Ekphrastic Medieval Visions C. of Barbara Guest Barbara Guest, 2013-09-01 Winner of the SFSU Poetry Center Book Award 2010 One of the most notable members of the New York School and its best known woman Barbara Guest began writing poetry in the 1950s in company that included John Ashbery Kenneth Koch Frank O'Hara and James Schuyler And from the beginning her practice placed her at the vanguard of American writing Guest's poetry saturated in the visual arts extended the formal experiments of modernism and played the abstract qualities of language against its sensuousness and materiality Now for the first time all of her published poems have been brought together in one volume offering readers and scholars unprecedented access to Guest's remarkable visionary work This Collected Poems moves from her early New York School years through her more abstract later work including some final poems never before published Switching effortlessly from the real to the dreamlike the observed to the imagined this is poetry both gentle and piercing seemingly simple but truly and beautifully dislocating

Women, the New York School, and Other True Abstractions Maggie Nelson, 2007-12 Maggie Nelson provides the first extended consideration of the roles played by women in and around the New York School of poets from the 1950s to the present and offers unprecedented analyses of the work of Barbara Guest Bernadette Mayer Alice Notley Eileen Myles and abstract painter Joan Mitchell as well as a reconsideration of the work of many male New York School writers and artists from a feminist perspective

The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Mark Silverberg, 2016-02-17 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O'Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg's annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg's detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets
