Easter 1916, 1917 Rebel Streets and the Informal Economy Alison Brown, 2017-02-24 Street trade is a critical and highly visible component of the informal economy linked to global systems of exchange Yet policy responses are dismissive and evictions commonplace Despite being progressively marginalised from public space street traders in the global south are engaged in spatial and political battlegrounds to reclaim space and claim de facto property rights over their place of work through quiet infiltration union power or direct action This book explores rebel streets the challenges faced by informal economy actors and how organised groups are seeking to reframe legal understandings to create new claims to space and urban rights The book sets out new thinking and a conceptual framework for improved understanding of the plural relationship between law rights and space for the informal economy the contest between traditional modernist and rights based approaches to development and impacts on the urban working poor With a focus on street trading the book seeks to

Paradise from behind the Iron Curtain Miklós Péti,2022-08-08 Paradise from behind the Iron Curtain provides a detailed survey of the key responses to Milton's work in Hungarian state socialism The four decades between 1948 and 1989 saw a radical revision of previous critical and artistic positions and resulted in the emergence of some characteristically Eastern European responses to Milton's works Critical and artistic appraisals of Milton's works in the communist era proved more controversial than receptions of other major Western authors on the one hand Milton's participation in the Civil War earned him the title of a revolutionary hero on the other hand religious aspects of his works were often disregarded and sometimes proactively suppressed Ranging through all the genres of Milton's oeuvre as well as the critical tradition the book highlights these diverging responses and places them in the wider context of socialist cultural policy In addition the author presents the full Hungarian script of the 1970 theatrical performance of Milton's Paradise Lost the first of its kind since the work's publication including a parallel English translation which enables a deeper reflection on Milton's original theodicy and its possible interpretations in communist Hungary Getting Rid Of The Crap
