Understanding Curriculum as Racial Text Louis Anthony Castenell, William Pinar, 1993-01-01 This book examines issues of identity and difference both theoretically and as represented in curriculum materials Here debates over the cultural character of the curriculum are characterized as debates over the American national identity The editors argue that historically cultural conservatives have failed to appreciate that the United States is in a fundamental and central way an African and African American place European Americans are in a cultural sense also black and the failure to teach sequestered suburban usually Caucasian students about their cultural African and African American heritage perpetuates their delusion regarding their deeper identities A curriculum which reflects the non synchronous identity of Americans is sketched in the last section Such a curriculum involves not only the inclusion of African and African American content but interracial intellectual marriage as well Contributors to this book include Peter Taubman Susan Edgerton Beverly Gordon Alma Young Wendy Luttrell Cameron McCarthy Patricia Collins Roger Collins Brenda Hatfield Marianne H Whatley and Joe L Kincheloe Race, Ethnicity, and Education: Racial identity in education Valerie Ooka Pang,2006 Race and Early Childhood Education K. Johnston-Guerrero,Lisa Delacruz Combs,Victoria K.
