for the general interest reader Religion, Violence and Political Mobilisation in South Asia Ravinder Kaur, 2005-11-05
Papers presented at the Workshop on Religious Mobilisation and Organisation of Violence held at Roskilde during 3-4 April 2003 Faith and Politics in South Asia Astha Chadha, 2024-11-18 This book explores the role of faith and politics in shaping the international relations of South Asia. Adopting a neo-classical realist framework and a discourse-historical approach to analyze how religious actors construct their political identities and interests through the interpretation of sacred texts or exegesis, the book makes several key contributions to the field of international relations. It introduces the concept of exegesis as a novel analytical tool to understand the role of religion in world politics. The book argues that exegesis is not only a theological exercise but also a political one as it shapes the worldviews, values, norms, and interests of religious actors. The author applies exegesis to three case studies of South Asia: the partition of India and Pakistan, the rise of Hindu nationalism in India, and the emergence of Islamic radicalism in Pakistan and resurging signs of the same in Bangladesh. The research then challenges the conventional assumptions of IR such as the secularization thesis, the clash of civilizations, and the rational actor model by showing how religious actors are not monolithic, homogeneous, or irrational but rather diverse, heterogeneous, and strategic. The book offers a nuanced and comprehensive understanding of the role of religion in world politics, especially in the context of South Asia. Highlighting the diversity and complexity of the religious landscape in South Asia, which is home to various faiths, sects, movements, and ideologies, this book will be of interest to academics studying global politics, international relations, Asian Studies, and studies on religion and foreign policy.

Secular and Religious Politics in Pakistan, India, and Bangladesh Nadeem Malik, 2025-07-02 This book thoroughly explores the complex relationship between secularism and religious politics in South Asia. It examines the historical and contemporary factors that have influenced the political landscapes of Pakistan, India, and Bangladesh, focusing on how colonial legacies, nation-building processes, and religious ideologies have shaped governance and social structures. Through comparative analysis, the book delves into the rise of Hindutva in India, the struggle between secularism and Islamism in Bangladesh, and the role of Islam in Pakistan's politics. By integrating diverse theoretical perspectives and historical contexts, this book offers a comprehensive understanding of the evolving nature of secularism and religious politics in these three nations. It also provides insights into the broader implications for democracy, pluralism, and religious freedom in South Asia. This book is essential reading for scholars, policymakers, and anyone interested in the intersection of religion and politics in one of the world's most complex and dynamic regions.

Varieties of Secularism in Asia Nils Ole Bubandt, Martijn Van Beek, 2012-03-12 Varieties of Secularism is an ethnographically rich, theoretically well-informed, and intellectually coherent volume which builds off the work of Talal Asad, Charles Taylor, and others who have engaged the issue of secularism's role in socio-political life. The volume seeks to examine theories of secularism, secularity, and examine concrete ethnographic cases in order to further the theoretical discussion. Whereas Taylor's magisterial work draws up the conditions and problems of a belief in God in Western modernity, it leaves unexplored the challenges posed by the spiritual in modernity outside of the North Atlantic rim This anthology seeks to begin that task It does so by suggesting that the kind of secularity described by Taylor is only one amongst others By attending to the shifting relationship between proper religion and bad faiths between politically valorised and embarrassing spiritual phenomena between the new visibilities and silences of magic ancestors and religion in democratic politics this book seeks to outline the particular formations of secularism that have become possible in Asia from China to Indonesia and from Bahrain to Timor Leste This book will appeal to students and scholars of Asian religion politics and anthropology Asia,1929 Religion and Society in Sub-Saharan Africa and Southern Asia Carole Rakodi,2019-03-18 This book analyses how religion is entangled in people s lives in Sub Saharan Africa and southern Asia It provides an introduction to the teachings practices and values promoted by the main religious traditions in these regions and an overview of the evidence on what religion means to people in terms of their beliefs and religious practices and how it influences their values attitudes and day to day relationships with others especially their families Over the course of the book Carole Rakodi explores similarities and differences between and within religious traditions and identifies some of the key factors that influence and explain the roles played by religion in people s personal lives and social relationships A separate companion volume will go on to focus on the social and political roles and relationships of religious groups and organisations This book will be of great interest to academics and students working in a range of disciplines especially sociology religious studies and development studies but also anthropology geography and area studies Religious Organisations in Sub-Saharan Africa and South Asia Carole Rakodi,2024-02-05 This book explores the links between religion states social welfare and social change in Sub Saharan Africa and South Asia Building on the author s previous analysis of how religious beliefs practices and values influence social behaviour and relationships especially within families this book focuses on the organisational characteristics of religions and societies The book considers how Muslim Christian Hindu and Buddhist organisations working in different contexts express the religious values of charity and compassion in practical activities to improve social welfare Drawing on extensive empirical research the book maps the organisations involved identifying the factors that explain their choice of activities sources of funding and modes of organisation and highlighting similarities and differences between the religious traditions It considers the involvement of religious actors in school level education as well as in international humanitarian relief and reconstruction and addresses the claim that religious organisations have distinctive features that give them comparative advantages Finally the book reviews research on the roles of religious values and organisations in resisting or promoting social change focusing on women s movements especially their campaigns for changes in family law and the quest for social and legal recognition for sexual and gender minorities The book s wide coverage of two subcontinents in the Global South and several important religious traditions will be of interest to researchers and students in the fields of sociology international development religious studies anthropology and area studies as well as to those engaged in policy and action who are looking to improve their understanding of the complex social cultural political and religious contexts in which they work Tolerance, Secularization and Democratic Politics in South Asia Humeira Iqtidar, Tanika Sarkar, 2018-07-19 What is the relationship between secularization and tolerance Critically analyzing the empirical and theoretical foundations of a putatively linear relationship between the two this volume argues for moving past both romanticised readings of pre modern tolerance and the unthinking belief that secularization will inevitably lead to tolerance The essays collected in this volume include contributions from across South Asia that suggest that democratic politics have added a layer of complexity to questions of peaceful co existence Modern transformations in religious thought and practice have had contradictory implications for tolerance which offer rich insights into contemporary debates in the region This multi disciplinary volume which spans history sociology anthropology and political theory questions the uncritical acceptance of tolerance as the best framework for engaging with difference and probes the complications created by and through democratic politics

Religion and Nationalism in Southeast Asia Joseph Chinyong Liow, 2016-08-19 Religion and nationalism are two of the most potent and enduring forces that have shaped the modern world Yet there has been little systematic study of how these two forces have interacted to provide powerful impetus for mobilization in Southeast Asia a region where religious identities are as strong as nationalist impulses At the heart of many religious conflicts in Southeast Asia lies competing conceptions of nation and nationhood identity and belonging and loyalty and legitimacy In this accessible and timely study Joseph Liow examines the ways in which religious identity nourishes collective consciousness of a people who see themselves as a nation perhaps even as a constituent part of a nation but anchored in shared faith Drawing on case studies from across the region Liow argues that this serves both as a vital element of identity and a means through which issues of rights and legitimacy are understood Political Communication in Asia Lars Willnat, Annette Aw, 2009-03-23 This edited volume provides a critical review of political communication research conducted in Asia over the past twenty years Each chapter focuses on studies published in a specific Asian country selected according to the level of contribution made to the field of political communication in Asia Covering China Hong Kong Taiwan South Korea Japan Singapore Malaysia Indonesia and India the book's primary objective is to review the unique theoretical accomplishments made by Asian communication scholars thus contributing to a better awareness and understanding of political communication research in Asia The contributors are well respected Asian media scholars writing on political communication in their countries of origin Each author reviews studies conducted and published in his/her native country and language's This book provides a first review of these studies most of which have never been published in English and makes them available to international scholars The contributors discuss each country's political background and address the findings and conclusions of the political communication studies conducted in their respective countries during the past two decades The chapters focus on insights that have been made by adapting Western media theories to the unique social cultural or political contexts that exist in each country The authors also point out possible gaps in the current research within their respective countries and to make recommendations for future studies

Religion and Security in South and Central Asia K. Warikoo, 2010-11 This book provides local perspectives on religion security history geopolitics and geostrategy in South Asia and Central Asia in an integrated manner Presenting a holistic and updated view of the developments inside and across South and Central Asia it offers coherent and concise analyses by experts on the region

Religious Diversity in Muslim-majority States in Southeast Asia Bernhard Platzdasch, 2014-11-07 e This book fills a gap in authoritative analyses of the causes of inter religious conflict and the practice of religious toleration The rise of more overt expressions of Islamic piety and greater bureaucratization of Islam in both Indonesia and Malaysia over several decades have tested the e live and let live philosophy that used to characterize religious expression in these nations The analyses in each chapter break new ground with contextualized studies of particular and recent incidents of conflict or harassment in a variety of areas from urban centres to more remote and even complex locations As these studies show legislation stands or falls on the ability and determination of local authorities to enforce it This volume is essential reading for understanding the dynamics of state religious interaction in Muslim majority nations and the crucial role civil society organizations play in negotiating interfaith toleration e Emeritus Professor Virginia Hooker FAHA Department of Political Social Change College of Asia the Pacific The Australian National University

Religion and Societies Carlo Caddarola, 2011-06-01 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series

Islam in Politics in Russia and Central Asia Stephane A. Dudolgnon, Komatsu Hisao, 2013-11-05 First Published in 2001 This volume contains the proceedings of the international colloquium held by the IAS Project in October 1999 These papers deal with the modern and contemporary history of Central Eurasia for a comprehensive reflection on various phenomena that led to a political valuation of Islam under non Muslim domination whether Russian or Chinese since the beginning of the 18th century A comparative approach to the current situations in the Russian Federation and the newly independent states of Central Asia has allowed us to study the various modes of the political instrumentalization of Islam by both political power and opposition in such various areas as the Ferghana Valley in Uzbekistan and the Volga Urals region of Russia

World Regional Geography Lydia Mihelic Pulsipher, Alex Pulsipher, Holly M. Hapke, 2005-01-05 The scale of this book encompasses vast continents and global forces but often its descriptive focus on individual lives has the most impact Stories of people and families make the study of geography compelling Students begin to grasp the complex patterns at work in the world today as they see how people are affected by and respond to economic social and political processes Through these stories of individual lives the authors hope to convey the impact of globalization a major theme of the text To highlight global to local and interregional connections the text includes a number of topics that have no borders the war on terrorism realignments in the global political order interregional trade the global economy popular culture the environment and the Internet Here again the focus on the individual person provides insight offering local perspectives on these global trends Preface

The Politics of Religion, Nationalism, and Identity in Asia Jeff Kingston, 2019-07-30 This comprehensive book provides a comparative analysis of religious nationalism in contemporary globalized Asia Exploring the nexus of religion identity and nationalism Jeff Kingston assesses similarities and differences across the region focusing on how religious sentiments influence how people embrace nationalism and with what consequences Kingston shows that in the age of the internet this has become an especially volatile mix that breeds violence and poses a significant risk to secularism diversity civil liberties democracy and political stability This extremist tide has swept across Asia with tragic results as witnessed by 730 000 Rohingya Muslims driven out of Myanmar 70 000 Kashmiris slaughtered in India and Islamic State affiliates terrorizing Bangladesh Indonesia the Philippines and Sri Lanka Who could have imagined Buddhist monks inciting violence and intolerance or setting themselves on fire Or pious vigilantes beheading atheist bloggers Or clerics defeating and jailing powerful politicians on blasphemy allegations And what explains why one million Uighur Muslims are locked up in China Examining the causes and consequences of these varied phenomena and what they portend Kingston casts a sobering light on the prospects of the Asian Century
