Proverbs en Rimes. Text and Illustrations of the Fifteenth Century from a French Manuscript in the Walters Art Gallery, Baltimore. By [i.e. Edited By] Grace Frank and Dorothy Miner. [With Facsimiles.]. PROVERBES., Grace FRANK, Dorothy MINER, 1937

Text/Image Mosaics in French Culture Laurance Grove, 2017-03-02 This study compares text image interaction as manifested in emblem books and related forms and the modern bande dessinée or French language comic strip. It moves beyond the issue of defining the emblematic genre to examine the ways in which emblems and their modern counterparts interact with the surrounding culture and what they disclose about that culture. Drawing largely on primary material from the Bibliothèque nationale de France and from Glasgow University Library's Stirling Maxwell Collection of emblem literature, Laurence Grove builds on the ideas of Marshall McLuhan, Elizabeth Eisenstein, and more recently Neil Rhodes and Jonathan Sawday. Divided into four sections: Theoretics, Production, Thematics, and Reception, Text Image Mosaics in French Culture broaches topics such as theoretical approaches past and present to text image forms, the question of narrative within the scope of text image creations, and the reuse of visual iconography for diametrically opposed political or religious purposes. The author argues that despite the gap in time between the advent of emblems and that of comic strips, the two forms are analogous in that both are the products of a parallel mentality. The mindsets of the periods that popularised these forms have certain common features related to repeated social conditions rather than to the pure evolution over time. Grove's analysis and historical contextualisation of that mentality provide insight into our own popular culture forms, not only the comic strip but also other hybrid media such as advertising and the Internet. His juxtaposition of emblems and the bande dessinée increases our understanding of all such combinations of picture and text.

Studies in Imagery: Texts and images Jean Michel Massing, 2003

Dr Jean Michel Massing is a Reader in the History of Art and a Fellow of King's College, Cambridge. The first volume of Studies in Imagery: Text and Images consists of 25 studies grouped under four sections: Classical Art and its Nachleben, Symbolic Languages, Saints and Devils, Comets, Dreams, and Stars. The topics include the Celto-Roman goddess Epona, the Calumny of Apelles and its reconstructions, the Triumph of Caesar, proverb illustration, the art of memory, emblematic and didactic imagery, the temptations of St Anthony, as well as dreams and celestial phenomena. They span a wide range of periods from classical antiquity to the nineteenth century.

Vol 2: The World Discovered deals variously with the relationship of European with non-European cultures, cartography in medieval and early modern times, the representation of foreign lands.

and people and the collecting of exotic artefacts A central theme involves the imagery of black Africans from the Middle Ages up to the nineteenth century "Proverbs Speak Louder Than Words" Wolfgang Mieder, 2008 The ten chapters of Proverbs Speak Louder Than Words present a composite picture of the richness of proverbs as significant expressions of folk wisdom as is manifest from their appearance in art culture folklore history literature and the mass media The first chapter surveys the multifaceted aspects of paremiology the study of proverbs with the second chapter illustrating the paremiological work by the American folklorist Alan Dundes The next two chapters look at the effective role that proverbs play in the mass media where they are cited in their traditional wording or as innovative anti proverbs The fifth chapter discusses proverbs as expressions of the worldview of New England This is followed by two chapters on the proverbial prowess of American presidents to wit the proverbial style in the correspondence between John and Abigail Adams and a discussion of Abraham Lincoln's apocryphal proverb Don't swap horses in the middle of the stream The eighth chapter traces the tradition of proverb iconography from medieval woodcuts to Pieter Bruegel the Elder and on to modern caricatures cartoons and comic strips The last two chapters deal with the origin and history of the proverbial expression to tilt at windmills as an allusion to Cervantes Don Quixote and the many proverbial utterances in Mozart's letters The book draws attention to the fact that proverbs as metaphorical signs continue to play an important role in oral and written communication Proverbs as so-called monumenta humana are omnipresent in all facets of life and while they are neither sacrosanct nor saccharine they usually offer much common sense or wisdom based on recurrent experiences and observations Catalogue of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
