Ngos And Transnational Networks Wild Cards In World Politics:

NGOs and Transnational Networks William DeMars, 2005-04-20 Beautiful edition of Marx and Engels classic manifesto introduced by renowned social theorist David Harvey NGOs and Transnational Networks William E. DeMars, 2005-04-20 Non Governmental Organisations and their networks are proliferating in all regions of the world They address every transnational issue from population to peace human rights to species rights genocide to AIDS Supporters claim NGOs are effective in achieving their goals while detractors counter that NGO power is paltry compared to governments and corporations Challenging both views DeMars irreverently reveals the political claims implicit in every transnational NGO They are best conceptualised he argues not in terms of either principles or power but through the partners they make in transnational society and politics NGOs and transnational networks institutionalise conflict as much as cooperation and reshape states and societies often inadvertently NGOs have overthrown dictators provided life support for collapsed states and reengineered the family Their historical origins contrast sharply with current realities and show signs of radical change in the future The NGO Challenge for International Relations Theory William E. DeMars, Dennis Dijkzeul, 2015-02-11 It has become commonplace to observe the growing pervasiveness and impact of Non Governmental Organizations NGOs And yet the three central approaches in International Relations IR theory Liberalism Realism and Constructivism overlook or ignore the importance of NGOs both theoretically and politically Offering a timely reappraisal of NGOs and a parallel reappraisal of theory in IR the academic discipline entrusted with revealing and explaining world politics this book uses practice theory global governance and new institutionalism to theorize NGO accountability and analyze the history of NGOs This study uses evidence from empirical data from Europe Africa Latin America the Middle East and Asia and from studies that range across the issue areas of peacebuilding ethnic reconciliation and labor rights to show IR theory has often prejudged and misread the agency of NGOs Drawing together a group of leading international relations theorists this book explores the frontiers of new research on the role of such forces in world politics and is required reading for students NGO activists and policy makers

The Global Right Wing and the Clash of World Politics Clifford Bob, 2012-02-29 This book analyzes transnational advocacy by conservatives examining combat over issues such as gay rights and gun control NGOs, IGOs, and the Network Mechanisms of Post-Conflict Global Governance in Microfinance A. Ohanyan, 2008-10-27 Post conflict reconstruction stretches the capacities of international institutions and they turn to NGOs to answer the challenge This book explores how the interactions between international public institutions and NGOs have affected peacebuilding in the post conflict situations of Bosnia Afghanistan and Kosovo Religious Pluralism, Globalization, and World Politics Thomas Banchoff, 2008-11-26 Globalization has spawned more active transnational religious communities creating a powerful force in world affairs Religious Pluralism Globalization and World Politics an incisive new collection of essays explores the patterns of cooperation and conflict that mark this new religious pluralism Shifting religious identities have encouraged interreligious dialogue and greater political engagement around global challenges including international development conflict resolution transitional justice and bioethics At the same time interreligious competition has contributed to political conflict and running controversy over the meaning and scope of religious freedom In this volume leading scholars from a variety of disciplines examine how the forces of religious pluralism and globalization are playing out on the world stage A Relational
