Soumyabrata Mondal* Saheli Kumar** and Anand Prasad Mishra*****

Abstract : Regional disparity is the outcome of imbalanced regional development that varies from region to region depending on socio-cultural, economic, demographic and infrastructural characteristics. The problem of regional disparities is found not only in India rather it is a global problem. Research on regional disparity is essential for addressing the lacuna in the planning process of development. The present study examines the inter block regional disparities in the level of rural development on the basis of 35 developmental indicators in Hugli District of West Bengal. The study is based on secondary data obtained from District Census Handbook (2011), District Statistical Handbook (2014), District Human Development Report (2011) etc. In order to delineate inter block developmental disparities various statistical methods- Dimension index (Di), Kendall's ranking co-efficient method, Composite Index (Ci), Standard Score (Z score) etc. have been used. Besides to assess the interrelationship among the selected variables with each other Correlation Matrix has been applied. The study reveals that wide disparities in the level of socio-economic, agricultural and infrastructural development exist among different blocks.

Key Words: Regional Disparity, Regional Development, Dimension Index, Correlation Matrix, Hooghly District.

Introduction

Disparity refers to a condition of asymmetry or being unequal or dissimilar within and among the regions. Regional disparity is a worldwide phenomenon. Disparity is divergence or inequality of characters, phenomena or processes, the identification and comparison of which make some rational sense, that is, cognitive, psychological, social, economic, political, etc. (Kutscherauer et al., 2010). The concern of regional disparities is not only related to developing countries like India, but it was also been experienced by the developed countries of the world in their initial stages of economic growth. Hansen (1981), thus found growth not appearing everywhere and all at once; it appears in

"SOCIO-ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY : THE INDIAN PERSPECTIVE"

Dr. Ranjan Sarkar, Gopal Das, 2020-06-29 The book The Socio Economic Development and Environmental Sustainability The Indian Perspective presents a multi dimensional facet of Socio Economic Development and Environmental Sustainability in India The book consists of three parts under which a total number of 25 research articles are there The unscientific exploitation of natural resource and rapid urbanization results into the unwanted overshoot which ultimately making our earth vulnerable to natural disasters and calamities The book has also explored the demographic trends and urbanization in Indian Context It has also emphasized on the various dimensions of socio economic development and its regional disparity in a planned way The present volume is associated with such problems and accounted for the suitable measures to unlock a new direction towards balanced Economic growth and Environmental Sustainability Geography In India: Selected Themes L.

S. Bhat, 2009-09 District Development Planning Tarsem Lal, 1986 Growth, Disparities and Inclusive Development in India Rajendra P. Mamgain, 2019-04-11 The book critically examines the high growth trajectory in India particularly since the late 1980s a period which is characterized by increasing inequality Through various studies from the Indian state of Uttar Pradesh a state more populous than Brazil and with a GDP comparable to Bangladesh it sheds light on the link between growth and inequality in emerging economies The slow pace of any upward movement in terms of various development indicators in low income Indian states is due to a number of factors including their historical disadvantages Over a period of time this has resulted in widening disparities both between different regions of these states and between these states and other more prosperous Indian states The book provides a holistic yet critical region wise analysis of the achievements of Uttar Pradesh compared to other states and to India as a whole in the context of indicators of inclusive development namely growth employment poverty infrastructure agriculture industry education and health Based on the latest data and sophisticated analysis methods it assesses inequality and development disparities clearly identifying three major challenges that poorer states face in redressing poverty and expanding inclusive growth increasing economic opportunities empowering poor and marginalised groups to avail new opportunities in a rapidly changing world and ensuring an effective safety net to reduce vulnerability The book suggests strategies for promoting high and sustained economic growth and highlights the significance of broadening social inclusiveness through greater and more rapid access to economic and social opportunities and building strong social safety nets to protect the chronically poor and mitigate their risks and vulnerabilities with the help of good governance and institutions With contributions from leading scholars from the region it is a valuable resource for researchers working in the area of growth and inequality as well as for policy makers from developing economies around the globe PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT IN INDIA A Critique , Growth Pole Strategy and Regional Development Policy Fu-Chen Lo, Kamal Salih, 2013-10-22 Growth Pole Strategy and Regional Development Policy Asian Experience and Alternative Approaches focuses on theoretical and practical issues in regional policy including analytical and strategic approaches to regional development and underdevelopment problems The selection first offers information on Asian case studies in decentralization policy and the growth pole approach including trends in development planning in Japan and the case study of the Mizushima industrial complex Topics include the period of post war reconstruction plan formulation and implementation of Mizushima industrial complex development and interregional dispersion of development of national economy The text also examines the case study of the Ulsan industrial complex in Korea The book looks at decentralization policy growth pole approach and resource frontier development as well as regional structure and uneven economic development in Southeast Asia policy responses toward regional development in Southeast Asia and growth pole approach in Southeast Asia The text also focuses on growth strategies and human settlement in developing countries and growth poles and regional policy in open dualistic economies The selection is a vital reference for readers interested in the theoretical and practical approaches in regional development policy

Economic Development and Planning in India Vishwambhar Nath, 2010-01-01 The book is a collection of essays written by Dr Vishwambhar Nath who had retained his interest in Economic Development and Planning in India throughout his life He was associated with the Planning Commission since its inception in 1950 He worked for the Planning Commission for 14 years from 1950-66 with a break from 1960-63 and in research and writing until 2002 when he died suddenly The chapters contained in the volume discuss the essential ingredients in planning for development objectives ideology goals and resource endowments available and their utilization to maximize the rate of economic growth and development of social sectors It gives a survey of natural resources need for regional planning identification of the regions regional disparities in economic and social development etc It further details the experience of the country during 50 years of planning from 1950-2000 and goals and strategies for development up to 2020 Although several of his writings on Regional Development and Planning Planning for Urban Growth and Metropolitan Cities and Rural Development as well as Administration and Development Planning have been being brought out in volumes dealing with these areas this volume touches on these subjects and goes on to discuss regional distribution of industries and entrepreneurship growth poles in the economy issues of sustainable development and contribution of bureaucrats entrepreneurs and managers in the planned development process as well as that of the public and private sectors Finally the author reminisces on the excitement that was aroused during the initial period of development planning as well as decline in the expectations from the planning process and its importance He conjectures that while the planning for economic development will continue in India the age of Five Year Plans is over
