Questions Of Belief:

Questions of belief Edward Livermore Burlingame, 1878 Questions of Faith Peter Berger, 2015-11-04 Leading religious and cultural commentator Peter Berger explores how and what we can believe in modern times Deals clearly with questions such as Does God exist What was so special about Jesus How can one be Christian in a pluralistic society Structured around key phrases from the Apostles Creed Draws on the Christian theological tradition and the work of other relevant thinkers such as Freud and Simone Weil The author takes the position of an open minded sceptic exploring his own beliefs 50 Simple Questions for Every Christian Guy P. Harrison, 2013-03-19 Written in a respectful and conversational style this unique book is designed to promote constructive dialogue and foster mutual understanding between Christians and non Christians The author a skeptic and journalist asks basic questions about Christian belief What is the born again experience Why would God want to sacrifice his only son for the world Do miracles really happen How reliable is the Bible What is the rapture Why isn't everyone a Christian Each question is followed by commentary and analysis that is skeptical and tough but never argumentative or condescending Christians will find the book useful as a basis for developing their apologetics while skeptics will welcome Harrison's probing rational analysis of religious claims Questions of Belief T. E. Burke, 1995 This book takes a fresh look at fundamental questions concerning the nature of religious belief the possibilities of justifying such belief and of fruitful communication between different belief systems Questions of Belief Aaron Craig Mullerleile, 2004 Asking Questions Robert Fiengo, 2007-05-03 Asking Questions examines a central phenomenon of language the use of sentences to ask questions Although there is a sizable literature on the syntax and semantics of interrogatives the logic of questions and the speech act of questioning no one has tried to put the syntax and semantics together with the speech acts over the full range of phenomena we pretheoretically think of as asking questions Robert Fiengo not only does this but also takes up some more foundational issues in the theory of language By positioning the findings of contemporary grammatical theorizing within the larger domain of language use Fiengo challenges the use theorist to acknowledge the importance of grammatical form and the grammarian to acknowledge the importance of use In addition to developing an Austinian distinction between four questioning speech acts and a proposal concerning the philosophy of language Asking Questions contains a useful discussion of the type token distinction and how use of language compares with use of other things Fiengo also considers the nature of multiple questions revealing what one must know to ask them and what speech acts one may perform when asking them Asking Questions advances our understanding of a wide range of issues in a number of important respects Scholars and students of linguistics and philosophy will find plenty to interest them in this pioneering work Questions of Faith Peter Berger, 2003-10-10 Leading religious and cultural commentator Peter Berger explores how and what we can believe in modern times Deals clearly with questions such as Does God exist What was so special about Jesus How can one be Christian in a pluralistic society Structured around key phrases from the Apostles Creed
