Nostalgic Postmodernism Christian Gutleben,2021-10-18 Why do so many contemporary British novels revert to the Victorian tradition in order to find a new source of inspiration What does it mean from an ideological point of view to build a modern form of art by resurrecting and recycling an art of the past From a formal point of view what are the aesthetic priorities established by these postmodernist novels Those are the main questions tackled by this study intended for anybody interested in the aesthetic and ideological evolution of very recent fiction What this analysis ultimately proposes is a reevaluation and a redefinition of postmodernism such as it is illustrated by the British novels which paradoxically both praise and mock honour and debunk imitate and subvert their Victorian models

Unashamedly opportunistic and deliberately exploiting the spirit of the time this late form of postmodernism cannibalizes and reshapes not only Victorianism but all the other previous aesthetic movements including early postmodernism

Fiction after the Fatwa Madelena Gonzalez,2021-11-22 Fiction after the Fatwa Salman Rushdie and the Charm of Catastrophe proposes for the first time an examination of what Rushdie has achieved as a writer since the fourteenth of February 1989 the date of the fatwa This study argues that his constant questioning of fictional form and the language used to articulate it have opened up new opportunities and further possibilities for writing in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Through close readings and intensive textual analysis arranged chronologically Fiction after the Fatwa provides a thought provoking reflection on the writer s achievements over the last thirteen years Aimed principally at academics and students but also of interest to the general reader it engages with the specific nature of the post fatwa fiction as it moves from the fairy tale world of Haroun and the Sea of Stories to the heartbreaking post realism of Fury

Beyond Scotland

,2021-09-20 Scottish creative writing in the twentieth century was notable for its willingness to explore and absorb the literatures of other times and other nations From the engagement with Russian literature of Hugh MacDiarmid and Edwin Morgan through to the interplay with continental literary theory Scottish writers have proved active participants in a diverse international literary practice Scottish criticism has arguably often been slow in appreciating the full extent of this exchange Preoccupied with marking out its territory with identifying an independent and distinctive tradition Scottish criticism has occasionally blinded itself to the diversity and range of its writers In stressing the importance of cultural independence it has tended to overlook the many virtues of interdependence The essays in this book aim to offer a corrective view They celebrate the achievement of Scottish writing in the twentieth century by offering a wider basis for appreciation than a narrow idea of Scottishness Each essay explores an aspect of Scottish writing in an individual foreign perspective together they provide an enriching account of a national literary practice that has deep and often surprisingly complex roots in international culture
