leading academics in the area of World Empires and provide an examination of related key issues The books examine French Colonialism the German Empire and the Ottoman Empire as well as the effect European colonialism had in Africa and Asia This set will be of particular interest to students of world history      What Is Art For? Ellen Dissanayake,2015-09-01 Every human society displays some form of behavior that can be called art and in most societies other than our own the arts play an integral part in social life Those who wish to understand art in its broadest sense as a universal human endowment need to go beyond modern Western elitist notions that disregard other cultures and ignore the human species four million year evolutionary history This book offers a new and unprecedentedly comprehensive theory of the evolutionary significance of art Art meaning not only visual art but music poetic language dance and performance is for the first time regarded from a biobehavioral or ethical viewpoint It is shown to be a biological necessity in human existence and fundamental characteristic of the human species In this provocative study Ellen Dissanayake examines art along with play and ritual as human behaviors that make special and proposes that making special is an inherited tendency as intrinsic to the human species as speech and toolmaking She claims that the arts evolved as means of making socially important activities memorable and pleasurable and thus have been essential to human survival Avoiding simplism and reductionism this original synthetic approach permits a fresh look at old questions about the origins nature purpose and value of art It crosses disciplinary boundaries and integrates a number of divers fields human ethology evolutionary biology the psychology and philosophy of art physical and cultural anthropology primitive and prehistoric art Western cultural history and children s art The final chapter From Tradition to Aestheticism explores some of the ways in which modern Western society has diverged from other societies particularly the type of society in which human beings evolved and considers the effects of the aberrance on our art and our attitudes toward art This book is addressed to readers who have a concerned interest in the arts or in human nature and the state of modern society

Of Irony and Empire Laura Rice,2012-02-01 Of Irony and Empire is a dynamic thorough examination of Muslim writers from former European colonies in Africa who have increasingly entered into critical conversations with the metropole Focusing on the period between World War I and the present the age of irony this book explores the political and symbolic invention of Muslim Africa and its often contradictory representations Through a critical analysis of irony and resistance in works by writers who come from nomadic areas around the Sahara Mustapha Tlili Tunisia Malika Mokeddem Algeria Cheikh Hamidou Kane Senegal and Tayeb Salih Sudan Laura Rice offers a fresh perspective that accounts for both the influence of the Western instrumental imaginary and the Islamic holistic one

Continental Drift Emily Apter,1999-06 From xenophobic appropriations of Joan of Arc to Afro futurism and cyberpunk the national characters of the colonial era often seem to be dissolving into postnational and virtual subjects In Continental Drift Emily Apter deftly analyzes the French colonial and postcolonial experience as a case study in the erosion of belief in national destiny and the emergence of technologically mediated citizenship Among the many topics Apter explores are the fate of national literatures in an increasingly transnational literary climate the volatile stakes of Albert Camus's life and reputation against the backdrop of Algerian civil strife the use of literary and theatrical productions to script national character for the colonies belly dancing and aesthetic theory and the impact of new media on colonial and postcolonial representation from tourist photography to the videos of Digital Diaspora Continental Drift advances debates not just in postcolonial studies but also in gender identity and cultural studies ethnography psychoanalysis and performance studies
