Zen and the Art of Making a Living Laurence G. Boldt, 1999 Applies Zen philosophies and techniques to uncovering one's talents assessing career skills marketing one's abilities and conducting a job search At the Foot of the Mountain Alla Renee Bozarth, 2000-06-09 TEXT FOR AUTHOR BIO Like philosopher and teacher Joseph Campbell Alla Bozarth explores life's mysteries through the power of myth and metaphor the salmon the great bear the ocean the phoenix the chambered nautilus the iris the lotus Above all is her mountain Mt Hood her Medicine Woman rising outside her window always changing in mood and meaning TEXT FOR BOOK DESCRIPTION This remarkable work proves that a time of devastating change can result in magnificent growth and illumination In these intensely personal and universal ponderings Episcopal priest author poet and therapist Alla Renee Bozarth relates the wrenching decisions that caused her to move from her exile in the Midwest back to Oregon to her place at the foot of the mountain She takes us through her grief at the death of her father and of her young husband then shares her gradual healing through the creative process of writing this book As she finds strengths to minister to herself she ministers to us In introducing us to her special places and symbols her teachers we are moved to discover our own healing metaphors for ourselves You Are Not Your Illness Linda Topf, 1995-05-08 The author who has lived with multiple sclerosis most of her adult life delves deeply into her own experience to reveal the keys to regaining emotional and spiritual wholeness when a serious illness or injury threatens to destroy one's sense of self While serious illness injury or disability can physically alter the course of your life it can also cause great emotional upheaval It is not uncommon to feel anger frustration grief fear and denial as you try to accept a new way of living As you lose your ability to do things you once considered routine you may even feel that you are losing your self worth that your physical condition is threatening your identity Through a step by step process designed to show that real healing has little to do with the state of the physical body Noble Topf offers a compassionate and inspirational message to anyone whose sense of self is threatened by physical limitations The Spiritual Family John-Roger, 1997 In this updated version of a classic John Roger outlines the goal of the family this way The family is the foundation of society Love is the foundation of the family God is the foundation of love Families are brought together to refine and sandpaper each other and then to move that refined consciousness into awareness of soul The four chapters include Husbands and Wives Kids Love and Discipline and Family and Home The Source for Effective Church Service Planning , 2003 A comprehensive listing of service tested programming material designed to supplement a church's creative process of service planning Second edition Her Life's Work Deborah Shepard, 2013-11-01 Spanning the impressive careers of five notable New Zealand women this uncommon examination portrays the lives of Merimeri Penfold Margaret Mahy Anne Salmond Gaylene Preston and Jacqueline Fahey Having each carved out their own distinguished reputations as artists writers teachers filmmakers and thinkers this investigation demonstrates how each of them has balanced a professional life with a personal one In five in depth interviews this record

century and beyond examining a set of diverse practices that mine the line between what it is to make art and what it is to live life The book s chapters connect a variety of artistic strategies that cut across medium geography and time uncovering how the historical marginalisation of first person experience has taken on larger social cultural and political implications in the contemporary moment and how the work of living might still relate to the work of art

About the Rose Elizabeth Ferrell,2022-02-22 A remarkable portrait of a web of artistic connections traced outward from Jay DeFeo s uniquely generative work of art Through deep archival research and nuanced analysis Elizabeth Ferrell examines the creative exchange that developed with and around The Rose a monumental painting on which the San Francisco artist Jay DeFeo 1929 1989 worked almost exclusively from 1958 to 1966 From its early state to its dramatic removal from DeFeo s studio the painting was a locus of activity among Fillmore District artists Wallace Berman Bruce Conner Wally Hedrick and Michael McClure each took up The Rose in their photographs films paintings and poetry which DeFeo then built upon in turn The resulting works established a dialogue between artists rather than seamless cooperation Illustrated with archival photographs and personal correspondence in addition to the artworks Ferrell s book traces how The Rose became a stage for experimentation with authorship and community defying traditional definitions of collaboration and creating alternatives to Cold War America s political and artistic binaries

The Genocide Paradox Anne O'Byrne,2023-04-25 We regard genocidal violence as worse than other sorts of violence perhaps the worst there is But what does this say about what we value about the genos on which nations are said to be founded This is an urgent question for democracies We value the mode of being in time that anchors us in the past and in the future that is among those who have been and those who might yet be If the genos is a group constituted by this generational time the demos was invented as the anti genos with no criterion of inheritance and instead only occurring according to the interruption of revolutionary time Insofar as the demos persists we experience it as a sort of genos for example the democratic nation state As a result democracies are caught in a bind disavowing genos thinking while cherishing the temporal forms of genos life they abhor genocidal violence but perpetuate and disguise it This is the genocide paradox O Byrne traces the problem through our commitment to existential categories from Aristotle to the life taxonomies of Linneaus and Darwin through anthropologies of kinship that tether us to the social world the shortfalls of ethical theory into the history of democratic theory and the defensive tactics used by real existing democracies when it came to defining genocide for the U N Genocide Convention She argues that although models of democracy all make room for contestation they fail to grasp its generational structure or acknowledge the generational content of our lives They cultivate ignorance of the contingency and precarity of the relations that create and sustain us The danger of doing so is immense It leaves us unprepared for confronting democracy s deficits and its struggle to entertain multiple temporalities In addition it leaves us unprepared for understanding the relation between demos and violence and the ability of good enough citizens to tolerate the slow burning destruction of marginalized peoples What will it take to envision an anti genocidal democracy Advances in Art Therapy Harriet Wadeson, Jean Durkin, Dorine Perach, 1991-01-16
