Susan Schaller

Sign Language Crash Course I For Beginning Signers:

Sign Language Brokering in Deaf-Hearing Families Jemina Napier, 2021-04-15 This book details a study of sign language brokering that is carried out by deaf and hearing people who grow up using sign language at home with deaf parents known as heritage signers Child language brokering CLB is a form of interpreting carried out informally by children typically for migrant families The study of sign language brokering has been largely absent from the emerging body of CLB literature The book gives an overview of the international multi stage mixed method study employing an online survey semi structured interviews and visual methods to explore the lived experiences of deaf parents and heritage signers It will be of interest to practitioners and academics working with signing deaf communities and those who wish to pursue professional practice with deaf communities as well as academics and students in the fields of Applied Linguistics Intercultural Communication Interpreting Studies and the Social Science of Childhood

A Man Without Words Susan Schaller, 2014-05-15 For more than a quarter of a century Ildefonso a Mexican Indian lived in total isolation set apart from the rest of the world He wasn't a political prisoner or a social recluse he was simply born deaf and had never been taught even the most basic language Susan Schaller then a twenty four year old graduate student encountered him in a class for the deaf where she had been sent as an interpreter and where he sat isolated since he knew no sign language She found him obviously intelligent and sharply observant but unable to communicate and she felt compelled to bring him to a comprehension of words The book vividly conveys the challenge the frustrations and the exhilaration of opening the mind of a congenitally deaf person to the concept of language This second edition includes a new chapter and afterword
