Finding My Voice with Aphasia Carol M. Maloney, 2013-05-10 On June 9 2009 Carol M Maloney a veteran teacher experienced a transient ischemic attack in the left hemisphere of her brain She helplessly observed her mind deteriorate to the point where she could not speak walk read identify household objects or recall her family Maloney traveled between the worlds of the surreal and the logical The stroke resulted in aphasia the loss of communication and other functions of her left hemisphere After eighteen months of rehabilitation she was finally able to communicate with others by using her hand as a metronome The frustration of having the words and sentences formed in her mind but being unable to share them caused frustration and depression Her verbal abilities suffered along with her reading and comprehension skills Even so hard work strong will and persistence has allowed her to reach out to other teachers to offer new insight into the minds of her beloved special education and reading disabled students In this her story Maloney turns her experience into a unique opportunity to gain an understanding of her students difficulties and to share that knowledge with other teachers Ms Carol Maloney has written a compelling story that chronicles her amazing life before during and after her devastating stroke She writes with frankness that touches ones heart Her story will lend encouragement to those who have suffered a stroke as well as offer strategies to those who have a loved one recovering from one Carol Maloney developed aphasia after her stroke I am happy to say that she has survived and conquered both the devastation of her stroke and her aphasia I know this first hand she conducts amazing PowerPoint presentations to my graduate class at Rivier University each semester She is an inspiration to all who want to improve themselves In this book Carol clearly describes the strategies that she used to help her become the functioning writer and speaker that she is today J Diane Connell Ed D Voice and the Victorian Storyteller Ivan Kreilkamp, 2005-11-03 The nineteenth century novel has always been regarded as a literary form pre eminently occupied with the written word but Ivan Kreilkamp shows it was deeply marked by and engaged with vocal performances and the preservation and representation of speech He offers a detailed account of the many ways Victorian literature and culture represented the human voice from political speeches governesses tales shorthand manuals and staged authorial performances in the early and mid century to mechanically reproducible voice at the end of the century Through readings of Charlotte Bront Browning Carlyle Conrad Dickens Disraeli and Gaskell Kreilkamp re evaluates critical assumptions about the cultural meanings of storytelling and shows that the figure of the oral storyteller rather than disappearing among readers preference for printed texts persisted as a character and a function within the novel This 2005 study will change the way readers consider the Victorian novel and its many ways of telling stories

Literacy David Wray, 2004 This four volume collection reprints key debates about exactly what it means to be literate and how literacy can best be taught Rather than centering on the emotional reaction of mass media debates this set focuses on research findings into processes and pedagogy The themes covered include Literacy its nature and its teaching Reading processes and teaching Writing processes and teaching and New Literacies the impact of technologies      English Teaching Forum ,2000      The Joy of Children's Literature Denise Johnson,2023-12-18 This book provides in depth coverage of children s literature with integrated reading methods in a concise accessible format Johnson emphasizes that reading writing discussing and finding pleasure in children s books are essential tools in being able to recognize and recommend literature and being able to share the joy of children s literature with children themselves This fully updated third edition includes up to date research new book titles within each chapter a greater focus on diversity and inclusion and new sections on Activities for Professional Development and Print and Online Resources      Voices of Resistance Laura Alamillo,Larissa M. Mercado-Lopez,Cristina Herrera,2017-12-12 The banning of Mexican American Studies and censorship of Chican authored books in Arizona were part of a succession of anti Mexican and anti Chican policies that were enacted across the state and in the education system The counterstories offered through these classes and literature not only created a sense of cultural inclusion but ignited a political and activist consciousness among the mostly Chican youth and reinvigorated conversations among educators about the teaching of race ethnicity and culture in the classroom particularly through youth literature While most work on youth literature has emphasized multicultural literature as a means of being inclusive Voices of Resistance Interdisciplinary Approaches to Chican Children s Literature recognizes that our present moment one that is rife with continued anti Mexican sentiment but that has given rise to our first Chicano National Poet Laureate demands a more focused study of children s and young adult literature by and about Chican s This collection re examines how we view multicultural and diversity literature and recognize literature that invites social transformation Using multi and interdisciplinary perspectives to critically examine a wide range of Chican children s pictures book and young adult novels this collection reaffirms Chicano children s literature as a means to achieve equity and social change      The Blind in History and Society: Wisdom vs. Despair Mehmet Emin Demirci, This book will examine all aspects of the relationship between the blind and the rest of society within the framework of the attitudes that represent a most productive area of social psychology The reader will learn that historic figures did not consider their blindness a hindrance to their achievements be they famous literary personalities or Nobel Prize Laureate The lives of outstanding blind persons such as Democritus al Maarri D hring Rodrigo Dal n Borges Ostrovsky and even Ray Charles will be examined while placing blindness and the blind at the center of social relationships utilizing rich historical presentations and comprehensive analysis This book will be of interest to many professionals educators historians social scientists and general readers      English Education in Oman Rahma Al-Mahrooqi,Christopher Denman,2018-07-02 This book explores an area that has been somewhat overlooked in the literature to date the current status and future trends of English education in Oman It offers a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches to the subject and explores areas of English education in Oman that have until now been little investigated It explores these issues from a variety of perspectives the professionalization of English teachers in the country the implementation of novel teaching methodologies curricula and assessment approaches into what are in many ways still very traditional education settings the integration of learner identity into English language instruction country and culture specific concerns with conducting research with Omani participants the strategic demands of building stronger links between education and workforce needs and developing learner autonomy and motivation

Spiritual Reading Angela Lou Harvey, 2015-10-23 Reading Scripture is a spiritual practice at the very heart of the Christian faith But how is it possible to encounter God in reading the words of the Bible Does reading the Christian Bible require a different approach from how one may read other texts or writings What is required of the spiritual reader to read well Seeking to answer such questions Angela Lou Harvey provides a theological exploration of the idea of spiritual reading in the context of the Western church today Drawing upon insights of theologians such as Karl Barth Henri de Lubac and Ellen F Davis the author suggests that the particulars of Christian belief profoundly shape the distinctive practice of the spiritual reading of the Bible

Practical Dreamers Mike Hoolboom, 2004-04-14 The streets are full of admirable craftsmen but so few practical dreamers Man Ray What if there were movies made the same way as suits custom fitted each one tailored for one person Not broadcast but narrowcast Not theatres around the world showing the same globalized pictures but instead a local circumstance a movie so particular so peculiar it could cure night blindness or vertigo Welcome to the world of fringe movies where artists have been busy putting queer shoulders to the wheels or bending light to talk about First Nations rights and making it funny at the same time or demonstrating how a personality can be taken apart and put together again all in the course of a ten minute movie which might take years to make Practical Dreamers takes us to this other side of the media plantation In it twenty seven Canadian artists dish about how they get it done and why it matters The conversations are personal up close and jargon free smart without smarting The stellar cast includes smartbomb Steve Reinke visionary Peter Mettler Middle East specialist Jayce Salloum queer Asian avatars Richard Fung Midi Onodera Ho Tam and Wayne Yung footage recyclers Aleesa Cohene and Jubal Brown overhead projector king Daniel Barrow First Nations vets Kent Monkman and Shelley Niro international art presence Paulette Philips and documentarian Donigan Cumming These in depth talks come lavishly illustrated in an oversized volume

Thinking Through Style Michael Dominic Hurley, Marcus Waithe, 2018 What is style and how does it relate to thought in language It has often been treated as something merely linguistic independent of thought ornamental stylishness for its own sake Or else it has been said to subserve thought by mimicking delineating or heightening ideas that are already expressed in the words This ambitious and timely book explores a third more radical possibility in which style operates as a verbal mode of thinking through Rather than figure thought as primary and pre verbal and language as a secondary delivery system style is conceived here as having the capacity to clarify or generate thinking The book s generic focus is on non fiction prose and it looks across the long nineteenth century Leading scholars survey twenty authors to show where writers who have gained reputations as either stylists or as thinkers exploit the interplay between the what and the how of their prose The study demonstrates how celebrated stylists might after all have thoughts worth attending to and that distinguished thinkers might be enriched for us if we paid more due to their style More than reversing the conventional categories this innovative volume shows how style and thinking can be approached as a shared concern At a moment when especially in nineteenth century studies interest in style is re emerging this book reevaluates some of the most influential figures of that age re imagining the possible alliances interplays and generative tensions between thinking thinkers style and stylists
