

How Are You Feeling?

0

We have lots of different feelings every day. We feel different things at different times. Sometimes the feelings feel good and sometimes they feel bad.

When you get a feeling, it can be helpful to try to name it and then decide what you can do with that feeling.

Feeling Proud

When you are feeling proud, you are feeling good and pleased about something special you have done.

We all feel proud sometimes.

When you are feeling proud, there are many ways that you might show it. It might be that you smile and feel confident that you want to be good and to do more things.

I am feeling...

This book presents a novel interpretation of Hume as a proponent of sentimental virtue ethics This interpretation sheds light on the nature of Hume s ethics as well as its relevance for contemporary debates in moral philosophy The book starts by developing an understanding of the self in Hume based on the passion of pride Contrary to the common view that Hume denies the unity of the self by diluting it into a bundle or collection of different perceptions the author argues that by focusing on pride it is possible to identify in Hume a firm notion of the self as having a sentimental nature that can be explained in narrative terms Pivoting on this narrative self he shows how it accounts for the Humean notion of the virtuous person by holding together in a harmonious whole several central issues in Hume s moral philosophy including sympathy the point of view from which we make moral judgements the practical nature of ethics and the role that reflection plays in it and the definition of perfect character Finally the author maintains that Humean virtue ethics so understood has the individual at its core representing a secular and pluralist alternative to neo Aristotelian versions discussed today The Proud Self will appeal to scholars and graduate students working on Hume 18th century philosophy virtue ethics and moral psychology
