Reason Truth And God:

Reason, Truth and God Renford Bambrough, 1973 Reason, Truth and God Renford Bambrough, 1969 Reason, Truth, and Theology in Pragmatist Perspective Paul D. Murray, 2004

In this work Paul Murray explores which style of rationality is most appropriate to Christian theology in the contemporary pluralist postfoundationalist postmodern context. At its heart is a fresh consideration of the American pragmatist tradition focussing on the writings of Richard Rorty and Nicholas Rescher. Where Rorty correctly diagnoses the failures of foundationalist objectivism, Rescher's pragmatic idealism is presented as healing the ills in Rorty's own neo-pragmatism. The significant resonance between Rescher's view of rationality and Christian understanding of the trinity is explored. In turn, Donald MacKinnon's influential writings are presented as exemplifying just such an approach to theology. Murray both articulates an enriched form of Christian postliberalism committed to receiving and learning from other traditions of thought and practice and probes the claim that the dynamics of human rationality can be expected to reflect the Trinitarian dynamics of God's being. Paul Murray presents us here with an exhaustive and insightful study of recent pragmatic theory in which he sets up rhythms of healing and completion as well as interrogation particularly remarkable is his exploration of Christianity as the deep and in some sense final interlocutor of pragmatic tradition. I strongly recommend this book. Olivier Davis, Professor of Christian Doctrine, King's College London.

This is a mature wide-ranging work that by uniting the intellectual and the practical carries both rational and ethical conviction. It does equal justice to the classic teachings of Christianity and to the challenges to rethink them in dialogue with modern and postmodern approaches. The result is a conception of Christianity both generously orthodox and deeply engaged with contemporary life and thought. It is especially good to see the profound contribution of Donald MacKinnon understood and developed with such perception and relevance. David F. Ford, Regius Professor of Divinity, University of Cambridge.

Paul Murray is currently Lecturer in Systematic Theology within the Department of Theology at the University of Durham, England. He has previously held posts at St Cuthbert's Seminary, Ushaw College, Durham, and Newman College of Higher Education, Birmingham. Essays of his exploring issues in philosophical theology, science and theology, and contemporary Roman Catholic theology have appeared in leading journals and edited collections. This is his first monograph.

Worldviews Comparison

Alex McFarland, 2014-03-25

Experience the convenience of having this amazing Bible Study Tool at your fingertips wherever you go. Plus you can read, search, enlarge, and print the pamphlet right off your computer. This comparison of worldviews helps you know what you believe and why. A worldview is the big picture view of the world, one that attempts to answer all the big questions of life: What is real? If there is a God, what is God's nature? What is a human being? How can we know what is right or wrong? This chart compares 8 worldviews: Atheism (There is no God), Pantheism (God is all), Pan-En-theism (God is in all), Deism (God is a distant creator), Finite Godism (There is a God but he is limited), Polytheism (There are many gods), Monotheism (There is only one god), and Biblical Christianity (There is only one Triune god).

with Scripture and the voices of the past and present who have contributed to the total theological voice of the church at large In this second edition of the work there is included an extra chapter on the doctrine of the Christian life As pointed out in the first edition of the work theology should foremost be practical in its results and application The author addresses this concern by including a new chapter discussing the nature of the Christian life and how Christians should live in the world

God's Autopsy and the Living Truth of Soul Hal Childs,2022-08-22 The Grand Narrative of Christianity that the Bible created is dead and the Bible is silent Does the Bible have anything relevant to say to our modern circumstances We ask where did God come from What happened to God God s Autopsy reinterprets soul and God as historical psychological phenomena related to the cultural structure of consciousness the invisible shared context of thought which has changed dramatically over the past three millennia This book offers a new way to understand the trajectory of Western civilization by making the implicit foundation of Western consciousness soul visible and conscious Our modern Western consciousness is radically different from that of antiquity when the Bible emerged Jung s psychological philosophical insight that whenever we speak about the psyche it is the psyche speaking about itself leads to the realization that today consciousness has come home to itself Beginning with preliterate polytheism the emergence of the transcendent god Yahweh and Christ which led directly to the Enlightenment objective soul continues to unfold itself How did late modernity become a topsy turvy quantum virtual digital impersonal and abstract world that appears to be running away from us The answer is unexpectedly and shockingly in the Bible itself

The Essential Guide to Ratzinger Matthew J.
