Quinze Ans De Combat:

Quinze Ans de Combat, 1919-1934, Etc. [Articles on Politics.]. Romain Rolland, 1935 Guerre et révolution dans le roman français de 1919 à 1939 Maurice Rieuneau, 2000 Quinze ans de combat (1919-1934). Romain Rolland, 1935

Fictions of 1947 Kate Marsh, 2007 The end of the British Raj and the creation of the two states of India and Pakistan in August 1947 is a recognizable narrative within British Anglophone culture and colonial history In contrast the persistence of the five French trading posts or comptoirs on the Indian subcontinent until 1954 remains largely ignored by both French and British historians of French colonialism and the popular culture of the Hexagone In examining metropolitan French language representations of Indian decolonization this book demonstrates the importance of the British imperial loss in 1947 as a reference point within French cultural production The critical investigation into the strategies of representation used problematizes existing Anglophone theoretical models by critics such as Said Bhabha and Spivak for the analysis of colonial discourse It reveals that French language representations of Indian decolonization cannot be fully appreciated without engaging methodologically with France's politically subordinate status in India The book thus challenges the commonly accepted binary between colonizer and colonized proposing in its place a triangular model composed of the colonized India the subaltern colonizer France and the dominant colonizer Britain Through a systematic critical evaluation of the range of texts journalistic intellectual political and literary produced in metropolitan France by authors such as Romain Rolland Jean Rous H l ne Cixous Catherine Cl ment and Marguerite Duras the book challenges the current postcolonial orthodoxy that the story of Indian decolonization is solely an Anglophone space Histoire Universelle de Jacque Auguste De Chow, 6 Jacque Auguste De Thou, 1734 Romain Rolland and the Politics of the Intellectual Engagement David Fisher, 2017-07-05 This intellectual portrait of Romain Rolland 1866 1944 French novelist musicologist dramatist and Nobel prizewinner in 1915 focuses on his experiments with political commitment against the backdrop of European history between the two world wars Best known as a biographer of Beethoven and for his novel Jean Christophe Rolland was one of those nonconforming writers who perceived a crisis of bourgeois society in Europe before the Great War and who consciously worked to discredit and reshape that society in the interwar period Analyzing Rolland's itinerary of engaged stands David James Fisher clarifies aspects of European cultural history and helps decipher the ambiguities at the heart of all forms of intellectual engagement Moving from text to context Fisher organizes the book around a series of debates Rolland's public and private collisions over specific committed stands introducing the reader to the polemical style of French intellectual discourse and offering insight into what it means to be a responsible intellectual Fisher presents Rolland's private ruminations extensive research and reexamination of the function and style of the French man of letters He observes that Rolland experimented with five styles of commitment oceanic mysticism linked to progressive democratic politics free thinking linked to antiwar dissent pacifism and ultimately Gandhism antifacism linked to anti imperialism antiracism and all out political resistance to fascism and most controversially fellow traveling as a form of socialist humanism and the positive side of antifascism Fisher views Rolland's engagement historically and critically showing that engaged intellectuals of that time were neither naive propagandists nor dupes of political parties David James Fisher makes a case for the committed writer and hopes to re-ignite the debate about commitment For him Romain Rolland sums up engagement in a striking dialectical formula Presidential Government in Gaullist France William G. Andrews, 1983-06-30 In Presidential Government in Gaullist France William G. Andrews describes and explains the basic character of executive legislative relations in Gaullist France from 1958 to 1974 He demonstrates that the Fifth Republic became presidential despite its parliamentary constitution because of changes made by DeGaulle that were compatible with the emergent character of French society The information is provided in a conceptual framework that gives it greater coherence explanatory value and significance Andrews relates differences in the nature of institutions of societies and of political problems to types of power relationships that exist between the legislative and executive branches of government In order to achieve an objective appraisal of the controversial leader Andrews fits DeGaulle's constitutional efforts into a broader understanding of the relationships among great leaders texts societies and institutions The book enhances our understanding of the operation of the Fifth Republic and of French government in general Journal officiel de la République Française Frankreich, 1893 Journal militaire officiel, 1852 Bulletin des lois. Partie supplémentaire, 1856 Bulletin des lois 2e partie Ordonnances 1e et 2e section Revue des sciences politiques, 1914 Annales des sciences politiques, 1914 Includes section Bibliographie Bulletin des lois de la République française, 1875 Bulletin des lois de la République française France, 1915 Bulletin des lois de la République Française France, 1864 Bulletin des lois de la République Française, 1793 UNDERSTANDING SOCIETY Rudolf Steiner, 2017-11-27 In the uncertainty following the end of the First World War Rudolf Steiner perceived a unique opportunity to establish a healthy social and political constitution He began lecturing throughout post-war Germany often to large audiences about his social ideas Here speaking to a more intimate grouping at the Goetheanum in Dornach Switzerland Steiner seeks to deepen the themes of social threefolding showing specifically how new social thinking is integral to anthroposophy Steiner speaks of the superficiality of the materialistic view of history originating with the economic shift amongst the population at the time of the Reformation Back in Egyptian Chaldean times initiates ruled out of spiritual impulses Later in the Greco-Roman period priests had power over their congregations Today homo economicus or economic man has become the dominant idea with the capitalist and the banker taking control But the healing of social relationships can only come about through different modes of thought the life of spirit must be separated not only from politics but also from economics True social understanding allows for comprehension of karma the appreciation of each person's individual destiny In parallel says Steiner we should work towards a global consciousness as true social ideas are founded on people feeling themselves to be citizens of the world In an important corollary Steiner studies the incarnations of three significant spiritual beings in human evolution Lucifer Christ and Ahriman Lucifer incarnated in the third pre Christian millennium Christ incarnated at the dawn of a new age whilst an incarnation of Ahriman in the West is immanent Ahriman is preparing this incarnation by insidiously promoting various ideas for example that economic security is sufficient for healthy public life A new wisdom must be achieved out of free human will says Steiner or else we will succumb to Ahriman Recueil des proclamations et arrêtes des représentans du peuple français France,1854 Journal officiel de la République française France,1929 Bulletin des lois de la République Française Frankreich,1874
