Race Class Women And The State The Case Of Domestic Labour:

Race, Class, Women and the State Tanya Schecter, 1998 Examines the effect of Canadian immigration policies on both the public and the private worlds of Canadian women      Domestic Service and the Formation of European Identity Antoinette Fauve-Chamoux, 2004 Before the Servant Project began its activities on the initiative of the editor of this book the long term history of domestic service was still in its beginning stage This volume is the first wide ranging attempt to determine the role of domestic workers both in past and present times Domestic service was of major importance in the multi secular process of urbanization and socio economic development of European societies Today domestic workers mainly women represent an important component of international labour migrations to Western countries Instead of disappearing as expected for a long time paid domestic work is currently experiencing a kind of resurgence The contributions assembled in this volume analyze the situation of domestic workers and contribute to improve knowledge concerning their individual characteristics gender ethnic group religion origin motivation and cultural identity relationship with their own families and those of the employers Further topics are connections with the home country and place of destination legal status rights and duties in order to understand the current globalization of domestic work      Unsettling the Great White North Michele A. Johnson, Funké Aladejebi, 2022-01-27 An exhaustive volume of leading scholarship in the field of Black Canadian history Unsettling the Great White North highlights the diverse experiences of persons of African descent within the chronicles of Canada s past The book considers histories and theoretical framings within the disciplines of history sociology law and cultural and gender studies to chart the mechanisms of exclusion and marginalization in multicultural Canada and to situate Black Canadians as speakers and agents of their own lives Working to interrupt the myth of benign whiteness that has been deeply implanted into the country s imagination Unsettling the Great White North uncovers new narratives of Black life in Canada      China's New Underclass Xinying Hu, 2013-07-03 This book examines the implications of China s economic reforms for domestic work and domestic workers The author examines the factors that give rise to paid domestic work in a socialist economy and goes on to look at the need for social protection of domestic workers within cities in contemporary China Using a socialist feminist approach the book investigates how China s economic restructuring has deliberately crafted a domestic service sector from the top down Through the analysis of the situation of paid domestic labour it demonstrates how the changes in socialist ideology under a market economy have justified the state s support for paid domestic labour the large role of the state in these ideological changes and how domestic labour is related to economic changes and the market economy itself The book argues that state s economic reforms have changed gender and class relations in Chinese society Based on interviews with domestic workers their employers their social advocates and government officials this book examines the economic and social security of domestic workers and provides information about their precarious working conditions that could be improved through public policy It also explores women s agency and activism and the current role of

NGOs and trade unions in labour protection

Gender, Migration, and the Work of Care Sonya Michel,Ito

Peng,2017-08-21 This book explores how around the world women s increased presence in the labor force has reorganized the division of labor in households affecting different regions depending on their cultures economies and politics as well as the nature and size of their welfare states and the gendering of employment opportunities As one result the authors find women are increasingly migrating from the global south to become care workers in the global north This volume focuses on changing patterns of family and gender relations migration and care work in the countries surrounding the Pacific Rim a global epicenter of transnational care migration Using a multi scalar approach that addresses micro meso and macro levels chapters examine three domains care provisioning the supply of and demand for care work and the shaping and framing of care The analysis reveals that multiple forms of global inequalities are now playing out in the most intimate of spaces

Europeanization, Care and Gender

The African Diaspora in Canada

Wisdom Tettey,Korbla P. Puplampu,2005 This book addresses the conceptual difficulties and political contestations surrounding the applicability of the term African Canadian In the midst of this contested terrain the volume focuses on first generation Black Continental Africans who have immigrated to Canada in the last four decades and have traceable genealogical links to the continent

Human Rights and Migrant Domestic Work

Maria Deanna P. Santos,2005-09-01 On a general level this research project concerns ways in which the domestic and international laws relating to the situation of migrant domestic workers MDWs are shaped by broader socio political and economic factors More specifically this dissertation examines the human rights situation of Filipina MDWs who participate in Canada s Live in Caregiver Program LCP It attempts to meet these objectives in part by undertaking a limited comparison of the situation of these Filipina MDWs and the Filipina MDWs in Hong Kong The comparison is meant to further test and validate the arguments and proposals presented in this dissertation regarding the socio legal status of Filipina MDWs under Canada's LCP. This is done through an analysis of existing data on Filipina MDWs and a consideration of the ways in which the relevant laws and policies in these two jurisdictions affect, create and/or perpetrate the status quo in this area of social life. The main explanatory theoretical framework that is deployed is the Third World Approaches to International Law (TWAIL) theory.

Gendering Struggles Against Informal and Precarious Work Rina Agarwala, Jennifer Jihye Chun, 2018-12-10. This volume examines how gender shapes the varying and intersecting dynamics of informal precarious worker struggles in two gender-typed sectors: domestic work and construction. Drawing upon cases across the global North and South, it explores how gender is intertwined into collective organizing efforts, why gender is addressed, and to what end.

Working Feminism Geraldine Pratt, 2019-08-07. Working Feminism looks at key concepts and debates within feminist theory and puts them to work concretely in relation to the real problems faced by Filipina domestic workers and Asian youth in Canada. It draws to the fore the metaphorical and concrete geographies that lie implicit and underdeveloped within much feminist theory and suggests that a geographical imagination offers a means of reframing debates beyond polarised theoretical and political positions. Alternating between theoretical and empirical chapters, substantial and wide-ranging discussions of human rights, multiculturalism, transnationalism, and feminist politics are brought to earth and, by putting them into the context of individual predicaments to life. The empirical chapters build from a decade-long collaboration with an activist group, the Philippine Women Centre in Vancouver, Canada. They demonstrate the fruits of a close and innovative engagement between poststructuralist feminist theory and participatory action research. The book demonstrates the immediate practicality of abstract debate and works away at divisions between culturalist and materialist theoretical and practical feminisms.

Migration in Performance Caleb Johnston, Geraldine Pratt, 2019-02-08. This book follows the travels of Nanay, a testimonial theatre play developed from research with migrant domestic workers in Canada as it was recreated and restaged in different places around the globe. This work examines how Canadian migration policy is embedded across and within histories of colonialism in the Philippines and settler colonialism in Canada. Translations between scholarship and performance, and between Canada and the Philippines, became more uneasy as the play travelled internationally, raising pressing questions of how decolonial collaborations might take shape in practice. This book examines the strengths and limits of existing framings of Filipina migration and offers rich ideas of how care for children and elderly and each other might be rethought in radically new ways within less violently unequal relations that span different colonial histories and complex triangulations of racialised migrants, settlers, and Indigenous peoples. This book is a journey towards a new way of doing and performing research and theory. It is part of a growing interdisciplinary exchange between the performing arts and social sciences and will appeal to researchers and students within human geography and performance studies and those working on migration, colonialisms, documentary theatre, and social reproduction.

Negotiating Power and Privilege

Philomina Ezeagbor Okeke-Ihejirika,2004 Annotation Philomina Okeke Ihejirika recorded life history interviews and discussions during the 1990s with educated women of differing ages and professions Her interviews bring up both familiar and surprising aspects of the women s experiences their victories and compromises within their families marriages and workplaces Cahiers de la Femme ,2003 Global Feminism Myra Marx Ferree,Aili Mari Tripp,2006-07-01 Explores the social and political developments that have energized movements of global feminism Increasingly feminists around the world have successfully campaigned for recognition of women s full personhood and empowerment Global Feminism explores the social and political developments that have energized this movement Drawn from an international group of scholars and activists the authors of these original essays assess both the opportunities that transnationalism has created and the tensions it has inadvertently fostered By focusing on both the local and global struggles of today s feminist activists this important volume reveals much about women s changing rights treatment and impact in the global world Contributors Melinda Adams Aida Bagic Yakin Ert rk Myra Marx Ferree Amy G Mazur Dorothy E McBride Hilkka Pietil Tetyana Pudrovska Margaret Snyder Sarah Swider Aili Mari Tripp Nira Yuval Davis Contested Voices M. Githens,2013-05-09 A comprehensive and stimulating examination of how the migration of women affects attitudes in receiving countries among the women themselves and how changing women s attitudes shapes their relations with men and between generations within ethnic groups

Three Plays of Maureen Hunter Hunter, Maureen,2003 Book is clean and tight No writing in text Like New Ibss: Political Science: 1998 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science,2000-02 Renowned for its international coverage and rigorous selection procedures this series provides the most comprehensive and scholarly bibliographic service available in the social sciences Arranged by topic and indexed by author subject and place name each bibliography lists and annotates the most important works published in its field during the year of 1997 including hard to locate journal articles Each volume also includes a complete list of the periodicals consulted Doing the Dirty Work? Bridget Anderson,2000-02 There has been a tendency amongst feminists to see domestic work as the great leveller a common burden imposed on all women equally by patriarchy This unique study of migrant domestic workers in the North uncovers some uncomfortable facts about the race and class aspects of domestic oppression Based on original research it looks at the racialisation of paid domestic labour in the North a phenomenon which challenges feminsim and political theory at a fundamental level The book opens with an exploration of the public private divide and an overview of the debates on women and power The author goes on to provide a map of employment patterns of migrant women in domestic work in the North she describes the work they perform their living and working conditions and their employment relations A chapter on the US explores the connections between slavery and contemporary domestic service while a section on commodification examines the extent to which migrant domestic workers are not selling their labour but their whole personhood The book also looks at the role of the Other in managing dirt death and pollution and the effects of the feminisation of the labour market as middle class white women have greater presence in the public sphere they are more likely to push responsibility for domestic work onto other women In its depiction of the treatment of women from the South by women in the North the book asks some difficult questions about the common bond of womanhood Packed with information on the numbers of migrant women working as domestics the racism immigration or employment legislation that constrains their lives and testimonies from the workers themselves this is the most comprehensive study of migrant domestic workers available

The Top Books of the Year Race Class Women And The State The Case Of Domestic Labour The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Race Class Women And The State The Case Of Domestic Labour : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
