Force Recon Diary, 1970 Bruce H. Norton, 2013-11-15 The quiet of the night was again shattered by the thunderous roll of incoming artillery shells spaced five seconds apart ripping the jungle to pieces as huge chunks of earth and vegetation blew skyward under the brilliant flashes of orange and white explosions The possibility of encountering more NVA troops moving through our area was high as we had pushed a very great stick into their nest But our demonstrated ability to find the enemy and wait for the most opportune time to hit him while remaining totally undetected gave us reason to be pleased It also gave the NVA reason for concern In Force Recon Diary 1970 Bruce Doc Norton offers a harrowing sequel to his best selling Force Recon Diary 1969 continuing the true story of a navy corpsman who became a Force Recon Team Leader behind enemy lines in the jungles of Vietnam In the midst of a war set deep in the jungle the Force Recon Marines often found themselves lacking food drinkable water explosives or even enough radio batteries Armed with only their own courage skills and loyalty to their brothers in arms the Marines used stealth and cunning to survive in the harsh conditions of Vietnam where one mistake could prove fatal not just for an individual Marine but for the entire unit

The Moving Trees James C. Oyster, 2011-04 This book is the work of a 21 year old Marine Corps Sergeant who fought in the battle of Khe Sanh South Vietnam The author endured the hardships of the 77 day siege recording each day's events and his feelings in his diary Rather than a historical account of the battle's significance or political ramifications it is the personal story of one man's experience showing in sometimes graphic detail the effect such an intense war experience can have. It is written in the words that were used by the young Marines and those words are not meant to be racist or derogatory. This individual account of life inside the wire provides an incredibly detailed and poignant illustration of the everyday infantrymen who found a way to exhibit extraordinary courage despite abhorrent conditions. The day to day events flow well from one subject day to the next and crescendos to the incredible story of the author being wounded and whisked from the battlefield and shipped back to the world. Walk with this young Marine as he struggles to keep his men on task prepared for what ever may come and most importantly alive. Listen while he talks to his superiors on the radio trying to give a tactical assessment of the situation and bring help to his pinned down platoon. Be with him when he is holding a dying fellow Marine and in one instant goes from having his head on the chest of his dead friend to pulling himself together and taking charge of the platoon. Laugh with him as the stories are told about the happenings of fellow Marines returning from R R and the girls in Hong Kong and Bangkok. The Battle for Khe Sanh is among some of the most important in American military history and a significant source of pride for military veterans and civilians alike. Even President Barack Obama mentioned the Battle for Khe Sanh in his inaugural speech along with other great American battles like Gettysburg and Normandy. Jim Oyster is a decorated Marine Corps veteran of the Battle of Khe Sanh and additional engagements in the Vietnam War. He received two Purple Heart medals as well as a Bronze Star with Valor. During his tour in Viet Nam Jim served as a fire team leader, squad leader, right guide, platoon sergeant and platoon commander. Following his discharge from the Marine Corps Jim went to Fairmont State College in Fairmont West Virginia receiving his under graduate degree in Education and later received his Masters Degree in Speech Communication from West Virginia University in Morgantown West Virginia. He then embarked upon a thirty eight year career in education serving as a high school and middle school teacher, principal and coach. His Marine Corps training and unique experiences in the military along with his desire to educate and mentor America's youth enabled him to inspire countless young men and women to work above and beyond their perceived talents and abilities. His belief in the attributes of positive thinking and perseverance have guided his life accomplishments and highlighted his ability to overcome adversity and to embrace life to the fullest.

The Journal of Patrick Seamus Flaherty Ellen Emerson White, 2002

An eighteen year old Marine records in his journal his experiences in Vietnam during the siege of Khe Sanh 1967-1968 in a story that includes a history of Vietnam and related military information. Into No Man's Land, 2012

Scenes from a Vietnam-Era Diary K. G. MCLAUGHLIN, 2018-12-05

The year author K. G. McLaughlin graduated from high school 1967 was known as The Summer of Love by an ever increasing hippie movement that had been sweeping the country since shortly after the John Kennedy assassination in 1963. It was the best summer of his life. But that ended abruptly he joined the Marines and was guaranteed a trip to Vietnam. In Scenes from a Vietnam Era Diary he chronicles his personal odyssey from a safe and content life in Cape Cod to a Marine Corps boot camp culture shock that unknowingly at the time was a gentle prelude to the hellish world of being a frontline combat soldier in Vietnam Raw and uncompromising McLaughlin presents a real time journal based narrative describing combat while spending months in the hot waterlogged bug infested jungle with one close call after another dodging bullets bombs and mines Scenes from a Vietnam Era Diary offers a multifaceted narrative of life death and the unspeakable horrors of serving in the Vietnam War Force Recon Diary, 1969-1970 Bruce H. Norton, 1969

Vietnam Diary Richard Tregaskis, 2018-11-22 as an intimate and unadorned account of what so many of our career soldiers and draftees are going through day by day over there this can be wholeheartedly recommended Kirkus Review In October 1962 Richard Tregaskis joined the American troops posted in Vietnam For the next four months he spent his life on the frontline witnessing and recording what the American men were doing saying and thinking in the fight against the communist forces of Northern Vietnam Tregaskis exposes the confusion of the conflict as he climbs on board Marine and Army helicopters and goes on missions to search out their deadly foes that seem to disappear into the jungle as soon as they are seen Vietnam Diary is a remarkable book that takes the reader to the heart of what it was like to be fighting in this vicious war Through the course of the book Tregaskis develops deep friendships with many of the troops who begin to open up to him and explain their experiences that they have been through since the beginning of the war He discusses in typical Tregaskis style his observations and experiences during the time he spent with the Marine and Army helicopter units the Special Forces the MAAG personnel and the Junk fleet R C Rosacker Lieutenant Colonel U S Marine Corps Naval War College Review Tregaskis won the George Polk Award for first person reporting under hazardous conditions shortly after publishing Vietnam Diary This book is essential reading for anyone interested in the Vietnam War as well as the lives of the soldiers who fought within it Richard Tregaskis was an American journalist and author who served as a war correspondent during World War Two the Korean War and the Vietnam War He was no stranger to danger as he frequently put himself in the firing line to report and during the Second World War while in Italy a shell fragment pierced his helmet and his skull and nearly killed him His book Vietnam Diary was first published in 1963 and he passed away in Hawaii in 1973
