Regional Development Poles and the Transformation of African Economies

Benaiah Yongo-Bure, 2020-02-17 This book argues that the development of capital goods manufacturing industries in four relatively large African economies will create regional development poles from which industrialization will spread to the smaller African countries In this book Benaiah Yongo Bure explains the need for capital goods industries in Africa and shows how manufacturing can transform economies He outlines the roles of the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC Ethiopia Nigeria and South Africa as potential regional development poles showing how the existing economies natural resources and populations of these countries make them ideal candidates while also considering possible challenges to industrialization Finally the author assesses what major infrastructural development is needed to link the countries and regions to increase the spread effects of economic growth This book will be of interest to scholars and policy makers in economic development and regional development in Africa

Innovation, Regional Integration, and Development in Africa

Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Mammo Muchie, 2018-07-26 This edited volume discusses the role of innovation and regional integration in economic development in Africa Over the past five decades post colonial African countries have struggled to break loose from the trap of poverty and underdevelopment through the adoption of various development strategies at regional national and continental levels However the results of both national and regional efforts at advancing development on the continent have been mixed Although the importance of agglomeration and fusion of institutions have long been recognized as possible path to achieving economic development in Africa the approach to regionalism has been unduly focused on market integration while neglecting other dimensions such as social policy mobility of labor educational policy biotechnology regional legislation manufacturing innovation and science and technology This volume investigates the link between innovation regional integration and development in Africa arguing that the immediate and long term development of Africa lies not just in the structural transformation of its economies but in the advancement of scientific and innovation capacities The book is divided into four parts Part I addresses the theoretical and conceptual underpinnings of innovation and regional integration in Africa Part II presents case studies which examine how regional economic institutions are fostering innovation in Africa Part III of the book deals with sectoral issues on innovation and integrated development in Africa Part IV sets the future research on innovation regional integration and development in Africa Combining theoretical analysis and a comparative interdisciplinary approach this volume is appropriate for researchers and students interested in economic development political economy African studies international relations agricultural science and geography as well as policymakers in regional economic communities and the African Union      Integration in the Southern African Development Community Region Korwa Gombe Adar, Kebapetse Lotshwao, Thekiso Molokwane, Dorothy Mpabanga, Norbert Musekiwa, 2023-01-17 Integration in the Southern African Development Community Region Peoples Agency Popular Participation and Democratization edited by Korwa Gombe Adar Dorothy Mpabanga Kebapetse Lotshwao Thekiso Molokwane and Norbert Musekiwa engages in the debate associated with the people of Southern Africa people of the Region democratization and integration nexus envisaged in the 1980 treaty which established the Southern African Development Community SADC Using political and public administration perspectives the editors argue that for democratization and integration to be tangibly consolidated and institutionalized direct involvement of the people of Southern Africa the peoples agency is paramount and would lead to what is dubbed in this book as sadcnness and sadcnization More specifically democratization and integration are about people citizens the sovereigns and not merely the abstract actors called nation states Using the case studies of Angola Botswana Madagascar Mozambique South Africa and Zimbabwe the contributors have from political and public administration dimensions engaged in this epistemology assessing among other things the peoples of Southern Africa the Southern Africa Development Community integration nexus      Pan Africanism, Regional Integration and Development in Africa Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, 2020-03-10 This edited volume addresses the accomplishments prospects and challenges of regional integration processes on the African continent Since regional integration is a process that ebbs and flows according to a wide range of variables such as changing political and economic conditions implications and factors derived from the vagaries of migration and climate change it is crucial to be cognizant with how these variables impact regional integration initiatives The contributors discuss the debates on Pan Africanism and linking it with ongoing discourses and policies on regional integration in Africa Other aspects of the book contain some of the most important topic issues such as migration border management and the sustainable development goals This content offers readers fresh and innovative perspectives on various aspects of sustainable development and regional growth in Africa      Development Centre Seminars Regional Integration in Africa OECD, Asian Development Bank, 2002-04-25 Regional integration and co ordination are not a panacea but they could hold the key to African countries long awaited participation in the world economy This was one of the conclusions of the second International Forum on African Perspectives      Migration Conundrums, Regional Integration and Development Innocent Moyo, Christopher Changwe Nshimbi, Jussi P. Laine, 2020-07-08 This book examines Africa Europe relationships and intra Africa relationships vis vis migration It analyses the African integration project that is being used to effectively manage migration within Africa and across its RECs and harnessing it for development The book presents debates related to the EU s hardening and securitisation of its external border against migrants from Africa It shows that migration actually challenges Africa European relations which is discussed as an important theme in this book Authors in this book volume investigate several issues ranging from conundrums relating to migration between Africa and Europe to migration within Africa but also in relation to borders and boundaries its bearing on regional and continental integration and the significance of this in terms of relations between Africa and Europe This book volume brings into conversation issues relating to the governance of migration for development social cohesion and regional integration Regional Integration, Economic Development and Global Governance Ulrich Volz,2011 This book explores a central issue of the world economy today the role of regional integration for economic development and global governance The importance of this issue comes from the fact that the globalisation process that we have been experiencing in recent decades is also a process of open regionalism To what extent does this process contribute to development The reader will find many interesting answers to this question in the book which is an outstanding contribution to this debate I welcome its publication and look forward to its influence on global debates on the relations between regional integration development and global governance From the foreword by Jos Antonio Ocampo Columbia University US The contributors expertly provide a comparative perspective on regional integration in different regions of the world while at the same time analysing the various facets of integration relating to trade FDI finance and monetary policies They provide a comprehensive treatment of the subject and offer new perspectives on the potential developmental effects of regional integration and the implications of regional integration for global economic governance Whilst highlighting and illustrating the potential benefits deriving from regional economic integration the book also stresses the problems and challenges regional integration processes are usually confronted with Africa's Development Dynamics 2023 Investing in Sustainable Development African Union Commission,OECD,2023-07-07 Africa s Development Dynamics uses lessons from Central East North Southern and West Africa to develop policy recommendations and share good practices across the continent Drawing on the most recent statistics the analysis of development dynamics aims to assist African leaders in reaching the targets of the African Union s Agenda 2063 at all levels continental regional national and local
