Politics Of Multiculturalism In The New Europe Racism Identity And Community:

The Politics of Multiculturalism in the New Europe Tariq Modood, Pnina Werbner, 1997-08 On multiculturalism

Multiculturalism, Religion and Women M. Macey, 2009-09-02 This book is the first sociological and feminist critique of multicultural theory and practice Using empirical research it answers the question is multiculturalism bad for women arguing that it is not only bad for minority ethnic women but for minority and majority communities and for society as a whole Whither Multiculturalism? Barbara Saunders, David Haljan, 2003 The attempt to make democratic processes more inclusive has led to the problematic notion of multiculturalism It is based on a new principle that all voices should be heard and equal respect has become the irreducible core of the liberal state However mere dialogue is not enough First it tends to privilege those who are already privileged To change this needs active exploratory listening that is allowed to challenge everyone's picture of the world Second since the tensions and ambiguities are here to stay practical ways to cope and negotiate have to be found although it's not at all clear what is involved The contributors to this volume explore both dimensions and in particular point to what it means when the language game of dialogicality meets its limit However as they point out the limits are not absolute but can be the entry to more complex language games The authors in this volume from Canada the Netherlands Belgium and Britain bring a vast repertoire of resources and interpretative frames to bear on the task of opening up what might be understood by the political ethical aesthetic notion of multiculturalism In these contributions one can hear a plea for an enhanced conception of democratic dialogue for the need to embrace different ontological aesthetic moral assumptions and for an ethics and politics which are more generous and receptive

Globalization of Racism Donald Macedo, Panayota Gounari, 2015-11-17 Addressing ethnic cleansing culture wars human sufferings terrorism immigration and intensified xenophobia The Globalization of Racism explains why it is vital that we gain a nuanced understanding of how ideology underlies all social cultural and political discourse and racist actions The book looks at recent developments in France Germany Greece Ireland Israel Italy Portugal Spain and the United States and uses examples from the mass media popular culture and politics to address the challenges these and other countries face in their democratic institutions The eminent authors of this important book show how we can educate for critical citizenry in the ever increasing multicultural and multiracial world of the twenty first century Contributors are David Theo Goldberg Loic Wacquant Edward W Said Zygmunt Bauman Peter Mayo and Carmel Borg Anna Aluffi Pentini and Walter Lorenz Peter Gstettner Georgios Tsiakalos Franz Hamburger Julio Vargas Lena de Botton and Ramon Flecha Concetta Sirna Jan Fiola Joao Paraskeva Henry A Giroux It explores new forms of racism in the era of globalization Regulation of Speech in Multicultural Societies Marcel Maussen, Ralph Grillo, 2017-10-02 This book focuses on the way in which public debate and legal practice intersect when it comes to the value of free speech and the need to regulate offensive blasphemous or hate speech especially though not exclusively where such speech is thought to be offensive to members of ethnic and religious minorities The themes addressed are of great significance for contemporary societies in many parts of the world including Europe and North America and although the volume focuses principally on the European context it also addresses the theme on an international level Contributions look at the transnational intertextuality of the debate as well as comparing approaches to regulation in different countries notably between the European Court of Human Rights and the United States Supreme Court This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World

Immigrant Associations, Integration and Identity João Sardinha, 2009 This book sheds light on the integration processes and identity patterns of Angolan Brazilian and Eastern European communities in Portugal It examines the privileged position that immigrant organisations hold as interlocutors between the communities they represent and various social service mechanisms operating at national and local levels Through the collection of ethnographic data and the realisation of 110 interviews with community insiders and middlemen culled over a year's time João Sardinha provides insight into how the three groups are perceived by their respective associations and representatives Following up on the rich data is a discussion of strategies of coping with integration and identity in the host society and reflections on Portuguese social and community services and institutions

Africa in Europe: Antiquity into the age of global expansion Stefan Goodwin, 2009-01-01 Africa in Europe in two volumes is an interdisciplinary work about Europeans that demonstrates fluid boundaries and connections between them and Africans from antiquity until the present Written by a scholar with expertise that includes anthropology social history and international relations the subject matter of this fascinating work ranges from science to art and invites much new thinking about racism territoriality citizenship and frontiers in a world that is increasingly globalized

Africa in Europe: Antiquity into the Age of Global Exploration Stefan Goodwin, 1955-01-01 Africa in Europe in two volumes meticulously documents Europe's African presence from antiquity to the present It incorporates findings from areas of study as diverse as physical anthropology linguistics social history social theory international relations migrational studies and globalization In contrast to most other works focusing on Eurafrican relationships that largely revolve around Atlantic and trans Atlantic developments since the Age of Global Exploration this work has a much broader perspective which takes account of human evolution the history of religion Judaic studies Byzantine studies the history of Islam and Western intellectual history including social theory While the issue of racism in its variant manifestations receives thorough treatment African in Europe is also about human connections across fluid boundaries that are ancient as well as those that date to the Age of Exploration the Age of Revolution and continue until the present Hence it brings new clarity to our understanding of such processes as acculturation and assimilation while deepening our understanding of interrelationships among racism violence and social identities This work is full of new insights fresh interpretations and highly nuanced analyses relevant to our thinking about territoriality citizenship migration and frontiers in a world that is increasingly globalized The author moves across boundaries of time and space in ways that result in an encyclopedic work that is an integrated and programmatic whole as well as one in which each chapter is a complete module of scholarship that is self contained

Paul Tapsell Stephen E Weil Paul Williams and Andrea Witcomb Critical Multiculturalism Stephen May, 2005-08-18 This book aims to bring together two movements multiculturalism and anti racism which though having aims in common have been at arms length in the past Differences of emphasis have meant that classroom practice has been the natural realm of multiculturalism while anti racism has been dissatisfied with an approach that accentuates life style at the expense of challenging or changing the racism that minority students experience In these debates there has been a concentration on culturally specific topics and this book goes beyond national boundaries to find how international concerns and contexts might provide answers to problems faced in single countries Leading figures in the USA Canada South Africa the UK and Australasia write on the issues Racisms Steve Garner, 2009-11-25 A very clear and engaging introduction to a contemporary analysis of race and racism s This text effectively combines key theoretical perspectives with vivid contemporary examples Dr Rebecca Barnes University of Derby Fantastic book for helping students get past the stuntedness of the term racism to understand the way in which racisms are part of our social practices and institutions Dr Lucy Michael Hull University This is a solid text covering the topic in a thoughtful manner Studying and teaching racism is a complex issue and this book is a very good resource Dr Sanjay Sharma Brunel University We hear much about race and racism in public discourse but the terms are frequently used without clear definitions or practical examples of how these phenomena work Racisms An Introduction introduces practical methods which enable students to think coherently and sociologically about this complex feature of the global landscape Steve Garner argues that there is no single monolithic object of analysis but rather a plural set of ideas and practices that result in the introduction of race into social relations This differs over time and from one place to another Focussing on the basics this book Defines race racism institutional racism and racialization Provides examples of how these function in fields like the natural sciences and asylum Clearly sets out theoretical arguments around collective identities race class gender nation religion Uses empirical case studies including some drawn from the author s own fieldwork Points students toward sources of further web and text based information Engaging and accessible this book provides a signposted route into key elements of contemporary debates It is an ideal introduction for undergraduates studying race and ethnicity social divisions and stratification From Multiculturalism to Democratic Discrimination Alberto Spektorowski, Daphna Elfersy, 2020-12-10 The effect of Islam on Western Europe has been profound Spektorowski and Elfersy argue that it has transformed European democratic values by inspiring an ultra liberalism that now faces an ultra conservative backlash Questions of what to do about Muslim immigration how to deal with burqas how to deal with gender politics have all been influenced by western democracies grappling with ideas of inclusion and most recently exclusion This book examines those forces and ultimately sees not an unbridgeable gap but a future in which Islam and European democracies are compatible rich and evolving
