Protect of Human Rights In Adm:

Human Rights and Police Administration Kamalaxi G. Tadsad, Harish Ramaswamy, 2012 1961 Seminar on the Protection of Human Rights in the Administration of Criminal Justice, 1961 UN Territorial Administration and Human Rights Gjylbehare Bella Murati, 2020-04-30 This book offers an original and insightful analysis of the human rights inadequacies that arise in the practice of UN territorial administration by analysing and assessing the practice of UNMIK. It provides arguments based on law and principles to support the thesis that a comprehensive legal framework governing the activities of the UN mission is a crucial prerequisite for its proper functioning. This is complemented by a discussion of several emerging issues surrounding the UN activity on the ground namely its legislative, judicial and executive power. The author offers an extensive and well documented analysis of the UN's capacity as a surrogate state administration to respond to the needs of the governed population and above all protect its fundamental rights. Based on her findings, Murati concludes that only a comprehensive mandate can serve the long term interests of the international community's objective to efficiently promote, protect and fulfil human rights in a war torn society. UN Territorial Administration and Human Rights provides a detailed critical legal analysis of one of the major UN administrations of territory after the Cold War namely the UN administration of Kosovo from 1999 to 2008. The analysis in this book will be beneficial to international law and international relations scholars and students as well as policymakers and persons working for international organisations. The analysis and the lessons learned through this study shed light on the challenges entailed in governing territories and rebuilding state institutions while upholding the rule of law and ensuring respect for human rights.

Alternative Dispute Resolution in European Administrative Law Dacian C. Dragos, Bogdana Neamtu, 2014-09-19 This book examines the role the general framework and the empirical effectiveness of the main alternative dispute resolution tools: administrative appeals, mediation and ombudsman in administrative matters within the broader context of the administrative justice system. The book uses approaches from the fields of law, public administration, public policy and political science to assess the importance of different instruments for alternative dispute resolution with an emphasis on administrative appeals.

Challenges of Public Administration Management for Higher Education Enaifoghe, Andrew, Mthethwa, Richard, 2024-10-02 Public administration in South Africa grapples with multifaceted challenges from ensuring equitable service delivery to fostering democratic governance. Institutions and organizations within the public sector must navigate complex interdependent systems while addressing the evolving needs of their communities. This dynamic environment demands innovative policy formulation, implementation and management approaches. However, existing literature often needs to provide comprehensive insights tailored to the specific context of South Africa's public administration. Challenges of Public Administration Management for Higher Education is a book which provides a platform for rethinking and reflecting on the field of public administration, offering theoretical frameworks, methodologies and practical applications that resonate with the South African context By delving into democratic governance policy transformation and citizen centric approaches this book equips policymakers practitioners scholars and researchers with the necessary tools to address 21st century challenges effectively It serves as a guide for fostering collaboration enhancing capacity building and promoting ethical practices in public administration

Public Administration in Africa Shikha Vyas-Doorgapersad,Lukamba-Muhiya. Tshombe,Ernest Peprah Ababio,2017-09-25 With contributions from leading regional scholars Public Administration in Africa Performance and Challenges examines the complexities of the art of governance from the unique African perspective The editors bring together a cohesive study of the major issues and regions by taking an analytic approach with the strong problem solution application Regions addressed range from South Africa Congo Uganda Nigeria Ghana Mauritius and Botswana Themes include colonialism reform poverty economy decentralization financing media political structures and more Beginning with an analysis of the relationship of policy design and its destination service delivery the book discusses the historical development of a state that has gone through upheavals in government and explores a decayed political economy that ultimately results in a need for sweeping measures The text examines the issues emerging policy makers in Africa must tackle namely poverty and the denial or lack of resources to keep a dignified human life It highlights how the media can be a catalyst for good governance and provides analytical aspects of implementing good governance reforms The book concludes with an examination of the concepts of decentralization and devolution in measuring service delivery performance and an exploration of Africa s economic success story It also details the African Peer Review Mechanisms in selected African countries and provides a holistic analysis of local government functioning in Africa These features and more make it an interdisciplinary reference for diverse social economic political and administrative issues

The Life and Adventures of Rear-Admiral John Paul Jones ... Illustrated John Stevens Cabot ABBOTT,1872 The Life and Adventures of

Rear-Admiral John Paul Jones, Commonly Called Paul Jones John Stevens Cabot Abbott,1876 The European Union as Protector and Promoter of Equality Thomas Giegerich,2020-07-06

This book considers the European Union as a project with a major antidiscrimination goal which is important to remember at a time of increasing resentment against particularly exposed groups especially migrants refugees members of ethnic or religious minorities and LGBTI persons While equality and non discrimination have long been core principles of the international community as a whole as is made obvious by the UN Charter and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights they have shaped European integration in a particular way The concepts of diversity pluralism and equality have always been inherent in that process the EU being virtually founded on the values of equality and non discrimination The Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU contains the most modern and extensive catalogue of prohibited grounds of discrimination supplementing the catalogue enshrined in the European Convention on Human Rights EU law has given new impulses to antidiscrimination law both within Europe and beyond The contributions to this book focus on how effective and credible the EU has been in combatting discrimination inside and outside Europe The authors present different mostly legal aspects of that topic and examine them from various intra and extra European angles

Public Administration and Public Finance Research Kadir Caner Doğan , Ömer Uğur,2021-05-15

Public Administration and Public Finance Research Leaving No One Behind, Leaving No One Unaccountable Luka Glušac, 2023-12-13 How does the nexus between security human rights and good governance play out in the sustainable development context Based on state of the field interdisciplinary research with a global perspective Leaving no one behind leaving no one unaccountable offers the first comprehensive account of the role of ombuds institutions in achieving the Sustainable Development Goals launched by the United Nations in 2015 With their unique position in between three branches of power the mandate to oversee public administration including the security sector and protect human rights ombuds institutions are well placed to play an important role in national efforts to fulfil the SDGs The book takes the specific angle by looking at SDG 16 devoted to effective accountable and inclusive institutions through the lens of security sector governance It brings granular analysis of all SDG 16 targets demonstrating how ombuds institutions could contribute to achieving each of them The book develops an innovative conceptual framework by looking at both implementation and accountability The former is captured under the title of leaving no one behind and the latter under leaving no one unaccountable Leaving no one behind is a central credo of the 2030 Agenda It is highly relevant for SDG 16 as well as security sector governance due to the centrality of the principles of responsiveness inclusiveness and participation The book attests that for a number of the SDG 16 targets ombuds institutions should primarily serve as accountability mechanisms It argues they should work with pressure and make public administration accountable in cases when the administration as the primary duty bearer fails to protect the rights of citizens and when their actions fall short of the standards needed to achieve the SDGs As this book demonstrates many SDG 16 targets are rather vague and limited guidance exists on how to measure and achieve them especially in fragile contexts It thus provides guidance and recommendations to ombuds institutions and other actors on how to best support each other in achieving SDG 16 Leaving no one behind leaving no one unaccountable is a key resource for scholars policymakers and activists concerned with effective accountable and inclusive institutions and those interested in political science security studies human rights and development studies United Nations, Volumes I and II Sam Daws, Paul Taylor, 2020-10-11 The International Library of Politics and Comparative Government is an essential reference series which compiles the most significant journal articles in comparative politics over the past 30 years It makes readily accessible to teachers researchers and students an extensive range of essays which together provide an indispensable basis for understanding both the established conceptual terrain and the new ground being broken in the rapidly changing field of comparative political analysis These two volumes include articles which examine the system the structure the function and the future of the United Nations Global Human Trafficking Molly Dragiewicz, 2014-12-05 Human trafficking has moved from relative obscurity to a major area of research policy and teaching over the past ten years Research has sprung from criminology public policy women s and gender studies sociology anthropology and law but has been somewhat hindered by the failure of scholars to engage beyond their own disciplines and favoured methodologies

Recent research has begun to improve efforts to understand the causes of the problem the experiences of victims policy efforts and their consequences in specific cultural and historical contexts Global Human Trafficking Critical issues and contexts foregrounds recent empirical work on human trafficking from an interdisciplinary critical perspective The collection includes classroom friendly features such as introductory chapters that provide essential background for understanding the trafficking literature textboxes explaining key concepts discussion questions for each chapter and lists of additional resources including films websites and additional readings for each chapter The authors include both eminent and emerging scholars from around the world drawn from law anthropology criminology sociology cultural studies and political science and the book will be useful for undergraduate and graduate courses in these areas as well as for scholars interested in trafficking
