Narratives of the European Border R. Robinson, 2007-10-23 Richard Robinson examines the representation of shifting European borders in twentieth century narrative drawing together an unusual grouping of texts from different national canons and comparing the various ways that fictional settings transmute European placelessness into narrative In Search of the Black Fantastic Richard Iton, 2010 Prior to the 1960s when African Americans had little access to formal political power black popular culture was commonly seen as a means of forging community and effecting political change But as Richard Iton shows despite the changes politics black artists have continued to play a significant role in the making of critical social spaces

The Writing of Anxiety L. Stonebridge, 2007-07-12 This study suggests that it was the representation of anxiety rather than trauma and memory that emerged most forcefully in mid century wartime culture Thinking about anxiety Lyndsey Stonebridge argues was a way of imagining how it might be possible to stay within a history that frequently undermined a sense of self and agency Queer Times, Black Futures Kara Keeling, 2019-04-16 Finalist 2019 Lambda Literary Award in LGBTQ Studies A profound intellectual engagement with Afrofuturism and the philosophical questions of space and time Queer Times, Black Futures considers the promises and pitfalls of imagination technology futurity and liberation as they have persisted in and through racial capitalism Kara Keeling explores how the speculative fictions of cinema music and literature that center Black existence provide scenarios wherein we might imagine alternative worlds queer and otherwise In doing so Keeling offers a sustained meditation on contemporary investments in futurity speculation and technology paying particular attention to their significance to queer and Black freedom Keeling reads selected works such as Sun Ra's 1972 film Space is the Place and the 2005 film The Aggressives to juxtapose the Afrofuturist tradition of speculative imagination with the similar speculations of corporate and financial institutions In connecting a queer cinematic reordering of time with the new possibilities technology offers Keeling thinks with and through a vibrant conception of the imagination as a gateway to queer times and Black futures and the previously unimagined spaces that they can conjure

Freud's Memory R. White, 2008-07-24 Rob White reconsiders Freud's controversial theory of inherited memory referring it both to Anglo American commentary and post structuralist work on psychoanalysis White proposes that this theory is evidence of an underlying haunted retrospection in Freudian theorizing which time and again discovers that meaning has been lost

Purcell, 2013-10-31 While the arms race of the post war period has been widely discussed Purcell explores the under acknowledged but critical role another kind of race that is race as a biological and sociological concept played within the global and cultural Cold War Before Modernism Was G. Gilbert, 2004-09-08 Before Modernism Was places modernist writing within the texture of modern history Texts by Woolf James Freud Wyndham Lewis Stein Malinowski and others are read through a range of figures that construct and disrupt modern meaning the ghost that affects the value of your property the sulky graceless adolescent the Pole who may not be Polish the nervous owner of the dog the addict and her smoke Eccentric to its institutions these figures are central to the constituency of modernism The Long Life Helen Small, 2010-09-16 The Long Life invites the reader to range widely from the writings of Plato through to recent philosophical work by Derek Parfit Bernard Williams and others and from Shakespeare's King Lear through works by Thomas Mann Balzac Dickens Beckett Stevie Smith Philip Larkin to more recent writing by Saul Bellow Philip Roth and J M Coetzee Helen Small argues that if we want to understand old age we have to think more fundamentally about what it means to be a person to have a life to have or lead a good life to be part of a just society What did Plato mean when he suggested that old age was the best place from which to practice philosophy or Thomas Mann when he defined old age as the best time to be a writer and were they right If we think as Aristotle did that a good life requires the active pursuit of virtue how will our view of later life be affected If we think that lives and persons are unified much as stories are said to be unified how will our thinking about old age differ from that of someone who thinks that lives and or persons can be strongly discontinuous In a just society what constitutes a fair distribution of limited resources between the young and the old How if at all should recent developments in the theory of evolutionary senescence alter our thinking about what it means to grow old This is a groundbreaking book deep as well as broad and likely to alter the way in which we talk about one of the great social concerns of our time the growing numbers of those living to be old and the growing proportion of the old to the young Fictions of the City Matthew Taunton, 2009-09-29 Many studies of fictions of city life take the fl neur as the characteristic metropolitan type and streets and plazas as definitive urban spaces Looking at novels and films set in London and Paris from L Assommoir to Nil By Mouth this book shows that mass housing is equally central to images of the modern city Strange Affinities Grace Kyungwon Hong, Roderick A. Ferguson, 2011-08-24 Collection of essays that use queer studies and feminism as a lens for examining the relationships between racialized communities White Rebels in Black Priscilla Dionne Layne, 2018-03-13 Analyzing literary texts and films White Rebels in Black shows how German authors have since the 1950s appropriated black popular culture particularly music to distance themselves from the legacy of Nazi Germany authoritarianism and racism and how such appropriation changes over time Priscilla Layne offers a critique of how blackness came to symbolize a positive escape from the hegemonic masculinity of postwar Germany and how black identities have been represented as separate from and in opposition to German identity foreclosing the possibility of being both black and German Citing four autobiographies published by black German authors Hans J rgen Massaquo Theodor Michael G nter Kaufmann and Charly Graf Layne considers how black German men have related to hegemonic masculinity since Nazi Germany and concludes with a discussion on the work of black German poet Philipp Khabo K psell Black Film British Cinema II Clive Nwonka, Anamik Saha, 2021-03-02 The politics of race in British screen culture over the last 30 years vis a vis the institutional textual cultural and political shifts that have occurred during this period Black Film British Cinema II considers the politics of blackness in contemporary British cinema and visual practice This second iteration of Black Film British Cinema marking over 30 years since the ground breaking ICA Documents 7 publication in 1988 continues this investigation by offering a crucial contemporary consideration of the textual institutional cultural and political shifts that have occurred from this period It focuses on the practices values and networks of collaborations that have shaped the development of black film culture and representation But what is black British film How do such films however defined produce meaning through visual culture and what are the political social and aesthetic motivations and effects How are the new forms of black British film facilitating new modes of representation authorship and exhibition Explored in the context of film aesthetics curatorship exhibition and arts practice and the politics of diversity policy Black Film British Cinema II provides the platform for new scholars thinkers and practitioners to coalesce on these central questions It is explicitly interdisciplinary operating at the intersections of film studies media and communications sociology politics and cultural studies Through a diverse range of perspectives and
