Youth Violence and Delinquency Frank P. Williams, Marilyn D. McShane, 2007-05-30 Juvenile crime and violence has always piqued the public s interest Indeed each generation of Americans tends to define the youth crime problem as more serious than any previous generation Even though juvenile homicides have been decreasing since the mid 1990s the media is still quick to provide dramatic examples of juvenile monsters who are terrorizing their communities Shootings at school gang banging and trafficking drugs school bullies and charging juveniles as adults are subjects that have recently received wide media coverage This three volume set on the nature incidence consequences and treatment of youth crime and violence will help readers understand the true nature of youth crime and violence from a variety of perspectives Each volume covers a different area and experts write on topics ranging from sex offending to fire starting from gangs to guns from juvenile probation to charging youths as adults from mandatory mental health treatment to police in school settings and more What drives a teenager to steal To kill Why does youth crime and violence occur Why are youths such vulnerable targets What can be done to stop youth offenders and what can be done to help youthful victims How does the criminal justice system respond What do communities do to punish and protect youths What can schools do to intervene All these questions and more are answered in this set on this timely and important topic Our youth are our most precious commodity and protecting vulnerable children as well as helping offenders is of paramount importance for steering them toward safe and productive lives These volumes help readers better understand the causes and consequences of youth violence and crime and consider ways to address the problems

Gender violence. Change your life and stop being a victim, it's easy! Oleg Nashchubskiy, Gender based violence is a complex and multifaceted issue and many people even if they do not have direct experience as a victim or perpetrator still have difficulty understanding it Initially it is important to recognize that gender based violence is not limited to physical violence It also includes emotional psychological and economic abuse as well as threats and control Most cases of gender based violence do not occur due to force but rather due to the desire to control and suppress another person Regarding the question of why men commit gender based violence and women remain in such relationships the answers can be multifaceted and depend on the specific situation For example men may use gender based violence to maintain power and control in relationships and women may remain in such relationships due to fear dependency economic vulnerability or cultural and social dynamics Gender based violence is a broad and complex social problem that affects many aspects of human life It can manifest itself in various forms and contexts including the family environment social relationships work environment etc It is important to understand that gender based violence is not limited only to physical actions although they often act as one of its manifestations It also includes emotional abuse psychological abuse economic abuse and threats and behavioral control One of the main causes of gender based violence is the desire to control and suppress another person This may occur due to inequalities in power and status between partners as well as cultural and social attitudes that support and reinforce inequality between genders In addition stereotypes about masculinity and femininity can contribute to the emergence and maintenance of gender based violence by creating norms of behavior that justify or normalize such actions It is important to understand that gender based violence can affect all people regardless of their gender age race social status or other characteristics Although women make up the majority of victims of gender based violence men can also be victims and this often goes unappreciated or underappreciated in society Gender based violence can affect both women and men and people of any gender identity It is important to understand that gender based violence is not limited to female victims although women and girls make up a significant proportion of victims However men boys and people with other gender identities can also be vulnerable to gender based violence Research shows that men can also be victims of gender based violence but the frequency and forms of violence may vary depending on cultural social and other factors Gender based violence is a complex and diverse issue that requires attention and support for all victims regardless of their gender identity Combating gender based violence requires a systemic approach that includes education and public awareness of the problem strengthening legal and legal responses support for victims and working to change cultural norms and stereotypes about gender Working to overcome gender based violence requires the participation of the entire society and efforts at all levels from the personal to the global Gender based violence includes a wide range of forms including physical emotional sexual and economic violence as well as threats and controlling behavior It can manifest itself in various areas of life including the family environment social relationships work environment etc In our world where we strive for equality and justice the topic of gender based violence remains one of the most important and relevant Gender based violence is not only a physical problem but also a complex socio cultural phenomenon that covers various aspects of human life In our book we will look at this problem in all its manifestations and aspects exploring the various types of violence its causes and consequences as well as ways to overcome and prevent it In the first part we dive into the world of types of gender based violence revealing its multifaceted nature from physical violence to emotional psychological and economic We will look at each type separately analyzing its causes mechanisms of action and consequences for victims In Part 2 we delve deeper into the drivers and causes of gender based violence exploring the role of cultural stereotypes social expectations power and control We will conduct research into the personal and psychological factors that contribute to the emergence and maintenance of gender based violence in modern society The third part of our book is dedicated to support for victims of gender based violence We cover primary care safety mental health legal and social support offering readers practical advice and resources to support themselves and those around them In part four we will turn to preventing and combating gender based violence discussing the role of education programs and campaigns working with perpetrators and community engagement in solving this problem The final part of our book will review the main ideas proposed in it and call readers to action We hope that our work will become not only a source of knowledge but also a source of inspiration for those who strive to create a world free of gender based violence We invite you on a journey through the complex paths of gender based violence where together we will try to understand its nature consequences and ways to overcome it Restore, Renew, Rebuild Cris Rogers, Debra Green, Paul Weston, 2022-04-01 The Church is entering a season of change Together we need to restore renew and rebuild to create a more hopeful faith filled future and the book of Nehemiah shows us how With contributions from Debra Green and Paul Weston Cris Rogers explores how we can learn from Nehemiah s story and restore our hearts our focus and our world so that the Church can thrive as we join in with God s heart for restoring all things An inspiring call to action this book will challenge and equip you to join God s mission and the full ministry of Jesus The God of Second Chances Ron Clark, 2012-09-13 When the people of Judah were taken captive by the Babylonians their world was drastically changed While in exile they experienced shame guilt fear and displacement However their God had been traumatized by their behavior and also grieved with them Yet Yahweh gave them a second chance by forgiving them and bringing them home God offered them hope mercy and love The prophets were God s chosen messengers not only to provide a new vision of what could be but to suffer with the people These servants were caught in the middle between a passionate God and traumatized people As the people returned to Jerusalem to rebuild their city and their lives the prophets were with them to remind them that God had not abandoned them The author suggests that the prophets live on today through the church as those who engage their community fight for people s hearts and remind others that God gives second chances Clark shares stories from his personal ministry to the marginalized in Portland Oregon who seek relief from shame suffering and hopelessness In this hope our community receives new vision through a loving God and persistent prophets Social Work in Context Kalyani Mehta, Ann Wee, 2004 This book locates social work in the Asian context and discusses the applications of theories principles and values according to the socio economic and cultural context of Southeast Asia As social work as a profession is very closely related to the context in which it operates this book will prove very useful for undergraduates as well as students who are studying diplomas in social work
