Reasons for Faith (Foreword by Lee Strobel) Norman L. Geisler, Chad V. Meister, 2007-10-26 Many Christians want to witness for their faith but they are afraid they will not be able to answer questions that others may ask of them First Peter 3 15 reminds believers to always be prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you Norman Geisler and Chad Meister realize the fear of facing questions about the Christian faith Their book Reasons for Faith gives believers grounded biblical apologetics to help them defend their faith By covering the importance of apologetics and then applying apologetics to popular culture and theological issues these authors give all Christians the tools they need to stand firm in their faith and to be able to share that faith in today's society On Transhumanism Stefan Lorenz Sorgner, 2020-12-15 Transhumanism is widely misunderstood in part because the media have exaggerated current technologies and branded the movement as dangerous leading many to believe that hybrid humans may soon walk among us and that immortality achieved by means of mind uploading is imminent In this essential and clarifying volume Stefan Lorenz Sorgner debunks widespread myths about transhumanism and tackles the most pressing ethical issues in the debate over technologically assisted human enhancement On Transhumanism is a vital primer on the subject written by a world renowned expert In this book Sorgner presents an overview of the movement's history capably summarizing the twelve pillars of transhumanist discourse and explaining the great diversity of transhumanist responses to each individual topic He highlights the urgent ethical challenges related to the latest technological developments inventions and innovations and compares the unique cultural standing of transhumanism to other cultural movements placing it within the broader context of the Enlightenment modernity postmodernity and the philosophical writings of Nietzsche Engagingly written and translated and featuring an introduction for North American readers this comprehensive overview of the cultural and philosophical movement of transhumanism will be required reading for students of posthumanist philosophy and for general audiences interested in learning about the transhumanist movement Faith Has Its Reasons Kenneth Boa, Robert M. Bowman Jr., 2012-01-05 A most accessible but thoroughly practical primer on apologetics Reasons for Our Hope H. Wayne House, Dennis W. Jowers, 2011-10 A sophisticated yet accessible introductory guide to an articulate and well informed defense of the Christian faith The Journal of Philosophy, 1996 Sacramental Presence after Heidegger Conor Sweeney, 2015-01-19 Theology after Heidegger must take into account history and language as constitutive elements in the pursuit of meaning Quite often this prompts a hurried flight from metaphysics to an embrace of an absence at the center of Christian narrativity In this book Conor Sweeney explores the postmodern critique of presence in the context of sacramental theology engaging the thought of Louis Marie Chauvet and Lieven Boeve Chauvet is an influential postmodern theologian whose critique of the perceived onto theological constitution of presence in traditional sacramental theology has made big waves while Boeve is part of a more recent generation of theologians who even more wholeheartedly embrace postmodern consequences for theology Sweeney considers the extent to which postmodernism a la Heidegger upsets the hermeneutics of sacramentality asking whether this requires us to renounce the search for a presence that by definition transcends us Against both the fetishization of presence and absence Sweeney argues that metaphysics has a properly sacramental basis and that it is only through this reality that the dialectic of presence and absence can be transcended The case is made for the full but restless signification of the mother's smile as the paradigm for genuine sacramental presence
