INTRODUCTION

Welcome to your introductory text on the history and evolution of the Professional Practice of Rehabilitation Counseling—what it is and how to do it. Rehabilitation counseling is a dynamic specialization of the broader profession of counseling. In fact, rehabilitation counseling was one of the first counseling specialties around which the broader profession of counseling coalesced (Leahy et al., 2010). However, at different points in time, rehabilitation counseling has trended toward separate professional status, which weakened its relationship to the broader profession of counseling (Thomas & Parker, 1981). These debates often have centered on which core identity underlies rehabilitation counseling—counseling or
