Psalm Journal for Lent Joan Chittister, 1988-12-01 Lent Through Eastertide David L. Bartlett, Barbara Brown Taylor, 2010-10-01 Feasting on the Word offers pastors focused resources for Sermon preparation written by companions on the way With four different essays on each of the four biblical texts assigned by the Revised Common Lectionary this series offers preachers sixteen different ways into the proclamation of God's Word on any given occasion For each reading preachers will find brief essays on the exegetical theological homiletical and pastoral challenges of the text The page layout is unusual By setting the biblical passage at the top of the page and placing the essays beneath it we mean to suggest the interdependence of these four approaches without granting priority to any one of them Some readers may decide to focus on the Gospel passage for instance by reading all four essays provided for that text Others may decide to look for connections between the Hebrew Bible Psalm Gospel and Epistle texts by reading the theological essays on each one Wherever they begin preachers will find what they need in a single volume produced by writers from a wide variety of disciplines and religious traditions These authors teach in colleges and seminaries They lead congregations They write scholarly books as well as columns for the local newspaper They oversee denominations In all these capacities and more they serve God's Word joining the preacher in the ongoing challenge of bringing that Word to life We have been honored to work with a multitude of gifted thinkers writers and editors We present these essays as their offering and ours to the blessed ministry of preaching From the introduction by David L. Bartlett Barbara Brown Taylor The Journal of Egyptian Archaeology, 1923 The Oxford Handbook of the Psalms William P. Brown, 2014-02-28 The Psalms the longest and most complex book in the Bible is a varied collection of religious poetry the product of centuries of composition and revision It is the most transcribed and translated book of the Hebrew Bible Intended for both scholar and student The Oxford Handbook of the Psalms features a diverse array of essays that treat the Psalms from a variety of perspectives Beginning with an overview of the Psalms that touches on the history of scholarship and interpretation the volume goes on to explore the Psalms as a form of literature and a source of creative inspiration an artifact whose origins remain speculative a generative presence in Judaism Christianity and Islam and a still current text that continues to be read and appropriated in various ways Classical scholarship and traditional approaches as well as contextual interpretations and practices are well represented The Handbook's coverage is uniquely wide ranging covering everything from the ancient Near Eastern background of the Psalms to contemporary liturgical usage This volume offers a dynamic introduction into an increasingly complex field and will be an indispensable resource for all students of the Psalms

Early Music History Iain Fenlon, 2009-03-19 Early Music History is devoted to the study of music from the early Middle Ages to the end of the seventeenth century It demands the highest standards of scholarship from its contributors all of whom are leading academics in their fields It gives preference to studies pursuing interdisciplinary approaches and to those developing novel methodological ideas The scope is exceptionally broad and includes manuscript studies textual criticism iconography studies of the relationship between words and music and the relationship between music and society Articles in volume eleven include Music and festivities at the court of Leo X a Venetian view Jean de Castro the Pense partbooks and musical culture in sixteenth century Lyons The lost chant tradition of early Christian Jerusalem some possible melodic survivals in the Byzantine and Latin chant repertoires Rome as the centre of the universe papal grace and musical patronage

Lent Katie Prejean McGrady, Tommy McGrady, 2019-02-08 Winner of a 2020 Catholic Press Association book award third place books for teens Are you looking for a daily Lenten resource for teens that meets them right where they are in life Husband and wife youth ministry experts Katie Prejean McGrady and Tommy McGrady offer realistic and engaging spiritual guidance for Lent that includes timely topics for teens such as relationships being your best competition control fear and forgiveness The simple format of Lent One Day at a Time for Catholic Teens offers depth without complexity and direction without pressure Each daily devotion is based on a Bible passage that connects with a topic important to teens A brief reflection helps readers consider the day's topic through the lens of faith Unlike many other Lenten prayer books each day offers exercises and activities to help teens grow closer to Christ Optional activities in Feel Ambitious invite teens to read reflect and respond to a longer scripture passage that connects to the day's theme Another unique feature is that on Sundays the McGradys ask teens to choose one spiritual challenge from a short list to focus on throughout the week Saturdays provide a simple method to reflect and examine how well they did with their Lenten prayer and practices during the previous week

The Fire in These Ashes Joan Chittister, 1996 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1895

Suffering, Soul Care, and Community Ann Ahrens, 2023-01-10 What are believers to do when belief and lived experience collide Must the experience of suffering be hidden or pushed aside in favor of only positive expressions of praise during corporate worship Focusing on the premise that worship is not pain denial this book seeks to reveal the dearth of soul care within modern corporate worship and the multidisciplinary approach needed to build and implement a more thorough approach that calls and enables believers to weep with those who weep to bear one another's burdens and continue Christ's ministry of reconciliation Celebrating the Lectionary® for Junior High, Year A Leisa Anslinger, Kathryn Ball-Boruff, Catherine G.
