Reincarnation Magazine 1925:

Reincarnation Magazine, March, 1925 to December, 1931 A. E. Landon, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1925 edition Religion and the Ku Klux Klan Juan O. Sánchez, 2016-05-06 As with other terrorist and extremist organizations religion forms the basis of the Ku Klux Klan's dogmatic philosophy providing justification for its beliefs and actions The Klan represents a link to America's cultural past While America has undergone tremendous social change the secretive order has since the end of the Civil War kept alive the antiquated values predicated on racism and religion of white supremacism Covering nearly a century of Klan ideology this book examines the group's religious rhetoric in its literature and songs from its heyday during the 1920s to 2014 A History of the Book in Australia, 1891-1945 Martyn Lyons, John Arnold, 2001 Collection of essays and case studies outlining Australian book production and consumption from the 1880s to the end of World War II Explores all aspects of print culture including authorship editing design and printing publication distribution bookselling libraries and reading habits Includes photos contributor notes bibliography and index Two further books in the A History of the Book in Australia project are planned Lyons is Professor of History at the University of New South Wales He has previously written with Lucy Taksa Australian Readers Remember Arnold is Deputy Director of the National Centre for Australian Studies Monash University He has previously co-edited the Biography of Australian Literature A E Spaces of Hate Colin Flint, 2013-10-18 While much has been written about hate groups and extreme right political movements this book will be the first that addresses the crucial role that place and context play in generating and shaping them Ranging across geographical scales the essays start with the home and then move from the local to the regional to the national to finally the global In this collection much of the focus is on the U S as the contributors consider a variety of hate activity and hate groups across the country including rural white supremacist and neo-Nazi movements anti-black sentiment directed towards cities anti-gay activity in cities and rural areas and the resurgent Southern nationalist movement Closing with pieces from those who combat hate activity the intention of Spaces of Hate is to recognize specific geographic settings likely to foster hate activity Correspondence Instruction Catalogue, 1925-1926 University of North Carolina (1793-1962).
