Insecurities of Expulsion Anneeth Kaur Hundle, 2025-05-02 In 1972 Ugandan president Idi Amin expelled close to 80 000 South Asians of Ugandan heritage from the country by dictatorial decree In Insecurities of Expulsion Anneeth Kaur Hundle revisits this weighty historical event arguing that it is neither an exceptional nor a parochial event neither a result of primordial Afro South Asian racial conflict nor an opening into a redemptive search for Afro South Asian interracial solidarities Hundle explores the aftermaths and continuous nature of the expulsion event examining its effects and affects the images representations and differentiated experiences and memories of the event and the tense and ambivalent practices of citizenship sovereignty and governance that have emerged in the decades following the expulsion She examines Afro Asian entanglements in what she describes as transcontinental Uganda through the lenses of race ethnicity class caste religion gender and sexuality Throughout Hundle argues for stronger attention to knowledge production on global Afro South Asian connections and the continued dynamics of community citizenship and identity on the African Continent as central to envisioning Black African self determinism racial reconciliation and interracial pluralisms during shifting imperial postcolonial nationalist and geopolitical times A Good African Story Andrew Rugasira, 2013-02-07 Since it was founded in 2003 Good African Coffee has helped thousands of farmers earn a decent living send their children to school and escape a spiral of debt and dependence Africa has received over 1 trillion in aid over the last fifty years and yet despite these huge inflows the continent remains mired in poverty disease and systemic corruption In A Good African Story as Andrew Rugasira recounts the very personal story of his company and the challenges that he has faced and overcome as an African entrepreneur he provides a tantalising glimpse of what Africa could be and argues that trade has achieved what years of aid have failed to deliver This is a book about Africa taking its destiny in its own hands and dictating the terms of its future

Reactions 'from Below' Marc Edelman, Ruth Hall, Saturnino M. Borras Jr., Ian Scoones, Ben White, Wendy

Wolford, 2017-08-15 When the 2007 2008 food and financial crises triggered a global wave of land grabbing scholars activists and policy practitioners assumed that this would be met with massive peasant resistance As empirical evidence accumulated however it became clear that political reactions from below to land grabbing were quite varied and complex Violent resistance outright expulsions everyday weapons of the weak and demands for better terms of incorporation into land deals were among the outcomes that emerged Readers of this collection will encounter a multinational group of scholars who use the tools of social movements theory and critical agrarian studies to examine cases from Argentina Mexico Guatemala Nicaragua Colombia Ethiopia Madagascar Mozambique Uganda Mali Ukraine India and Laos as well as the Rio 20 Sustainable Development Conference Initiatives from below in response to land deals have involved local and transnational alliances and the use of legal and extra legal methods and have brought victories and defeats This book was first published as a special issue of The Journal of Peasant Studies

Uganda: A Modern History Jan Jelmert Jørgensen, 2023-10-09 Uganda A Modern History 1981 provides a comprehensive political social and economic history of Uganda from the beginnings of colonial rule in 1888 It focuses particularly on the development of the Ugandan economy and demonstrates how the economy became structurally dependent on world capitalism during the colonial period and how this has affected its subsequent development The book also deals with the political and social tendencies which shaped Ugandan society in both the colonial and postcolonial period The first four chapters examine the initial colonial occupation and the colonial state's role in the rural nexus of chiefs peasants and migrant workers They also look at the colonial state and the context of the wider national regional and international economy and analyse the African nationalist response and the formation of political parties to take control of the postcolonial state The second part of the book considers the political alliances and economic strategies of the Obote regime and the events of Amin's military regime The epilogue looks at events since the fall of the Amin regime and suggests ways in which Uganda may be able to tackle its underlying economic problems

Gregory,1993 A Study Of The Role Of Immigrants From The Indian Subcontinent In The Development Of Political Consciousness In Kenya Tanganyika Uganda And Zanzibar The Author Believes That With Their Great Economic Strength Industriousness And Ability To Articulate The Asians Played A Pivotal Role In The Transition Of These Countries From Colonies To Independent States This Is Apparently The First Book Which Comprehensively Covers The Role Of Asians In East African History Until Independence Came To These Territories Land Grabbing in Africa Fasil Demissie,2017-10-02 The sign that Africa is on Sale has been appearing with regular frequency in major newspaper accounts across the world indicating that large amounts expanses of Africa s rich farmlands are being sold to transnational investors usually on long term leases at a rate not seen in decades indeed not since the colonial period Transnational and national economic actors from various business sectors oil and auto mining and forestry food and chemical bioenergy etc are eagerly acquiring or declaring their intention to acquire large areas of land on which to build maintain or extend large scale extractive and agro industrial enterprises to help secure their own food and energy needs into the future This book provides a critical appraisal of the growing phenomenon of land grabbing in Africa Far from being a technical issue associated good governance the problem of land grabbing by transnational corporation and states is a serious threat for the food security of millions of Africans and is undoubtedly one of the great challenges of our time for development on the continent The case studies illustrate that African states are also complicit in the massive land grabbing by actively participating in isolated development while excluding the local communities The case studies reveal key features that characterize how the global land grab plays out in specific localities in Africa This book was published as a special issue of African Identities Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration Elizabeth W. Collier,Charles R. Strain,2014-06-05 Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration examines the complicated social ethics of migration in today s world Editors Elizabeth W Collier and Charles R Strain bring the perspectives of an international group of scholars toward a theory of justice and ethical understanding for the nearly two hundred million migrants who have left their homes seeking asylum from political persecution greater freedom and safety economic opportunity or reunion with family members Migrants move out of fear desperation hope love for their families or a myriad of other complex motivations Faced with both the needs and flows of people and the walls that impede them what actions ought we both individually and collectively take What is the moral responsibility of those of us in particular who reside comfortably in our native lands There is no univocal response to these questions Instead multiple perspectives on migration must be examined This book begins by looking at different geographic regions around the world and highlighting particular issues within each Finding that religious traditions represent the

strongest countervailing sources of values to the homogenizing tendencies of economic globalization the study then offers a plurality of religious perspectives The final chapters examine the salient issues and the proposed solutions that have emerged specifically within the U S context These studies range from militarization of the U S border with Mexico to the impact of migrants on native born low skilled workers Encompassing a wide range of cultural and scholarly voices Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration provides insight for ethics moral philosophy social and political philosophy religious studies social justice globalization and identity formation

Transitional Justice in Comparative Perspective Samar El-Masri,Tammy Lambert,Joanna R. Quinn,2020-01-17 What if we could change the conditions in post conflict post authoritarian countries to make transitional justice work better This book argues that if the context in countries in need of transitional justice can be ameliorated before processes of transitional justice are established they are more likely to meet with success As the contributors reveal this can be done in different ways At the attitudinal level changing the broader social ethos can improve the chances that societies will be more receptive to transitional justice At the institutional level the capacity of mechanisms and institutions can be strengthened to offer more support to transitional justice processes Drawing on lessons learned in Colombia Democratic Republic of the Congo The Gambia Lebanon Palestine and Uganda the book explores ways to better the conditions in post conflict post authoritarian countries to improve the success of transitional justice
