Bulgaria and Europe Stefanos Katsikas, 2011-10-01 Bulgaria and Europe Shifting Identities offers a unique analysis of Bulgaria's relationship with the European continent Katsikas examines how Bulgarian historiography and literature over the centuries have created differing conceptions of Europe and in the process shaped the country's own shifting identity Through his analysis he provides the broader cultural context and historical perspective required in order to understand the country's EU accession process as well as its aftermath This work ultimately addresses what has arguably been the key question facing Bulgaria in the post Cold War period Are we European

Regional Economic Change in Europe Gert-Jan Hospers, 2004 In this era of ongoing globalization a coherent vision on Europe's changing geo economy is more important than ever before Drawing on the work of Schumpeter Fourastié and Perroux the book at hand offers a new and policy oriented perspective on regional economic change in Europe Conceptually it develops a middle range theory by extending Schumpeter's vision with a sectoral and spatial dimension This neo Schumpeterian framework is concretized by exploring fifty years of structural change in Sardinia the Ruhrgebiet and the resund

The Law of EU Regional Policy Andrew Evans, 1995 This book examines the law of the regional policy of the European Union In doing so it raises questions as to the usefulness of the established distinction in integration theory between negative and positive integration The approach of the Union towards regional problems seems to be the outcome of a complex of policy interactions which cannot easily be captured by this distinction In more practical terms the book deals with issues which may be legally presented in terms of liberal pluralistic and interventionist equality having major social importance and involving use of substantial financial resources Such issues are topical because of challenges to European Union regional policy entailed by German reunification creation of the European Economic Area the fourth enlargement of the Union and the planned future accession of several countries of Central and Eastern Europe
