Rekindling Minority Enrollment Dan Angel, 1991 Resources in Education , 1991-11 Recruitment and Retention of Race Group Students in American Higher Education C. Dwayne Wilson, Bernard Lubin, Barbara Below, 2008-01-30 Challenges to American college and university affirmative action and racial and ethnic diversity initiatives were resolved by the Supreme Court in its 2003 decisions in the University of Michigan case Those decisions affirmed as a compelling interest the attainment of racially diverse student bodies in higher education The Court's decisions and the predicted increases over the next decade in the numbers of race and ethnic group high school graduates have reinforced and in some cases strengthened the resolve of college and university officials that the positive returns from affirmative action and racial diversity are real and worth pursuing The purpose of this annotated bibliography is to provide a record of the research scholarship and programs for recruitment and retention of African American Alaskan Native American Indian Asian American Latino and Pacific Islander students at the college and university levels It is structured to facilitate access by college and university administrators professionals consultants researchers and students who require information on recruitment and retention to aid in their decision making about strategy related issues and scientific and creative processes in the area This bibliography covers more than forty years of literature and contains 969 citations organized into five chapters Catalog of ERIC Clearinghouse Publications , 1997 Achieving Administrative Diversity Raymond C. Bowen, Gilbert H. Muller, 1996-07-12 As community colleges prepare for the new century they confront the major challenge of expanding administrative opportunities for minorities With the nation's demographics changing rapidly and with community colleges enrolling significant percentages of students from Latino African American and Asian American backgrounds it is practically and ethically imperative for two year institutions to have administrations that reflect the diversity of the United States This volume of New Directions for Community Colleges presents essays that explore the problem of minority underrepresentation in community college administrations across the country and suggests concrete strategies for establishing a campus environment that is conducive to administrative diversity When a campus embraces pluralism as a central part of its institutional ethos it can overcome the myriad obstacles to administrative diversity and increase the number of minorities serving in key leadership positions This is the 95th issue in the journal series New Directions for Community Colleges For more information on this series please see the Journals and Periodicals page Recent Department of Education Publications in ERIC United States.
