Kleĭnmikhel' (grafiniĭa), 1923 Peiresc's Europe Peter N. Miller, Dean and Chair of Academic Programs Peter N Miller, 2000-01-01

Nicolas Claude Fabri de Peiresc 1580 1637 was during his lifetime one of Europe's most famous men A friend of Pope Urban VIII and Galileo of Peter Paul Rubens and Hugo Grotius of Tommaso Campanella and Marin Mersenne Peiresc played an important role in the intellectual culture of his time This book is the first study in English of this extraordinary man as well as a vivid portrait of his whole circle Looking through the lens of Peiresc's life Peter N Miller brings into focus the early seventeenth century world of learning its people places and ideas Drawing on the extensive Peiresc archive more than 50 000 pieces of paper Miller brilliantly evokes the lives of antiquaries philosophers theologians and politicians of Peiresc's day only some of whom remain known today He explores the age in which Peiresc's toleration and sociability his political action and cosmopolitanism and his serious scholarship without dogmatism were identified as a set of virtues and practices by which to live Peiresc's notion of scholarship as a moral exercise the sweep of his interests and the cross Continental reach of his intellectual life show with new clarity what it meant to be a man of learning during the decades around 1600 Medieval Memories Elisabeth Van-Houts, 2013-09-13 Who exactly was responsible for the preservation of knowledge about the past How did people preserve their recollections and pass them on to the next generation Did they write them down or did they hand them on orally The book is concerned with the memories of medieval people In the Middle Ages as now men and women collected stories about the past and handed them down to posterity Many memories centre in the aristocratic family or lineage while others are focussed on institutions such as monasteries or nunneries The family and monastic contexts clearly illustrate that remembrance of the past was a task for men and women and that each sex had a specific gendered role Memory also involves selection of what should and should not be remembered and its corollary amnesia therefore is discussed Anchored in the present memory casts a shadow on the future and thus prophecies form an important component of the cult of remembrance For the first time in Medieval Memories tombstones medieval encyclopaedias and legal testimonies figure alongside moral guidebooks miracle stories and chronicles as material for the gendered perceptions of the medieval past French Autobiographical Writing 1900-1950 Susan M. Dolamore, 1997 Passages Westward Maria Lähteenmäki, Hanna Snellman, 2006-12-27 The West has always been a resource for the Finns Scholars artists and other professionals have sought contacts from Europe throughout the centuries The Finnish experience in Western Europe and the New World is a story of migrant laborers expatriates and specialists working abroad But you don't have to be born in Finland to be a Finn The experiences of second generation Finnish immigrants and their descendants open up new possibilities for understanding the relationship between Finland and the West The Finnish passage westward has not always crossed national borders Karelian evacuees headed west as did young people from the Finnish countryside when opportunities to make a living in agriculture and forestry diminished in the post war era The legacy of these migrants is still visible in the suburbs of Finnish cities today This book is a joint effort of the Department of Ethnology and the Department of History at the University of Helsinki It was written by Ph D students supervised by Academy Research Fellows Maria L hteenm ki and Hanna Snellman in collaboration with colleagues abroad interested in current research in ethnology and history

Materializing Memory in Art and Popular Culture Laszlo Muntean, Liedeke Plate, Anneke Smelik,2016-12-08 Memory matters It matters because memory brings the past into the present and opens it up to the future But it also matters literally because memory is mediated materially Materiality is the stuff of memory Meaningful objects that we love or hate function not only as aide mmoire but are integral to memory Drawing on previous scholarship on the interrelation of memory and materiality this book applies recent theories of new materialism to explore the material dimension of memory in art and popular culture The book s underlying premise is twofold on the one hand memory is performed mediated and stored through the material world that surrounds us on the other hand inanimate objects and things also have agency on their own which affects practices of memory as well as forgetting Chapters 1 4 and 5 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 3 0 license

she uses the money to buy a ramshackle manor house in Sainte Colombe a small village in Provence where her mother had grown up But she is greeted with more questions than answers Her welcome especially by the town's stodgy mayor is cold at best and she finds herself wondering if the entire experiment was a mistake Yet she stays stubbornly sticking it out slowly learning that her mother's legacy was more than just a nest egg Through her mother and the village Tempsta learns the value of community and friendship the importance of self confidence and the power of love and trust What's more she sees for herself that there is magic and beauty in the everyday even something as simple as a sprig of lavender and sage For readers who love Under the Tuscan Sun and Chocolat this is your next heartfelt delightful read Jennifer Moorman bestselling author of The Baker's Man A dreamy escape into Southern France from bestselling author Aimie K Runyan Perfect for fans of Katherine Center Rebecca Serle and Sarah Jio Kate Quinn described Runyan's previous work as a moving tale of female solidarity and courage Stand alone novel of approximately 100 000 words Includes discussion questions for book clubs
