Relations Among Religions Today Moses Jung, 1963 Korean Religions in Relation Anselm K. Min, 2016-09-30 Examines Buddhism Confucianism and Christianity in Korea focusing on their mutual accommodation exclusion conflict and assimilation Instead of simply being another survey of the three dominant religions in contemporary Korea Buddhism Confucianism and Christianity this unique book studies them in relation to each other in terms of assimilation accommodation conflict and exclusion The contributors focus on major issues that have historically challenged the relations between the three religions from the Goryeo period to the present and how each religion has responded to them The essays bring a new perspective to the study of Korean religions one that is especially pertinent in the current age of religious pluralism with all its tensions The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia Felix Wilfred, 2014-05-23 Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies Despite the ongoing global expansion of Christianity there remains a lack of comprehensive scholarship on its development in Asia This volume fills the gap by exploring the world of Asian Christianity and its manifold expressions including worship theology spirituality inter religious relations interventions in society and mission The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio political and cultural processes of colonization decolonization modernization democratization identity construction of social groups and various social movements With a particular focus on inter religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other religious traditions are used in the practice of Christianity within Asia Principles and Practicalities of Interfaith Relationships in Nigeria. Hyacinth Kalu, 2011-06-15 Given the amazing interest in interfaith relationships among the religions in Nigeria and the desire to proffer a better approach to these relationships this book proposes a trialogical approach as a solution to the religious conflicts and crises that have become the order of the day in Nigeria In this approach no religion is left out all ATR Islam and Christianity are treated as equal partners in seeking and offering solutions towards better relationships among religious followers and the Nigerian people Interfaith relationships and activities involving all three religions in Nigeria ATR Islam and Christianity without excluding any is a powerful tool for promoting religious harmony peace and cooperation for the stability and advancement of our nation This volume offers the guidelines and practical activities towards making trialogical relationships possible and fruitful among the followers of African Traditional Religion Muslims and Christians in Nigeria The Transformation of Religious Orders in Central and Eastern Europe Stefania Palmisano, Isabelle Jonveaux, Marcin Jewdokimow, 2021-05-09 The first volume to explore various facets of contemporary change in consecrated religious life in selected Central and Eastern European countries this book presents a series of studies of Catholic and Orthodox monasticism With attention to changes in the economy everyday life organisation and social presence of monastic orders contributors shed light on the impact of 20th and 21st century social and cultural processes such as communism and its collapse or the growth of new communication technologies on life in the cloister Bringing together research from various locations in Central and Eastern Europe it will appeal to scholars and students of sociology religious studies and theology with interests in religious orders and transformations of religious life from a social perspective Holy Ignorance Olivier Roy,2013 Instead of freeing the world from religion secularization has encouraged a kind of holy ignorance to take root This book explores the options available to powers that hope to integrate or control these groups and whether marginalization or homogenization will further divide believers from their culture The Mystery of Human Relationship Nathan Schwartz-Salant,2003-09-02 All human relationships are containers of emotional life but what are the structures underlying them Nathan Schwartz Salant looks at all kinds of relationships through an analyst s eye By analogy with the ancient system of alchemy he shows how states of mind that can undermine our relationships in marriage in creative work in the workplace can become transformative when brought to consciousness It is only by learning how to access the interactive field of our relationships that we can enter this transformative process and explore its mysterious potential for self realization The Relations of the State University to Religion Henry Simmons Frieze,1888 Religious Diversity in Chinese Thought P. Schmidt-Leukel,J. Gentz,2013-09-04 This collection of essays by major scholars analyze the religious diversity in Chinese religion bringing together topics from traditional and contemporary contexts and Chinese religions encounters with Western religion The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Religion Peter Clarke,2011-02-04 The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Religion draws on the expertise of an international team of scholars providing both an entry point into the sociological study and understanding of religion and an in depth survey into its changing forms and content in the contemporary world The role and impact of religion and spirituality on the politics culture education and health in the modern world is rigorously discussed and debated The study of the sociology of religion forges interdisciplinary links to explore aspects of continuity and change in the contemporary interface between society and religion Using a combination of theoretical methodological and content led approaches the fifty seven contributors collectively emphasise the complex relationships between religion and aspects of life from scientific research to law ecology to art music to cognitive science crime to institutional health care and more The developing character of religion irreligion and atheism and the impact of religious diversity on social cohesion are explored An overview of current scholarship in the field is provided in each themed chapter with an emphasis on encouraging new thinking and reflection on familiar and emergent themes to stimulate further debate and scholarship The resulting essay collection provides an invaluable resource for research and teaching in this diverse discipline Religion-State Relations in the United States and Germany Claudia E. Haupt,2011-12-08 This comparative analysis of the constitutional law of religion state relations in the United States and Germany focuses on the principle of state neutrality A strong emphasis on state neutrality a notoriously ambiguous concept is a shared feature in the constitutional jurisprudence of the US Supreme Court and the German Federal Constitutional Court but neutrality does not have the same meaning in both systems In Germany neutrality tends to indicate more distance between church and state whereas the opposite is the case in the United States Neutrality also has other meanings in both systems making straightforward comparison more difficult than it might seem Although the underlying trajectory of neutrality is different in both countries the discussion of neutrality breaks down into largely parallel themes By examining those themes in a comparative perspective the meaning of state neutrality in religion state relations can be delineated

History and Its Limits Dominick LaCapra, 2011-02-23 Dominick LaCapra's History and Its Limits articulates the relations among intellectual history cultural history and critical theory examining the recent rise of Practice Theory and probing the limitations of prevalent forms of humanism LaCapra focuses on the problem of understanding extreme cases specifically events and experiences involving violence and victimization He asks how historians treat and are simultaneously implicated in the traumatic processes they attempt to represent In addressing these questions he also investigates violence's impact on various types of writing and establishes a distinctive role for critical theory in the face of an insufficiently discriminating aesthetic of the sublime often unreflectively amalgamated with the uncanny In History and Its Limits LaCapra inquires into the related phenomenon of a turn to the postsecular even the messianic or the miraculous in recent theoretical discussions of extreme events by such prominent figures as Giorgio Agamben Eric L Santner and Slavoj Žižek In a related vein he discusses Martin Heidegger's evocative if not enchanting understanding of The Origin of the Work of Art LaCapra subjects to critical scrutiny the sometimes internally divided way in which violence has been valorized in sacrificial regenerative or redemptive terms by a series of important modern intellectuals on both the far right and the far left including Georges Sorel the early Walter Benjamin Georges Bataille Frantz Fanon and Ernst Jünger Violence and victimization are prominent in the relation between the human and the animal LaCapra questions prevalent anthropocentrism evident even in theorists of the posthuman and the long standing quest for a decisive criterion separating or dividing the human from the animal LaCapra regards this attempt to fix the difference as misguided and potentially dangerous because it renders insufficiently problematic the manner in which humans treat other animals and interact with the environment In raising the issue of desirable transformations in modernity History and Its Limits examines the legitimacy of normative limits necessary for life in common and explores the disconcerting role of transgressive initiatives beyond limits including limits blocking the recognition that humans are themselves animals

Religion in the 21st Century Lisbet Christoffersen, 2010 Religion in the 21st century is a phenomenon that cannot be taken for granted and is undergoing transformations that present us with new challenges both from a scholarly and societal perspective The nuanced and multifaceted way in which these features are analyzed in this book should be welcomed by all who are interested and concerned with the role of religion on the contemporary scene The combination of accessible scholarship and challenging positions makes this a book for everyone who is interested in religion in the secularized parts of the world The volume contributes to an understanding of how it is not after all a contradiction to be both fully modern and religious Jan Olav Henriksen Norwegian School of Theology Oslo Norway Philosophy of Religion in Latin America and Europe Michael Schulz, Roberto Hofmeister Pich, 2021-04-12 The title of this publication suggests a double meaning on the one hand most of the contributions outline philosophies of religion relevant for Latin America without however betraying an explicit Latin American perspective Does not philosophical reason always articulate itself in the same way whether in Berlin or Rio de Janeiro On the other hand the title refers to a specific form of philosophy that has developed regionally and bears explicit traces of its origins that differentiate it from philosophy in Europe Does not philosophical reason always articulate itself in a specific cultural context The charm of the book lies in the encounter of these two variants to think philosophically
