Reprint of the original first published in 1867 Recent British Philosophy David Masson, 2015-06-25

Excerpt from Recent British Philosophy A Review With Criticisms Including Some Comments on Mr. Mill's Answer to Sir William Hamilton. The substance of the greater portion of the following pages was delivered in the form of Lectures at the Royal Institution of Great Britain in Albemarle Street on the afternoons of March 21, 23, and 28 in the present year. London, June 1865. Note To Second Edition: Although since the first publication of the Volume some of the views put forth in it have taken considerable extension in the writer's mind and there is one general speculation growing out of the whole which has begun to seem so important to him that it will probably press for exposition at some time yet with respect to the original purpose of the Volume it has not been found necessary in this reprint to make more than a few verbal changes. Edinburgh, March 1867. Note To Third Edition: To bring this Edition into closer connexion with the present time an Additional Chapter has been thought desirable. For suggestions towards the Bibliographical Conspectus in that chapter I am indebted to Professor Adamson of the Owens College, Manchester. Edinburgh, May 1877.
