backdrop of the Caribbean's central role for the accumulation of wealth of European and North American actors and the respective dialectics of modernity/coloniality through a variety of experiences inducing migration/transnational exchange and transculturation. Contributors approach the Caribbean as an empowered space of opposition and agency and focus on perspectives of the region as a place of entanglements with a long history of political and cultural practices of resistance to colonization, inequality, heteronomy, purity, invisibilization and exploitation. An important contribution to the literature on agency and resistance in the Caribbean, this volume offers a new perspective on the region as a geopolitically, economically and culturally crucial space and it will interest researchers in the fields of Caribbean politics, literature and heritage.

Gary Peller, 2015-10-23. Despite the apparent racial progress reflected in Obama's election, the African American community in the United States is in a deep crisis on many fronts: economic, intellectual, cultural and spiritual. This book sets out to trace the ideological roots of this crisis. Challenging the conventional historical narrative of race in America, Peller contends that the structure of contemporary racial discourse was set in the confrontation between liberal integrationism and black nationalism during the 1960s and 1970s. Arguing that the ideology of integration that emerged was highly conservative, apologetic and harmful to the African American community, this book is sure to provide a new lens for studying and learning from American race relations in the twentieth century.

Nationalism and African Intellectuals Toyin Falola, 2004. An examination of the attempt by Western-educated African intellectuals to create a better Africa through connecting nationalism to knowledge from the anti-colonial movement to the present day. This book is about how African intellectuals influenced primarily by nationalism have addressed the inter-related issues of power, identity, politics, self-assertion and autonomy for themselves and their continent from the mid-nineteenth century onward. Their major goal was to create a better Africa by connecting nationalism to knowledge. The results have been mixed: from the glorious euphoria of the success of anti-colonial movements to the depressing circumstances of the African condition as we enter a new millennium. As the intellectual elite is a creation of the Western formal school system, the ideas it generated are also connected to the larger world of scholarship. This world is in turn shaped by European contacts with Africa from the fifteenth century onward, the politics of the Cold War and the subsequent collapse of the Soviet Union. In essence, Africa and its elite cannot be fully understood without also considering the West and changing global politics. Neither can the academic and media contributions by non-Africans be ignored as these also affect the ways that Africans think about themselves and their continent.

Nationalism and African Intellectuals examines intellectuals' ambivalent relationships with the colonial apparatus and subsequent nation-state formations, the contradictions manifested within pan-Africanism and nationalism and the relation of academic institutions and intellectual production to the state during the nationalism period and beyond. Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin.

Black Education Joyce E. King, 2006-04-21 This volume presents the findings and recommendations of the American Educational Research Association's AERA Commission on Research in Black Education CORIBE and offers new directions for research and practice By commissioning an independent group of scholars of diverse perspectives and voices to investigate major issues hindering the education of Black people in the U S other Diaspora contexts and Africa the AERA sought to place issues of Black education and research practice in the forefront of the agenda of the scholarly community An unprecedented critical challenge to orthodox thinking this book makes an epistemological break with mainstream scholarship Contributors present research on proven solutions best practices that prepare Black students and others to achieve at high levels of academic excellence and to be agents of their own socioeconomic and cultural transformation These analyses and empirical findings also link the crisis in Black education to embedded ideological biases in research and the system of thought that often justifies the abject state of Black education Written for both a scholarly and a general audience this book demonstrates a transformative role for research and a positive role for culture in learning in the academy and in community and cross national contexts Volume editor Joyce E King is the Benjamin E Mays Endowed Chair of Urban Teaching Learning and Leadership at Georgia State University and was chair of CORIBE Additional Resources Black Education CD ROM Research and Best Practices 1999 2001 Edited by Joyce E King Georgia State University Informed by diverse perspectives and voices of leading researchers teacher educators and classroom teachers this rich interactive CD ROM contains an archive of the empirical findings recommendations and best practices assembled by the Commission on Research in Black Education Dynamic multi media presentations document concrete examples of transformative practice that prepare Black students and others to achieve academic and cultural excellence This CD ROM was produced with a grant from the SOROS Foundation Open Society Institute 0 8058 5564 5 CD ROM 2005 Free Upon Request A Detroit Conversation Video Edited by Joyce E King Georgia State University In this 20 minute video documentary a diverse panel of educators teachers administrators professors a reform Board member and parent and community activists engage in a no holds barred conversation about testing teacher preparation and what is and is not working in Detroit schools including a school for pregnant and parenting teens and Timbuktu Academy Concrete suggestions for research and practice are offered 0 8058 5625 0 Video 2005 10 00 A Charge to Keep Video The Findings and Recommendations of the AERA Commission on Research in Black Education Edited by Joyce E King Georgia State University This 50 minute video documents the findings and recommendations of the Commission on Research in Black Education CORIBE including exemplary educational approaches that CORIBE identified cameo commentaries by Lisa Delpit Gloria Ladson Billings Kathy Au Donna Gollnick Adelaide L Sanford Asa Hilliard Edmund Gordon and others and an extended interview with Sylvia Wynter 0 8058 5626 9 Video 2005 10 00 A Companion to African-American Studies Jane Anna Gordon, Lewis Gordon, 2008-04-15 A Companion to African American Studies is an exciting and comprehensive re appraisal of the history and future of African American studies Contains original essays by

The African Diaspora Toyin Falola, 2013 The African diaspora is arguably the most important event in modern African history From the fifteenth century to the present millions of Africans have been dispersed many of them forcibly others driven by economic need or political persecution to other continents creating large communities with African origins living outside their native lands The majority of these communities are in North America This historic displacement has meant that Africans are irrevocably connected to economic and political developments in the West and globally Among the known legacies of the diaspora are slavery colonialism racism poverty and underdevelopment yet the ways in which these same factors worked to spur the scattering of Africans are not fully understood by those who were part of this migration or by scholars historians and policymakers In this definitive study of the diaspora in North America Toyin Falola offers a causal history of the western dispersion of Africans and its effects on the modern world Reengaging old and familiar debates and framing new ones that enrich the discourse surrounding Africa Falola isolates the thread running nearly six centuries that connects the history of slavery the transatlantic slave trade and current migrations A boon to scholars and policymakers and accessible to the general reader the book explores diverse narratives of migration and shows that the cultures that migrated from Africa to the Americas have the capacity to unite and create a new pan Africanist movement within the globalized world Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin He is the 2011 recipient of the Distinguished Africanist Award from the African Studies Association and serves as the vice president of the International Scientific Committee of the UNESCO Slave Route Project His previous books published by the University of Rochester Press include The Power of African Cultures and

Nationalism and African Intellectuals      The Dutch Atlantic Kwame Nimako, Glenn Willemsen, 2011-09-12 This book interrogates the Dutch involvement in Atlantic slavery and assesses the historical consequences of this for contemporary European society Kwame Nimako and Glenn Willemsen show how the slave trade and slavery intertwined economic social and cultural elements including nation state formation in the Netherlands and across Europe They explore the mobilisation of European populations in the implementation of policies that facilitated Atlantic slavery and examine how European countries created and expanded laws that perpetuated colonisation Addressing key themes such as the incorporation of the formerly enslaved into post slavery states and contemporary collective efforts to forget and or remember slavery and its legacy in the Netherlands this is an essential text for students of European history and postcolonial studies      Slave Revolt on Screen Alyssa Goldstein Sepinwall, 2021-05-28 Recipient of the 2021 Honorary Mention for the Haiti Book Prize from the Haitian Studies Association In Slave Revolt on Screen: The Haitian Revolution in Film and Video Games author Alyssa Goldstein Sepinwall analyzes how films and video games from around the world have depicted slave revolt focusing on the Haitian Revolution 1791-1804 This event the first successful revolution by enslaved people in modern history sent shock waves throughout the Atlantic World Regardless of its historical significance however this revolution has become less well known and appears less often on screen than most other revolutions its story involving enslaved Africans liberating themselves through violence does not match the suffering slaves waiting for a white hero genre that pervades Hollywood treatments of Black history Despite Hollywood's near silence on this event some films on the Revolution do exist from directors in Haiti the US France and elsewhere Slave Revolt on Screen offers the first ever comprehensive analysis of Haitian Revolution cinema including completed films and planned projects that were never made In addition to studying cinema this book also breaks ground in examining video games a pop culture form long neglected by historians Sepinwall scrutinizes video game depictions of Haitian slave revolt that appear in games like the Assassin's Creed series that have reached millions more players than comparable films In analyzing films and games on the revolution Slave Revolt on Screen calls attention to the ways that economic legacies of slavery and colonialism warp pop culture portrayals of the past and leave audiences with distorted understandings      Critical Perspectives on Teaching in Prison Rebecca Ginsburg, 2019-05-14 This volume makes a case for engaging critical approaches for teaching adults in prison higher education or college in prison programs This book not only contextualizes pedagogy within the specialized and growing niche of prison instruction but also addresses prison abolition reentry and educational equity Chapters are written by prison instructors currently incarcerated students and formerly incarcerated students providing a variety of perspectives on the many roadblocks and ambitions of teaching and learning in carceral settings All unapologetic advocates of increasing access to higher education for people in prison contributors discuss the high stakes of teaching incarcerated individuals and address the dynamics conditions and challenges of doing such work The type of instruction that contributors advocate is transferable beyond prisons to traditional campus settings Hence the lessons of this volume will not only support readers in becoming more thoughtful prison educators and program administrators but also in becoming better teachers who can employ critical democratic pedagogy in a range of contexts

Women and the U.S. Constitution Sibyl A. Schwarzenbach, Patricia Smith, 2004-02-18 Women and the U S Constitution is about much more than the nineteenth amendment This provocative volume incorporates law history political theory and philosophy to analyze the U S Constitution as a whole in relation to the rights and fate of women Divided into three parts History Interpretation and Practice this book views the Constitution as a living document struggling to free itself from the weight of a two hundred year old past and capable of evolving to include women and their concerns Feminism lacks both a constitutional theory as well as a clearly defined theory of political legitimacy within the framework of democracy The scholars included here take significant and crucial steps toward these theories In addition to constitutional issues such as federalism gender discrimination basic rights privacy and abortion Women and the U S Constitution explores other issues of central concern to contemporary women areas that strictly speaking are not yet considered a part of constitutional law Women s traditional labor and its unique character and women and the welfare state are two examples of topics treated here from the perspective of their potentially transformative role in the future development of constitutional law
