Crime, Law and Justice in New Zealand Greg Newbold, 2016-06-03 Crime Law and Justice in New Zealand examines the recent crime trends and the social political and legal changes in New Zealand from the end of the twentieth century to the present Serving as the only New Zealand specific criminal justice text this book takes a direct look at what is unique about the country s criminal justice system and recent crime trends Crime rates peaked in the early 1990s and have fallen since Newbold considers why this happened through factors such as economy ethnic composition changing cultural trends and legislative developments in policing and criminal justice He unpacks various types of crime separately violent crime property crime drug crime gang crime organised crime etc and examines each in terms of the various complex factors affecting it using illustrative examples from recent high profile cases The cover photo for Crime Law and Justice in New Zealand was taken by Jono Rotman

Weed James Borrowdale, 2020-07-02 I just closed my eyes and drifted away I drifted away to the music but I don t think I d ever experienced anything quite so soothing and magical It was like I was in a magical space It was beautiful Jim Mahoney former drug user Pot Mary Jane dope skunk grass hash green hooch herb ganja reefer New Zealand loves weed It s the most popular illegal drug in our country and third most popular drug overall behind alcohol and tobacco yet it also represents a troubled relationship In Weed award winning journalist James Borrowdale dives in deep to understand that relationship meeting a fascinating cross section of New Zealand along the way a nineteenth century nun who allegedly grew pot a bystander to the Mr Asia syndicate a convicted heroin dealer turned criminologist people both using and offering the drug for medicinal relief politicians and law makers old and new What s revealed is an engrossing heady and sometimes surprising account of New Zealand and weed Fusing insightful personal stories with analysis and historical research Weed lays out the facts as they are about an issue that can no longer be ignored Borrowdale intertwines his deeply personal journey with a much bigger narrative bringing to life the strange compelling and often misunderstood story of cannabis in Aotearoa David Farrier The best book yet on cannabis and New Zealanders Russell Brown

World Wide Weed Tom Decorte, 2016-02-11 For the majority of its history the cultivation of cannabis did not stand out at least compared to the cultivation of other illegal plants Cannabis plantations like coca bush or opium poppy plantations were typically large in size grown by local farmers in a handful of developing producing countries processed and then exported to industrial consuming nations While cocaine and heroin are still produced in a handful of developing countries cannabis cultivation is increasingly universal From Europe to the Americas and Oceania import substitution in cannabis markets has been noticed in almost every developed country around the world with a notable aversion for discrimination Geographical technological cultural and economic factors help to explain why indoor and outdoor domestic cultivation is well established and why the nature and extent of cultivation varies so dramatically across the western developed nations As we start the second decade of the 21st century the new cannabis industry continues to fascinate both casual and academic observers of the drug scene Researchers around the world have become increasingly interested in the phenomenon aiming to describe and potentially explain the rapid switch from importation to domestic production in their own countries In bringing together some of the world s leading experts on cannabis cultivation this book contains sixteen chapters that take an interdisciplinary look at global trends in cannabis cultivation It will serve as an exemplar for wider discussions of key theories and concepts relating to the spread not just of cannabis cultivation but also of illegal markets more generally the actors that operate within these markets and the policies and practices that are employed in response to developments within these markets

New Zealand Brad Patterson,Kathryn Patterson,1998 For many years New Zealand was stereotyped as a sleepy hollow of the South Pacific but more recently it has had an influence in international affairs which belies its size Noted more for its conservatism and stability its green fields and sheep than for its innovation and radicalism this most geographically isolated of English speaking countries took pride in its role as a provider of agricultural produce for Europe

Jumping Sundays Nick Bollinger,2022-08-11 On a Sunday afternoon in the spring of 1969 thousands of people defied Auckland city bylaws and came to party in Albert Park A rock band played on the rotunda Some people held hands some danced alone some sat under trees with guitars flutes and bongos and made music of their own They wore kaftans ponchos and leather fringed jerkins floppy hats headbands beads and flowers Poetry and political diatribes were delivered from a podium improvised from an upturned tea chest There were bikies balloons bubbles sack races and a lolly scramble lots of dogs and a pet possum Someone brought a canoe and paddled it around the fountain until it capsized As the afternoon wore on there were joss sticks skyrockets and what some will have recognised as the musky smell of marijuana From the PrologueIn Jumping Sundays award winning writer and broadcaster Nick Bollinger tells the story of beards and bombs freaks and firebrands self destruction and self realisation during a turbulent period in New Zealand s history and culture

Hard Lessons Gordon Tait,2019-06-04 Originally published in 2004 The essays in this engaging book catalogue a wide and varied range of instances where things go wrong in the practices of criminal justice The contributions document instances where laws policies and practices have produced unintended consequences of the most deleterious kind drawing attention to the prison system boot camps detention centres and specific penal policies such as the short sharp shock parental penalty and three strikes and you're out. Also examined are policing practices such as zero tolerance saturation policing and punitive laws in the areas of drug use sex offences and prostitution. It is demonstrated that in each of these cases the objectives of government resulted in the creation of new and unforeseen problems requiring further reform of the criminal justice system. This is a familiar tale characteristic of the modernist impulses of contemporary government based on the notion that crime can be identified managed and controlled through the application and administration of institutionalised policies and practices. The present culture of high crime despite a top heavy apparatus of crime control appears to indicate the very opposite.

News of the Swimmer Reaches Shore Gregory O'Brien, 2007 An essay which covers the history of twentieth century modernism the politics of French nuclear testing and the life of a family
