Richard Hooker Philip Hobday, 2023-09-07 For some Hooker and Anglicanism are basically reformed for others fundamentally Catholic for some embodying a middle way between Roman Catholic and Protestant extremes and for others simply confused and incoherent This book challenges those perceptions by showing that reformed and catholic are not intrinsically opposed Reading Hooker alongside a representative theologian of each tradition the catholic Aquinas and the reformed Calvin on theological method Hobday shows there is much greater congruity between theologies and theologians often considered in tension On the role of scripture in theology the theological capacity of human reason and the place of tradition these 3 theologians have far more in common than many subsequent commentators have understood This book shows how both Hooker and the Anglicanism he defended in such elegant prose can be coherently both catholic and reformed rather than one or the other or some middle way Relocating Hooker and Anglicanism in this way reveals them to be rich fruitful conversation partners in ecumenical dialogue and theological debates across Christian traditions

Faith and Reason in the Reformations Terence J. Kleven, 2021-12-06 The five hundredth anniversary of the Protestant Reformation reawakened a long standing and spirited conversation between philosophic science and religious faith a conversation which continues to have consequences on how we understand both science and faith This book brings scholars together to reflect on the topic of the Protestant Reformation as well as the Roman Catholic Counter Reformation the nature of science and the unity of the Church Five chapters in this collection represent five distinct theological formulations within Christianity the other seven chapters are from a variety of historic philosophic and theological starting points on the topic These twelve accounts range from theologies informed by the Classical Philosophy of Plato and Aristotle medieval Jewish and Roman Catholic writers Moses Maimonides and Thomas More writers of the Protestant Reformation Martin Luther John Calvin Richard Hooker and William Shakespeare the founders of modern science Francis Bacon and T H Huxley and the modern day theologies of Abraham Kuyper Flannery O Connor H R Niebuhr and Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Faith, Reason, and Beyond Reason Mark J. Boone, 2024-07-16 The relationship between faith and reason is multifaceted Faith transcends reason in that it is more than reason alone can contain or fully guarantee yet it is neither unreasonable nor something to which reason is irrelevant and reason says some pretty fine things about it This volume updates nine previously published articles on faith and reason by a Christian philosopher who has been studying these matters for two decades alongside one new essay and a philosophical dialogue These articles explain and integrate key ideas on faith and reason including Alvin Plantinga's account of how Christian belief can be knowledge even without evidence defenses of faith from Augustine and William James accounts of empirical evidence for faith from different world religions the distinction between faith and sight in the New Testament the structure of the evidence for the authority of the Bible the idea that faith transcends reason because some articles of faith are beyond human comprehension even if we have evidence that they are true and the nature of faith as a total commitment beyond what the evidence alone can guarantee

Crime and Criminality Sandie Taylor, 2015-12-22 The question of why and how certain individuals are drawn towards behaving in a way that contravenes the Law of the Land is not an easy one to address Researchers from various different fields have nevertheless attempted to develop theoretical explanations for the existence of different types of crime and why some individuals commit such acts Crime and Criminality draws on criminology sociology psychology and neuroscience to offer a balanced perspective of crime the criminal and criminality Coverage includes a comprehensive discussion of theoretical approaches to criminal behaviour including biological social and rational choice approaches an analysis of legal and social definitions of crime and how these definitions influence the way specific behaviours are labelled as criminal an examination of different types of crime and criminals from delinquents to psychopaths and sex offenders an exploration of different ways in which crime is predicted including risk assessment and offender profiling and an overview of investigative techniques Addressing a broad range of topics and offering a synthesis of competing theoretical explanations of criminality this book is essential reading for students taking courses in criminology criminal psychology criminal behaviour forensic psychology and psychological criminology

There is a Crack in Everything—Education and Religion in a Secular Age K. H. (Ina) ter Avest, 2019-11-22 There are two constants in academic and theological discourse throughout history they are the debate around secularization and the dialogue concerning the intersection of religion and education Each age has had its debate about modernizing forces that drive concerns of impending secularization In this publication this theme is approached from perspectives of teachers of students of policy makers and situated in a politico historical context Aware of the fact that in today's plural societies one sacred canopy is non-existent anymore cracks of the sacred canopy canopies are described as well as the light that gets in the possible and challenging ways out are roughly sketched

Four Views on Divine Providence William Lane Craig, Ron Highfield, Gregory A. Boyd, Paul Kjoss Helseth, 2011-04-19 Questions about divine providence have preoccupied Christians for generations to what degree does God concern himself with and intervene in the affairs of everyday life This book introduces readers to four prevailing views on divine providence with particular attention to the questions of human free will the problem of evil and God's perception of time Volume contributors and their basic viewpoints are Paul Helseth God causes every creaturely event that occurs William Lane Craig through his middle knowledge God controls the course of worldly affairs without predetermining any creatures free decisions Ron Highfield God controls creatures by liberating their decision making Gregory Boyd human decisions can be free only if God neither determines nor knows what they will be

Introductory and closing essays by Dennis Jowers give relevant background and guide readers toward their own informed beliefs about divine providence

Four Views on Divine Providence helps readers think theologically and biblically about all the issues involved in exploring this doctrine

The point counterpoint format reveals the assumptions and considerations that drive equally learned and sincere theologians to disagreement with each other

It unearths the genuinely decisive issues beneath a philosophically dense debate

The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text

Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Reason and Worldviews Owen Anderson, 2008-03-11

After the challenges of the Enlightenment from philosophers such as David Hume contemporary philosophers of religion tend to think that proof is not possible and that at best humans have arguments for the probability or plausibility of belief in God

But Christianity maintains that humans should know God

This book explores attempts to respond to the Enlightenment challenges by thinkers at Princeton Theological like Benjamin Warfield

It considers Warfield's view of reason and knowledge of God his debate with Abraham Kuyper and the attempt to reconcile differences between these two by Cornelius Van Til

It also considers Reformed Epistemology which has become popular in recent decades and is credited for a renewed interest in Christian philosophy

Divine Beauty Revealed Youngra Kim, 2025-09-11

This book explores the theological aesthetics of Jonathan Edwards through the lens of his biblical interpretation presenting a fresh and much needed perspective on one of America's greatest religious thinkers

While previous scholarship has focused heavily on Edwards's philosophical or systematic theology this study uniquely centers his aesthetic vision on Scripture

It argues that Edwards's understanding of beauty rooted in the Triune God revealed through Christ and reflected in creation is fundamentally shaped by his exegetical writings and pastoral vocation

Engaging key works such as his Sermons Miscellanies Religious Affections and The Blank Bible the book demonstrates that Edwards's theology of beauty permeates core doctrines including the Trinity salvation ecclesiology and eschatology

In contrast to Enlightenment rationalism Edwards upheld the Bible as the supreme source of truth interpreted through the Spirit enabled new sense of the heart

This study fills a critical gap in Edwards scholarship by integrating his aesthetic theology with his biblical hermeneutics offering new insights into his vision of divine beauty and its transformative impact on the believer and the church
