Psalms 42-72 (ITC) Mark W. Elliott, 2024-10-31 Psalms 42-72 many of which are closely identified with King David as person as well as figure include some of the most intimate and forceful expressions of Israelite Judean spirituality The Psalms reveal many theological points along the way some of these developed others inchoate The security in Zion's God which replies to the longing of the soul gives way to Psalms which keenly feel the absence of God interspersed with assertions of the Lord's ability to save and a widening sense of the scope of salvation as being in some sense communal Mark W Elliott examines these and other themes in Psalms 42-72 He considers historical exegesis and makes use of literary approaches to get at the sense of the text The riches of Christian praying and preaching of the psalms provide a guide into deeper theological assertion with Elliott keeping one eye on the covenant relationship of faith and the other on Christ as author and finisher thereof

Righteousness Jeffrey J. Niehaus, 2023-10-19 The second volume of this three volume work exegetes and comments on every occurrence of the Hebrew terms for righteousness in the Old Testament It begins with a discussion of apperception and deductive method and concludes with an afterword on righteousness and ontology The ontological argument affirms that God's aseity is the foundation of righteousness in the Bible and thus of all true righteousness Righteousness is being true to God and God is always true to himself including in his self existence Other terms in the righteous word group such as righteous and justify are considered along with the important word pair righteousness and justice in semantic domain studies in the first three chapters Semantic domain studies show that terms like upright blameless and good are qualifiers of righteousness Whatever the flavor or nuance of the terms for righteousness may be in different OT contexts however study shows that the underlying sense of righteousness is conformity to God's Being and doing and the same is true of the righteousness of God
