Recapturing The Wesleys Vision An Introduction To The Faith Of John And Charles Wesley:

Recapturing the Wesleys' Vision Paul Wesley Chilcote, 2009-08-20 Paul Wesley Chilcote introduces the dynamic faith of John and Charles Wesley showing how they were able to balance faith and works Word and Spirit the personal and the social head and heart mission and service

Cultivating a Thoughtful Faith Dr Maxie D Dunnam, Steven G W Moore, 2005-09 A passionate call for theological thinking that challenges our intellect enriches our faith kindles our heart and infuses our daily life The assumption in much of the church is that theology is an obstacle to a vital growing faith not an aid to it In fact everyone is a theologian either a good one or a bad one So what are the advantages of thinking intentionally about matters of theology and how they can guide inform and nourish our faith What are the components of good thinking and what are some ways we can cultivate it As the contributors to this volume make clear theology is for everyday and every person as all are called to be thoughtful followers of Jesus They make the case for how a living thoughtful faith and how learning to think about God can launch your faith and make it powerful and alive This engaging volume will help lay people incoming college students and prospective seminarians understand that vital faith is as much about our mind as it is about a warm heart

Cultivating a Thoughtful Faith challenges the intellect while touching the heart It advances our understanding of how to love God with all our minds We in Christian higher education celebrate this contribution to a deeper understanding of our calling

Robert C Andringa President Council for Christian Colleges and Universities Washington D C Rather than reserving theology for a classroom or Sunday morning discussion these essays challenge the reader to make sure that theology engages the imagination and the intellect the heart and the mind The writers remind us that a thoughtful faith compels us to change the world by transforming our daily lives from the inside out way Making Disciples in a World Parish Paul W. Chilcote, 2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction Evolution and Holiness Matthew Nelson Hill, 2016-02-17 Theology needs to engage what recent developments in the study of evolution mean for how we understand moral behavior How does the theological concept of holiness connect to contemporary understandings of evolution In this groundbreaking work Matthew Hill uses the lens of Wesleyan ethics to offer a fresh assessment of the intersection of evolution and theology The Cambridge Companion to American Protestantism Jason E. Vickers, Jennifer Woodruff Tait, 2022-05-26 American Protestantism has been the dominant form of Christianity in United States since the colonial era and has had a profound impact on American society Understanding this religious tradition is thus crucial to understanding American culture This Companion offers a comprehensive overview of American Protestantism It considers all its major streams Anglican Reformed Lutheran Anabaptist Baptist Stone Campbell Methodist Holiness and Pentecostal Written from various disciplinary perspectives including history theology liturgics and religious studies it explores the beliefs and practices around which American Protestant life has revolved The volume also provides a chronological overview of the tradition s entire history addresses its prominent theological and sociological features and explores its numerous intersections with American culture Aimed at undergraduate and graduate students as well as an interested general audience this Companion will be useful both for insiders and outsiders to the American Protestant tradition Shaping the Journey Daniel Ethan Harris, 2025-08-21 How do the theological impulses of evangelical pietism and contemplative monasticism converge in the modern spiritual formation movement Shaping the Journey brings John Wesley and Thomas Merton into critical dialogue examining their distinct yet complementary contributions to Christian spirituality With Wesleyan evangelicalism as a thesis and Mertonian monasticism as antithesis this study argues that the spiritual formation movement represents a meaningful synthesis of these traditions Central to this synthesis is the work of M Robert Mulholland Jr whose integrative vision of spiritual formation clearly reflects the influences of Wesley and Merton and the evangelical and monastic traditions they represent Engaging history theology and spirituality this work offers a vital resource for understanding the roots and trajectory of Christian spiritual formation Mennocostals Martin William Mittelstadt, Brian K.
