Utopian Globalists Jonathan Harris,2013-02-25 THE UTOPIAN GLOBALISTS Crossing continents historical periods and cultural genres Jonathan Harris skilfully traces the evolution of utopian ideals from early modernism to the spectacularised and biennialised or banalised as some would say contemporary art world of today Michael Asbury University of the Arts London The Utopian Globalists is the second in a trilogy of books by Jonathan Harris examining the contours forces materials and meanings of the global art world along with its contexts of emergence since the early twentieth century The first of the three studies Globalization and Contemporary Art Wiley Blackwell 2011 anatomized the global art system through an extensive anthology of over 30 essays contextualized through multiple thematic introductions The final book in the series Contemporary Art in a Globalized World forthcoming Wiley Blackwell combines the historical and contemporary perspectives of the first and second books in an account focused on the mediatizations shaping and representing contemporary art and its circuits of global production dissemination and consumption This innovative and revealing history examines artists whose work embodies notions of revolution and human social transformation The clearly structured historical narrative takes the reader on a cultural odyssey that begins with Vladimir Tatlin s constructivist model for a Monument to the Third International 1919 a statement of utopian globalist intent via Picasso s 1940s commitment to Soviet communism and John and Yoko s Montreal Bedin to what the author calls the late globalism of the Unilever Series at London s Tate Modern The book maps the ways artists and their work engaged with and offered commentary on modern spectacle in both capitalist and socialist modernism throughout the eras of the Russian Revolution the Cold War and the increasingly globalized world of the past 20 years In doing so Harris explores the idea that the utopian globalist lineage in art remains torn between its yearning for freedom and a deepening identification with spectacle as a media commodity to be traded and consumed      The Arcades Project Walter Benjamin,1999 Focusing on the arcades of 19th century Paris glass roofed rows of shops that were early centers of consumerism Benjamin presents a montage of quotations from and reflections on hundreds of published sources 46 illustrations      Marxism and the Interpretation of Culture Cary Nelson, Lawrence Grossberg,1988 This title provides a picture of the state of Marxist thinking It aims to provoke a debate that will be of interest to those concerned with the status and development of Marxism and also to theorists in all fields of the human sciences      In Other Words Pierre Bourdieu,1990 Pierre Bourdieu is one of the most protean intellectual forces in contemporary French thought He holds the chair in sociology at the prestigious Coll ge de France yet his influence extends far beyond the area of sociological research and theory Bourdieu s work presented in over twenty books lies on the borders of philosophy anthropology and ethnology and cultural theory The present volume consists of diverse individual texts produced between 1980 and 1986 which take two forms interviews in which Bourdieu confronts a series of probing and intelligent interviewers and conference papers that clarify and extend specific areas of his current research Now that Bourdieu s work has achieved wide diffusion and celebrity this is an appropriate time for this volume a pause for retrospection and resynthesis for correction of misreadings and extension of previous insights and for projection of the next stages of his work For this English edition Bourdieu s celebrated inaugural lecture at the Coll ge de France Le on sur la Le on has been added Because of the verve and clarity of Bourdieu s arguments in this book it is a very readable and concise introduction to his work      Marxism and the History of Art

Andrew Hemingway,2006-07-20 This book is the first comprehensive introduction to Marxist approaches to art history Although the aesthetic was a crucial part of Marx and Engels s thought they left no full statement on the arts Although there is an abundant scholarship on Marxist approaches to literature the historiography of the visual arts has been largely neglected This book encompasses a range of influential thinkers and historians including William Morris Mikhail Lifshits Frederick Antal Francis Klingender Max Raphael Meyer Schapiro Walter Benjamin Henri Lefebvre and Arnold Hauser It also addresses the heritage of the New Left In the spirit of Marxism the authors interpret the achievements and limitations of Marxist art history in relation to the historical and political circumstances of its production providing an indispensable introduction to contemporary radical practices in the field      Radical Picasso C. Halbert,2014-02-05 This book seeks to make an intervention into the ongoing debate about the scope and intensity of global copyright laws While mapping out the primary actors in the context of globalization and the modern political economy of information ownership the argument is made that alternatives to further expansion of copyright are necessary By examining the multiple and competing interests in creating the legal regime of copyright law this books attempts to map the political economy of copyright in the information age critique the concentration of ownership that is intrinsic in the status quo and provide an assessment of the state of the contemporary global copyright landscape and its futures It draws upon the current narratives of copyright as produced by corporate government and political actors and frames these narratives as language games within a global political project to define how information and culture will be shared and exchanged in the future The text problematizes the relationship of the state to culture comments on the global flows of culture and critiques the regulatory apparatus that is in place to commodify culture and align it with the contemporary nation state In the end the possibility of non commodified and more open futures are explored The State of Copyright will be of particular interest for students and scholars of international political economy law political science anthropology sociology cultural studies library sciences and communication studies It also will appeal to a growing popular audience that has taken an interest in the issues of copyright     The SAGE Handbook of Marxism Beverley Skeggs,Sara R. A Writer of Our Time Joshua Sperling, 2018-11-20 This engaging intellectual biography traces Berger's creative evolution, analyzes highlights from his vast output, and situates them within his empathetic Marxism. The New Yorker The first intellectual biography of the life and work of John Berger. John Berger was one of the most influential thinkers and writers of postwar Europe. As a novelist, he won the Booker prize in 1972, donating half his prize money to the Black Panthers. As a TV presenter, he changed the way we looked at art with Ways of Seeing. As a storyteller and political activist, he defended the rights and dignity of workers, migrants, and the oppressed around the world. Far from dragging politics into art, he wrote in 1953, art has dragged me into politics. He remained a revolutionary up to his death in January 2017. Built around a series of watersheds, at once personal and historical, A Writer of Our Time traces Berger's development from his roots as a postwar art student and polemicist in the Cold War battles of the 1950s, London, through the heady days of the 1960s when the revolutions were not only political but sexual and artistic, to Berger's reinvention as a rural storyteller and the long hangover that followed the rise and fall of the New Left. Drawing on first-hand unpublished interviews and archival sources only recently made available, Joshua Sperling digs beneath the moments of controversy to reveal a figure of remarkable complexity and resilience. The portrait that emerges is of a cultural innovator as celebrated as he was often misunderstood, and a writer increasingly driven as much by what he loved as by what he opposed. A Writer of Our Time brings the many faces of John Berger together, repatriating one of our great minds to the intellectual dramas of his and our time. The Haunted Self David Lomas, 2000-01-01 The question 'Who am I?' resounded throughout the surrealist movement. The exploration of dreams and the unconscious prompted surrealists to reject the notion of a unified indivisible self by revealing the subject to be haunted by otherness and instability. In this book, David Lomas explores the surrealist concepts of the self and subjectivity from a psychoanalytic viewpoint. Employing a series of case studies devoted to individual artists, Lomas arrives at a radically new account of surrealist art and its cultural and intellectual roots. Weaving together psychoanalytic and historical material, the author analyses works by Ernst, Dalí, Masson, Miro, and Picasso with regard to such themes as automatism, hysteria, the uncanny, and the abject. Lomas focuses closely on individual artworks, examines the specific circumstances in which they were produced, and offers new insights into the artists and their projects, as well as the theories of Bataille, Breton, and others. Lomas demonstrates the powerful connection between the history of psychoanalysis and the history of surrealism, and along the way shows the unique value of psychoanalytic theory as a tool for the art historian. BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc. All Rights Reserved. Acrobatic Modernism from the Avant-Garde to Prehistory Jed Rasula, 2020-02-27 This is a book about artistic modernism contending with the historical transfigurations of modernity. As a conscientious engagement with modernity's restructuring of the lifeworld, the modernist avant-garde raised the stakes of this engagement to programmatic explicitness. But even beyond the vanguard, the global phenomenon of jazz combined somatic assault with sensory tutelage Jazz like the new technologies of modernity re calibrated sensory ratios The criterion of the new as self making also extended to names pseudonyms and heteronyms The protocols of modernism solicited a pragmatic arousal of bodily sensation as artistic resource validating an acrobatic sensibility ranging from slapstick and laughter to the pathos of bereavement Expressivity trumped representation The artwork was a diagram of perception not a mimetic rendering For artists the historical pressures of altered perception provoked new models and Ezra Pound's slogan Make It New became the generic rallying cry of renovation The paradigmatic stance of the avant garde was established by Futurism but the discovery of prehistoric art added another provocation to artists Paleolithic caves validated the spirit of all over composition unframed and dynamic Geometric abstraction Constructivism and Purism and Surrealism were all in quest of a new mythology Making it new yielded a new pathos in the sensation of radical discrepancy between futurist striving and remotest antiquity The Paleolithic cave and the USSR emitted comparable siren calls on behalf of the remote past and the desired future As such the present was suffused with the pathos of being neither but subject to both

The Routledge Companion to Marxisms in Art History Tijen Tunali, Brian Winkenweder, 2025-03-31 This companion is an essential contribution to the study of historical materialism in general and the social history of art in particular Each chapter in the collection focuses on a key figure concept or historical epoch Increasingly scholars adopt an array of Marxist methods intertwined with a host of other theoretical practices particularly the historiography of key issues regarding hegemony ideology and identity Ideological issues of connoisseurship patronage and analyses of the artwork as a form of labor and leisure are essential to the practice of Marxisms in art history This collection spotlights a plurality of Marxian theories in which the ideas of such figures as Walter Benjamin Guy Debord and T J Clark are debated and developed through analyses of the socio historical conditions that impact how art is produced circulated and received This ultimately underscores that the historical contextualization of artworks and their markets within a class based society is crucial for writing socially engaged art history This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies visual sociology communication studies and the sociology of art

The Art Market in Rome in the Eighteenth Century Paolo Coen, 2018-11-05 Recent interest in the economic aspects of the history of art have taken traditional studies into new areas of enquiry Going well beyond provenances or prices of individual objects our understanding of the arts has been advanced by research into the demands intermediaries and clients in the market Eighteenth century Rome offers a privileged view of such activities given the continuity of remarkable investments by the local ruling class combined with the decisive impact of external agents largely linked to the Grand Tour This book the result of collaboration between international specialists brings back into the spotlight protagonists facts and dynamics that have remained unexplored for many years
