

COMMUNITY QUILTS

2012 - 2014

Like quilting guilds around the world, Fairholme Quilters is committed to supplying quilts to provide warmth, comfort and a sense of security, adding to efforts to sustain people experiencing difficulty, hardship or disadvantage in our community.

Since July 2012 we have donated 100 quilts to residents of a nursing home, patients at a renal dialysis unit, and children's support groups through the Quilters Guild of NSW.

We aim to make warm, durable quilts in designs that will interest their owners.

Some of the fabric and other materials are donated, and we purchase others from the proceeds of events such as our two-yearly quilt show.

looking at the whole performance complex surrounding African performing objects and examines the material culture of object performance. Object Performance in the Black Atlantic argues that since human beings can attribute private personal meanings to objects obtained for personal use such as dolls, vessels, and quilts, the lines of material culture continuity between African and African American object performance run through objects that performed in ritual rather than theatrical capacity. Split into three parts, this book starts by outlining the spaces where the African American object performance complex persisted through the period of slavery. Part Two traces how African Americans began to reclaim object performance in the era of Jim Crow segregation, and Part Three details how increased educational and economic opportunities along with new media technologies enabled African Americans to use performing objects as a powerful mode of resistance to the objectification of Black bodies. This is an essential study for any students of puppetry and material performance and particularly those concerned with African American performance and performance in North America more broadly.
