Racism And Equal Opportunity Policies In The 1980s:

Racism and Equal Opportunity Policies in the 1980s Richard Jenkins, John Solomos, 1989 This edition first published in 1989 looks at the problems of racism and equal opportunity in employment and government policies towards them in Britain It brings together a group of specialist contributors and covers the major areas of debate including the law policies towards unemployment job training and the labour market the role of the public and private sectors the role of trade unions the gap between policies and pronouncements on equal opportunity and their implementation and the related issue of sectarian discrimination in Northern Ireland It looks at the future prospects for equal opportunities and provides conclusions for policy In particular it aims to address important topics such as the assumptions underlying policies and whether they realistically reflect reality the actual effect of legislation and the relationship between power disparities in society as a whole and racial inequality

Ethnicity, Exclusion and the Workplace J. Carter, 2003-06-02 This text explores the impact of race and racism in different occupational spheres within the labour market It re examines a number of central assumptions about segregation within the labour market and applies the concept of social closure to the analysis of the position of ethnic minority workers within the labour market Key themes in the book include the effectiveness of equal opportunity and affirmative action policies and the extent to which employment practice has been significantly altered Empirical material from two case studies is included in order to illustrate the central themes The book also examines the impact of the public redefinition of institutional racism which played a central part in the Stephen Lawrence inquiry

Encyclopedia of Race and Ethnic Studies Ellis Cashmore, 2004-03-01 Developed from the critically acclaimed and commercially successful Dictionary of Race and Ethnic Relations now in its fourth edition Encyclopedia of Race and Ethnic Studies has been assembled by a world class team of international scholars led by Ellis Cashmore to provide an authoritative single volume reference work on all aspects of race and ethnic studies From Aboriginal Australians to xenophobia Nelson Mandela to Richard Wagner sexuality to racial profiling the Encyclopedia is organized alphabetically and reflects cultural diversity in a global context The entries range from succinct 400 word definitions to in depth 2000 word essays to provide comprehensive coverage of all the key terms concepts and debates important figures both historical and contemporary landmark cases historical events Although unafraid to engage with cutting edge theory the Encyclopedia is uncluttered by jargon and has been written in a lucid facts fronted style to offer an accessible introduction to race and ethnic studies The Encyclopedia is also fully cross referenced and thoroughly indexed with most entries followed by annotated up to date suggestions for further reading to guide the user to the key sources It is destined to become an essential resource for scholars and students of race and ethnic studies as well as a handy reference for journalists and others working in the field

Understanding Equal Opportunity Policies Kenneth Blakemore, Robert F. Drake, 1996 As debates about the wisdom or otherwise of equal opportunity policies continue to rage this book offers a comprehensive overview of the subject and a guide to the maze of equality policies in Britain and elsewhere      White Backlash and the Politics of Multiculturalism Roger Hewitt, 2005-06-23

The murder of Stephen Lawrence led to the widest review of institutional racism seen in the UK Sections of the white working class communities in south London near to the scene of the murder however displayed deep hostility to the equalities and multiculturalist practice of the local state and other agencies Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book relates these phenomena to the backlash to multiculturalism evident during the 1990s in the USA Australia Canada the UK and other European countries It examines these within the unfolding social and political responses to race equalities in the UK and the USA from the 1960s to the present in the context of changes in social class and national political agendas This book is unique in linking a detailed study of a community at a time of its critical importance to national debates over racism and multiculturalism to historically wider international economic and social trends      Education, Equality and Human Rights Mike Cole, 2006-08-21 With a new Preface by leading educationist Peter McLaren the updated second edition of this comprehensive book provides an important educational perspective on world wide equality issues for student teachers and teachers at all stages Each of the five equality issues of gender race sexuality disability and social class are covered as areas in their own right and in relation to education Written by experts in each particular field the chapters trace the history of the various issues up to the present and enable readers to assess their continuing relevance in the future      Education, Equality and Human Rights Mike Cole, 2002-11 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company      Meeting the Needs of Ethnic Minority Children Kedar Nath Dwivedi, 2002 Offering practical guidelines based on research and practice this book focuses on some of the most topical issues among those working with children from ethnic minorities Experts from a variety of disciplines look at the various aspects of such work      Diversity Management and Discrimination John Wrench, 2016-05-23 What can diversity management offer those concerned with ethnic inequality racial discrimination and issues of social and economic inclusion and exclusion In this book John Wrench traces the emergence of diversity management in the US in the late 1980s and explores its subsequent development in Europe He outlines the various critiques of diversity management that have been suggested both by academics and equality activists and highlights recent issues and trends that should be monitored by those concerned with racial and ethnic equality in employment In particular Wrench examines whether diversity management can be seen as a soft option in terms of combating racism and discrimination or instead a new way of mainstreaming anti discrimination measures He also addresses the important question of whether the development of diversity management in Europe will follow a relatively uniform trajectory because of common demographic economic and market pressures or whether the historical cultural and institutional differences which exist between EU countries and between the EU and the US will have a determining impact on the adoption content and operation of this particular management practice      Trade Unions, Immigration, and Immigrants in Europe, 1960-1993 Rinus Penninx, Judith Roosblad, 2000 Contains nine essays which discuss 1 resistance and cooperation regarding the employment of foreign workers 2 inclusion and exclusion of foreign workers within trade unions and 3 the adoption of equal treatment or special measures for foreign workers

Negative Images: A Simple Matter of Black and White?

Bruce M. Kirk, 2017-07-05 That black young people have been subject to unequal treatment in the youth justice system has been the belief of some individuals and groups reinforced at best by anecdotal evidence Negative Images A Simple Matter of Black and White provides not only evidential weight to uphold this view but also provides some insights into the processes by which it comes about Findings of a case study detailed in the book demonstrate how in one youth court black youths were over represented amongst those receiving high tariff sentencing and that this over representation could not be explained by seriousness or persistence of offending Whilst responsibility for differential sentencing has often been laid at the door of Magistrates this study reveals how social work court report practice may be contributing to the situation

Local Government and Thatcherism Hugh Butcher, Ian G. Law, Robert Leach, Maurice Mullard, 2024-12-02 The 1980s witnessed an unprecedented series of initiatives aimed at transforming the role and manner of local government operations in Britain First published in 1990 Local Government and Thatcherism provides a clear and up to date framework for understanding the impact of Thatcherism on local government during this period and explores future prospects The authors examine the effect of the Thatcher Revolution on the policy and practice of local government looking at the role of ideology in key policy areas such as finance public services local economic development race and decentralization Beginning with an analysis of the evolution of local government the authors situate Thatcherism in the context of Municipal Toryism and discuss changes in local finance including the introduction of the community charge They focus on changes in public policy particularly innovations like grant maintained schools and Housing Action Trusts and look in detail at economic regeneration and equal opportunities two areas in local policy development which are increasingly under threat from centralizing tendencies The authors conclude that the revolution in local government is aimed at nothing less than recasting the local socio political order and political process Coming to terms with these challenges they believe will change the face of local government in 1990s the contract authority the enterprising authority and the business corporatist authority Lucid and stimulating this discussion will be invaluable to students of British politics and public and social administration and to all those who wish to know more about the future of local government

Making Cultures of Solidarity Diarmaid Kelliher, 2021-05-10 This book combines radical history critical geography and political theory in an innovative history of the solidarity campaign in London during the 1984 5 miners strike Thousands of people collected food and money joined picket lines and demonstrations organised meetings travelled to mining areas and hosted coalfield activists in their homes during the strike The support campaign encompassed longstanding elements of the British labour movement as well as autonomously organised Black lesbian and gay and feminist support groups This book shows how the solidarity of 1984 5 was rooted in the development of mutual relationships of support between the coalfields and the capital since the late 1960s It argues that a culture of solidarity was developed through industrial and political struggles that brought together diverse activists from mining communities and London. The book also takes the story forward exploring the aftermath of the miners strike and the complex legacies of the support movement up to the present day. This rich history provides a compelling example of how solidarity can cross geographical and social boundaries. This book is essential reading for students, scholars and activists with an interest in left wing politics and history. Research Handbook on Migration and Employment Guglielmo Meardi, 2024-07-05. This insightful Research Handbook presents a comprehensive overview of the core issues concerning the integration of migration and employment studies, highlighting the interdisciplinary and global perspectives required to understand the complexity of labour migration. Race, Ethnicity and Difference: Imagining the Inclusive Society Peter Ratcliffe, 2004-06-16. This excellent book provides an extremely readable account which deserves to be widely read by a more general audience. In short, the author, in making sense of current imaginings, presents a mix of theoretical and empirical debates as he challenges exclusionary forces. The book's principal aim is to take a critical look at the nature and sources of inequalities in contemporary societies and examine the prospects for an inclusive society. This aim captures an important strength of the text as the analysis attempts to move beyond simple description and provide explanations and possible solutions to enable policy and practice to tackle disadvantage and discrimination. Social Policy. This book addresses many of the key problems facing contemporary societies. The social significance attached to various forms of difference, most notably race and ethnicity, has been seen as resulting in the exclusion of some groups from their full rights as citizens. This in turn is viewed as presenting a series of barriers to the creation of more inclusive societies. Peter Ratcliffe explores these arguments in a variety of substantive contexts, for example immigration and the treatment of refugees and asylum seekers, housing and segregation, education, labour markets and policing and urban conflict. Particular emphasis is placed on the role of social agency on the part of minorities in confronting exclusionary forces. This lively and highly readable account deals with difficult theoretical, ethical and policy issues without resort to unnecessary jargon. It is essential reading for undergraduate students in sociology, social policy, urban geography, law and political science and is also of value to the general reader and researcher. Housing, Race and Law Martin MacEwen, 2002-09-11. Equality of opportunity in housing is a key issue in social justice in Britain today. To the extent that it patterns an individual's educational, social and economic development, housing constitutes a crucial battleground in the fight against racial discrimination. Housing, Race and Law is the first publication to examine the law in relation to issues of housing and race in both the private and public sector. It places these issues in the broader context of the development of anti-discrimination legislation, outlines the current legislation and examines its impact in relation to owner occupation, public housing, housing association tenancies and private lets. Throughout the book emphasizes the practical impact of the various legislative provisions and discusses the responses of the principal institutions from government departments and relevant professions to the Commission for Racial Equality and the Community Relations Councils or Racial

Equality Councils It argues a case for a new approach to appraisal review and enforcement By collating material from a wide variety of sources the author provides an original assessment of the Race Relations Act of 1976 and its impact on housing which in its provision of cogent material and arguments for reforms is designed to be of value to practitioners academics and those concerned with racial discrimination

Constructing Educational Inequality Peter Foster, Roger Gomm, Martyn Hammersley, 2005-06-21 The issue of educational opportunity has long been of public concern and a major focus for educational research As a result there is now a substantial body of research findings in this field both quantitative and qualitative This work relates to various levels of the educational system and to different categories of student but particularly social class gender ethnicity and race The central trend has been to find persisting inequalities despite reform at system institutional and classroom levels Furthermore the educational system is frequently portrayed as playing a key role in reproducing wider social and economic inequalities This book examines the status of educational inequality as a social problem explores the conceptual issues surrounding it assesses a representative sample of recent research and seeks to clarify the relevant methodological ground rules thereby laying the basis for future research in the field

Race and Local Politics Wendy Ball, John Solomos, 1990-10-12 Aims to provide a detailed overview of policy conflict and change in the area of race relations and local politics during the 1980s and reviews some of the prospects for the 1990s It assesses the objectives development and impact of race related policies developed by local authorities

Language and Discrimination Celia Roberts, 2014-09-25 Language and Discrimination provides a unique and authoritative study of the linguistic dimension of racial discrimination Based upon extensive work carried out over many years by the Industrial Language Training Service in the U K this illuminating analysis argues that a real understanding of how language functions as a means of indirect racial discrimination must be founded on an expanded view of language which recognises the inseparability of language culture and meaning After initially introducing the subject matter of the book and providing an overview of discrimination and language learning the authors examine the relationship between theory and practice in four main areas theories of interaction and their application ethnographic and linguistic analysis of workplace settings training in communication for white professionals and language training for adult bilingual workers and job seekers Detailed case studies illustrate how theory can be turned into practice if appropriate information research development and training and co ordinated in an integrated response to issues of multi ethnic communication discrimination and social justice

Feminist mental health activism in England, c. 1968-95 Kate Mahoney, 2023-12-12 Feminist mental health activism in England c 1968 1995 provides the first in depth examination of feminist mental health activism in England employing original oral history interviews alongside detailed case studies of unexplored feminist initiatives It charts how feminist activists in the late 1960s initially rejected psychological approaches before employing a range of therapies to understand themselves and support one another This book charts the emergence of feminist mental health groups in the early 1970s the development of feminist therapy across the 1980s and the influence of feminist politics on national charity Mind in the 1990s It examines what participation in feminist activism felt like demonstrating how these emotions have influenced the construction of its history The book simultaneously forges a new direction in the history of mental healthcare in postwar England establishing how feminists grassroots support for women redefined community care
