Pettigrew, 1980-03 These readings chronicle the triumphs and failures of race relations in our nation unfolding the tensions and struggles of racial conflict through the analyses of sociologists writing since the late nineteenth century The forty five articles gathered here are drawn from four of the most respected journals in the field American Journal of Sociology American Sociological Review Social Forces and Social Problems Together they document the problem of the color line providing for various eras the contemporary rationale for the status quo as well as farsighted calls for change Thus the readings reveal how sociological thought reflected racial tensions in this century while simultaneously serving as a force for reform The Sociology of Race Relations covers seven historical periods each introduced by an incisive discussion of the racial milieu of the time It begins with the era of Jim Crow laws and the great black migration from the South and proceeds to the reappearance of the Ku Klux Klan in the 20s the Depression years the Japanese American internment during the Second World War the deceptively quiet 50s that culminated in the civil rights movement of the 60s It concludes with a look at desegregation in the 70s the aftermath of the policies of the preceding decade Although the majority of selections deal with the problems of black Americans articles on Mexican Americans and Japanese Americans as well as on prejudice in general broaden the scope of the book The editor's introduction places the entire volume in historical and sociological context A time capsule for viewing race relations and the development of sociological understanding of race relations The Sociology of Race Relations illustrates two of the discipline's major contributions to American life its ability to heighten our sensitivity to unnoticed relationships and to debunk simplistic beliefs      Race Ivan Hannaford, 1996 But he also finds the first traces of modern ideas of race and the protoscences of late medieval cabalism and hermeticism Following that trail forward he describes the establishment of modern scientific and philosophical notions of race in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and shows how those notions became popular and pervasive even among those who claim to be nonracist      Race and Racism Peter Jackson,2003-09-02 First Published in 1987 In September 1985 the Social Geography Study Group of the Institute of British Geographers held a three day conference at Coventry Lanchester Polytechnic on the subject of Race and Racism The present volume is a selection of essays derived from some of the papers that were given at the conference together with one newly commissioned paper by Susan Smith and an introductory essay      Race, Racism and Psychology Graham Richards,2012-03-15 This book offers a comprehensive overview of the ways in which Psychology has engaged with race and racism issues since the late 19th century It emphasizes the complexities and convolutions of the story and attempts to elucidate the subtleties and occasional paradoxes that have arisen as a result This new edition updates the research contained in the first edition and includes brand new chapters These additional chapters draw attention to the importance of the South African Black Consciousness movement and Post colonial Psychology explore recent additional historical research on the fears of hybridisation contain new material on French colonial psychiatry and discuss the awkward status of virtually all the language and terms currently used for discussion of the topic This important and controversial book has proved to be a vital text both as a point of departure for more in depth inquiries and also as an essential reference tool The additional up to date material included in this new edition makes the book an even more valuable resource to those working in and studying psychology and also for anyone concerned with the race issue either professionally or personally      Race and Ethnicity: The Basics Peter Kivisto,Paul R. universalism The debate has raged for decades but up to now the actual racial views of historical atheists and freethinkers have never been subjected to a systematic analysis Race in a Godless World sets out to correct the oversight It centres on Britain and the United States in the second half of the nineteenth century a time when popular atheist movements were emerging and scepticism about the truth of Christianity was becoming widespread Covering racial and evolutionary science imperialism slavery and racial prejudice in theory and practice it provides a much needed account of the complex and sometimes contradictory ideas espoused by the transatlantic community of atheists and freethinkers It also reflects on the social dimension of irreligiousness exploring how working class atheists experiences of exclusion could make them sympathetic to other marginalised groups

Hubert Harrison Brian Kwoba, 2025-05-30 The significance of Hubert Henry Harrison 1883 1927 as a journalist activist and educator lies in his innovation of radical solutions to radical injustices He witnessed staggering luxury for the few alongside crushing poverty for the many White mob violence continually haunted Black communities while imperial conquest and world wars wrought wanton destruction upon entire nations of people These conditions sparked a global political awakening to which Harrison gave voice as a leading figure in cutting edge struggles for socialism internationalism free love freethinking and free speech He did far more than cultivate the rich dark soil in which the so called Harlem Renaissance would take root Harrison also played a pivotal role in the rise of Marcus Garvey and the emergence of the largest international organization of African people in modern history Because of his fearless radicalism however he has been erased from popular memory Hubert Harrison presents a historical restoration of Harrison s numerous intellectual and political breakthroughs Offering a fresh interpretation of his contributions to social movements for economic racial and sexual liberation Brian Kwoba s richly textured narrative highlights the startling and continued relevance of Harrison s visionary thinking across generations

The Mind of Frederick Douglass Waldo E. Martin Jr., 2000-11-09 Frederick Douglass was unquestionably the foremost black American of the nineteenth century The extraordinary life of this former slave turned abolitionist orator newspaper editor social reformer race leader and Republican party advocate has inspired many biographies over the years This however is the first full scale study of the origins contours development and significance of Douglass s thought Brilliant and to a large degree self taught Douglass personified intellectual activism he possessed a sincere concern for the uses and consequences of ideas Both his people s struggle for liberation and his individual experiences which he envisioned as symbolizing that struggle provided the basis and structure for his intellectual maturation As a representative American he internalized and thus reflected major currents in the contemporary American mind As a representative Afro American he revealed in his thinking the deep seated influence of race on Euro American Afro American or broadly conceived American consciousness He sought to resolve in his thinking the dynamic tension between his identities as a black and as an American Martin assesses not only how Douglass dealt with this enduring conflict but also the extent of his success An inveterate belief in a universal and egalitarian humanism unified Douglass s thought This grand organizing principle reflected his intellectual roots in the three major traditions of mid nineteenth century American thought Protestant Christianity the Enlightenment and romanticism Together these influences buttressed his characteristic optimism Although nineteenth century Afro American intellectual history derived its central premises and outlook from concurrent American intellectual history it offered a searching critique of the latter and its ramifications How to square America s rhetoric of freedom equality and justice with the reality of slavery and racial prejudice was the difficulty that confronted such Afro American thinkers as Douglass     The Christian Work and the Evangelist ,1907     Race, Radicalism, and Reform Ian Robertson,Abram L.
