Blue Fingers Cheryl Aylward Whitesel, 2004 The power and prowess of ninja never seem to lose their appeal to young readers especially boys Blue

Fingers a suspenseful action packed coming of age story set in feudal Japan offers an up close look at this noble fierce way of life Through an odd twist of fate a stubborn twelve year old boy named Koji is kidnapped by a secret ninja clan and taken to its hidden camp high in the mountains He wants desperately to return home but that is forbidden He must forget his old life and become a ninja or die In this carefully researched and well crafted novel Koji must learn to survive in the mysterious and dangerous world of the ninja and fulfill a destiny far different from any he could have imagined Afterword Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books Doris Gebel, United States Board on Books for Young People, 2006-05-25 This annotated bibliography organized geographically by world region and country describing nearly 700 books representing 73 countries is a valuable resource for librarians teachers and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children's literature It is the third volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People The first Carl M Tomlinson's Children's Books from Other Countries 1998 is a compendium of international children's literature with annotations of both in and out of print books published between 1950 and 1996 Susan Stan's The World Through Children's Books 2002 was the second and it included books published between the years 1997 and 2000 Crossing Boundaries includes international children's books published between 2000 and 2004 as well as selected American books set in countries other than the United States Editor Doris Gebel has compiled an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity Spirituality in Young Adult Literature Patty Campbell, 2015-06-24 In a time when almost any gritty topic can be featured in a young adult novel there is one subject that is avoided by writers and publishers Faith and belief in God seldom appear in traditional form in novels for teens The lack of such ideas in mainstream adolescent literature can be interpreted by teens to mean that these matters are not important Yet a significant part of growing up is struggling with issues of spirituality The underlying problem of course is that there are so few writers who are willing to talk to teenagers about God even indirectly or who themselves have the religious literacy for the task Spirituality in Young Adult Literature The Last Taboo tackles a subject rarely portrayed in fiction aimed at teens In this volume Patty Campbell examines not only realistic fiction but young adult literature that deals with mysticism apocalyptic end times and even YA novels that depict the Divine Encounter Campbell maintains that fantasy works are inherently spiritual because the plots nearly always progress toward a showdown between good and evil As such the author surmises that the popularity of fantasy among teens may represent their interest in the mystical dimensions of faith and the otherworldly In this study Campbell examines works of fiction that express perspectives from Christianity Judaism Islam Buddhism Hinduism and Sikhism Distinguished YA novelist Chris Crowe provides a chapter on Mormon values and Mormon YA authors and how their novels integrate those values into their books By looking at how spirituality is represented in novels aimed at teens this book asks what progress if any has been made in slaying the taboo Although most of the books discussed in this study are recent an appendix lists YA books from 1967 to the present that have dealt with issues of faith A timely look at an important subject Spirituality in Young Adult Literature will be of interest to young adult librarians junior and senior high school teachers and students and instructors of college courses in adolescent literature as well as to parents of teens MultiCultural Review ,2001 Your Reading Jean E.
